NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS: Since the hunting season opened, hunters with guns and dogs have been making good use of my farm in search of game. That is all right, I don't mind if the fellows want to shoot game on the place, if they will do that only and then then get out and leave the property intact. Today in looking over an orchard set with two year trees, I found trees cut square in two, and others damaged beyond repair, the result of their use as targets for large calibre rifle balls. I have found fences down, wires cut anp limbs broken off the big apple trees, but what I found today, I think is the last straw. Have I got to resort to the use of the barbed wire fence? Tack up "No Trespassing" signs? Let out the dogs? All because some fellow oversteps his privileges! A Subscriber and Sufferer.

John Barkley, former D. U. R. superintendent at this place, since moving to Detroit has sure been persued by a Hoodoo with a capital H. Bad luck in the way of sickness for himself and family seems to have it in for them all. For his three boys and oldest girls have been taken to Harper hospital with that most dreaded disease scarlet fever and black diphtheria. The youngest son George went Sept. 25 and was three eight weeks, then Marguerite and the two oldest boys went Thanksgiving day with scarlet fever and diphtheria. The girl had both and the boys just the latter, and Lucille went on Nov. 14 to have her throat operated on and Mr. Barkley expects to go to the hospital the first week in January 1911 for an operation for an old standing trouble. So you see the family have suffered much.

The Cowans are happy, Hurrah! Hurrah!! From Spokane Bridge, Wash., a letter signed by Mrs. Robt. J. Cowan, reads as follows: "Inclosed find money order for two dollars, ($2.00.) I believe we are owing you from last February, and it is a sure enough fact we can't do without the ECCENTRIC. We have sold our apple ranch here at Otis, and more than doubled the money we had invested, and have just bought an 80 acre tract of irrigated land in southern Idaho. We will send you our new address, when we move early in the coming spring. Yours truly, Mrs. Robert J. Cowna. The many friends here of the writer, will be pleased to read the above and note the prosperity of this popular couple with pleasure. Speaking of our absent Western friends here is some news, at least its new to us. Mr. and Mrs. I. Lee Truax have added another little girl to their little family. Count 'em, that's three. Here's congratulations to Lee and the good wife.

"WishyouMerryChristmas."

Mr. Samuel Bortle and wife called on many old friends here Saturday last.

Mr. Erastus H. Wooster, of Sterling Ills., is having a holiday visit with Landlord Jim of the Birmingham Inn. "Ras" looks prosperous and is so and is enjoying short chats with many old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Boyer, of Detroit, formerly Miss Zilpha Campbell, of this place, leave this week to spend the holiday season visiting friends and relatives in Chicago and Kansas City.

W. I. Deer is laid up with a badly sprained ankle, so much so that he has not been in the shop at all for the past week. Meanwhile Mell and Will do the tonsorial art up in a style to suit the most fastidious. Call and see.

This office received a pleasant call from Mrs. John Talbot Smith, of New York state and her daughter Mrs. Sue Vandenburg, whose home is in Detroit. Both ladies expressed their pleasure in seeing how Birmingham "do" grow.

D. G. Fisher on the Wm. Allen farm two miles west and one mile north of Birmingham, on Tuesday, Dec. 27, at 1 p. m., will have an auction sale and M. H. Blunt will do the selling. Two Peeler colts, bees, egg incubators, cutters, farming tools, implements and household goods, etc. Everything goes.

"Dinna ye hear the Slogan?" Just a few more slogans are offered and not yet too late either. Master E. R Rosso offers this one: "Watch Birmingham." Mrs. Lillie Render of Southfield, must be of a latin turn of mind, sends in; "Nalli Secundus," a very good one, too, meaning second to none. Mr. H. W. Booth, of Cranbrook, suggests, "The Bees are all Busy in Bir'ham." He further adds, "Birmingham, in full is too long for a slogan; besides there is no originality about it, and then there is a charm about a nickname. 'Maple Ave.' lady hands in, "Watch Birmingham." short, incisive and commanding. The Slogan polls will close one week from today forever.

My dear friends of the village. Let me invite you to come to a rather unusual service to be held in St. James' church at midnight on Christmas eve. At this time of the year when we wish peace on earth and good will to all men, let us gather together in God's house of prayer and lift our grateful hearts to Him in prayer and praise for His many blessings, and sing those dear old Christmas carols, and partake of the Lord's Supper, where we may all—pastors and people—kneel side by side, forgetting our doctrinal differences and our unhappy divisions and remembering we are all one in Christ, whose birth we commemorate on this day of days. Come ye!

The installation of officers in Birmingham chapter, No. 93 R. A. M. Monday evening, Dec. 19, was a very pleasant occasion and besides the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the installation and investing of the several officers by Past High Priest Eugene Brooks with Rev. Jamieson as Grand Marshall also Master of Ceremonies in the rendering of the program was very satisfactory and possibly brought tears Miss Ethel Kennedy, violinist, Mrs. Lawrence McHugh, pianist, Miss Lucy Ward, reader; Dr. J. M. Rainey soloist, and Commander A. J. Stiffler in recitations of his own poem, kept each and every one happy and when the audience all joined in singing Auld Lang Syne with many other familiar selections, all went home happy, voting C. J. Shain a master hand in arranging a program.

That Mysterious Woman! She certainly made a hit! Of all the many guesses that came in, Miss Minnie Wilson was the one to win the prize, one year's sub. to this paper. We would not dare to mention the ladies' names sent in, whom the writers declared were the originals of the photo, for obvious reasons, the names of four of our first lady residents were handed to us. Would we dare tell you? No! no!! Far be it from such!! But among the men folks its different, Answers came by phone, by mail and verbally. The guesses run the scale from Whitehead to Codnor, with Mitchell in the middle, and created much merriment. Miss Wilson, the winner, sent in the first correct guess, and said, "I guess it is Wes. Faint representing Mrs. John D. Rockefeller." Wes Faint is a facial contortionist, if you don't believe it, drop in and we will prove it with other photos along the same lines.

Dr. George P. Raynale and wife from Harbor Beach have been enjoying a few days visit with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoge very soon will move into the new brick house just finished by Whitehead & Mitchell just west of the First National Bank. It sure is a pretty and pleasant home.

Mrs. Fred C. Warner in the village of Royal Oak one block east of Erb's corners, on Thursday, Dec. 29, at 1 p. m., will sell horses, milch cow, Jersey calf, wagons, harnesses, farming tools hen house, 76x20, and everything to close out the entire plant.

A mantle and grate with a beautiful Christmas tree handsomely lighted and a big display window full of suitable gifts is Charles J. Shain's holiday offering. He has in stock a full line of perfumes, in bottles and bulk, cigars, candies, toys, books, nuts, etc., in quantity and quality that is bewildering. Sure one looking for a gift need go from this store dissatisfied.

F. Blakeslee, while not going in heavy for a holiday trade, has a fine a stock to select presents from as anybody wanting gifts could wish to look over. He has a new and carfully selected stock of handkerchiefs, ties, jabots, etc., which are always sought after for gifts. On the side he has jewelry, perfumes and notions, all of which invite attention. Call on Frank, tell him a good story, hear him smile and then buy, buy.

For plenty to eat of the finest quality, neat, clean and tidy go to Spencer & Ferguson's. Everything for the table is their motto and they have the goods and have "made good" the past years. Just drop in and see how tastefully decorated their store is. Then look around and see the largest stock of groceries in town and the busiest place you ever was in. Mr. Spencer and a genial, pleasant and pretty supply of assistants will be glad to supply your every wish.

M. Levinson's department store would not be out of place right down in Detroit on Woodward avenue. His windows are filled full of all kinds and sorts of Christmas gifts from a penny doll to, as high as the most generous purse would expect. His stock in all lines is complete. Here you can find everything in the dry goods line, in clothing, hats caps, boots, shoes, etc. You can do no better in Pontiac or Detroit that to buy of Levinson. He invites you to call, look over his goods whether you buy or not.

H. B. Parks & Co. last Saturday gave a banquet at the Birmingham Inn to 17 of their customers who bought Corn King manure spreaders. A procession was formed and a street parade given that attracted a great deal of attention. Looked to us like a circus parade. Tom Alger came up from Royal Oak and photographed the whole outfit. All the patrons testify gladly to the good treatment and bargains they obtain while with H. B. P. & Co., to say nothing of what they said about their treatment on delivery day.

Two showers in one day is quite unusual as this time of the year, but that is what happened last Thursday. A number of Miss Eva McClellan's friends in Clarkston surprised her in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Steet and presented her with gifts in honor of her approaching marriage. When she returned to Birmingham on the evening train, the young ladies of the Alpha Omocrom club entertained for her at the home of Miss Marion Porter and she was again surprised with a well filled basket of useful and dainty gifts.

I know there has been a great many disappointed when they thought relief in their grasp, but let me send you my free prescription and booklet of private lectures to men which is the result of study since I began lecturing to student classes, way back in '71. Since that time I have cured many cases that are now pleased to recommend me.

YOU NEED AID. Let me help you to regain your former standing among men. In short, let me assist you to be yourself once more.
