R. D. NO. 1

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Simonson were in Detroit last Sunday.

Mrs. George Wood and son Russell were in Detroit Saturday.

W. E. Price will make his home with William Lockeman this winter.

Miss Mame Cannon was in Detroit all one day preparing for Xmas.

Born to Mrs. C. G. Parks, a baby girl last Friday. All doing well.

Mrs. Ann Duffy will make her home with Mrs. Frank Alexander for the winter.

Mr. Charles F. Pease is getting ready to fence all around his farm with wire fencing.

L. J. Hasek just bought a new milk cow. Everything goes on the Winter dairy farm.

Allen Castle took possession of his farm again. He says: "I want to be a farmer, and right he is."

Halsey Stephens is on the windup of his house, as he has Walter Sturman finishing the inside woodwork.

Fred G. Hansen has got the foundation all laid up for a silo. When Fred says so, things have got to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Westy Bennett of Elmira, N. Y., are the guests of his sister, Mrs. H. H. Martin, on the Willow farm.

F. H. Turner will in the near future put a foundation under his house that he bought from C. I. Johnson east of Southfield Burg.

Halsey Stephens and Oscar Miller are getting ready to take their Oregon trip. They will spend the winter preparing and if things look bright Oscar Miller may stay.

Alvin Leach has moved on to the Harff farm that he bought last fall. He will leave some of his stock on the Castle farm for the winter, but now he is a west Maple ave. farmer.

George Hewson and his good wife Fave just bought the Rebecca, Wright household, consideration $1,800.00. Nine brothers and sisters to share equally. Now George will till the old farm, fix it up, clean the roadside of brush, and may good luck go with the farm.

Now, good people, don't forget to wrap up your pennies, so that the R. D. man can't get them easy. You all know that if they are not wrapped up, he is not obliged to take them out at all. So don't get mad and shoot the man. You're without a struggle, I'm, your Rousseau.

NOTICE TO WATER TANKERS.

It is very evident from the way the pumps at the water station are being used that there is an awful waste of water night and day, by users leaving their faucets open, more or less of the time; which is strictly forbidden. In case of a fire, under the present conditions, it would be simply impossible to get water fire pressure to be of any good a serious loss by fire may be the result. Please discontinue the practice.

GEORGE E. DAINES, President.

Buy Something Useful For Christmas Gifts!

Sewing Machines, Buffets, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Go-Carts, Parlor or Library Tables, Combination and Sectional Bookcases, Pedestals, Dressers, Sideboards, China Closets, Kitchen Cabinets, etc., etc. Any of these makes a gift the whole family will enjoy.

This week we expect a large shipment of Rockers, etc., which, with stock lately received, will give a splendid selection to pick from, $1 up $32.25, for the very best genuine leather Turkish Rockers.

We have a lot of Furniture sold for Christmas delivery.

FURS

A great many who had been in looking at our fine Furs were disappointed Saturday to find them all sold. This is a hint also to purchasers in other lines. Buy now while the selection is good.

However, I am having forwarded by express from New York a large shipment of fine Muffs and Neck Pieces, that should be on sale by Saturday.

I wonder if you all know what splendid qualities at close-to-cost prices I am offering in Ladies' Fur Coats and Men's Overcoats, as well as in Furs.

Enough to know about it to cause my sales in these lines to excel all expectations. But how about you? Have you been in?
