

Has proved a Great Success—Thousands Say It's the Best Thing They Ever Grew.

The Wonderberry or Sunberry, the marvelous garden fruit originated by Luther Burbank, and introduced by John Lewis Childs, the well-known Seedman of Floral Park, N. Y., has proved a great success all over the country. Thousands say it is the best thing they ever grow.

Mr. John Burroughs, the well-known author, Naturalist and boom-fancier of Theodore Roosevelt, says it is the most delicious pie berry he ever tasted, and a marvelous cropper.

A Director of the New York Agricultural Experiment Station writes its fruit abundantly even in pure sand, and in the short season of North-western Canada it is a godsend, and fruits longer after frost has killed most other crops.

D. S. Hall, Wichita, Kan., says: "Thirty people grow it there last season with perfect satisfaction."

K. S. Enoch, Hammond, La., says it yields $250 worth of fruit per acre with him. Mrs. J. H. Powers, 4722 Kenwood avenue, Chicago, raised enough berries on a space 1x10 feet to supply herself and friends.

J. P. Swallow, Kenton, Ohio, says it is equal for all purposes does not even Rev. H. B. Sheldon, Pacific Grove, Cal., says he likes the berries served in any and every way.

W. T. Davis, Knox, Va., says it is true to description in every way, and fruits in three months from seed.

Judge Morrow, of U. S. Circuit Court, says the Wonderberry is simply delicious raw or cooked. Mr. Childs exhibited one plant five months old bearing 10,475 berries which measured about eight inches.

Mrs. Hattie Vincent, Hayden, New Mexico, says it stands the long, hard droughts of that arid State and fruits abundantly all summer.

It is certainly the most satisfactory garden fruit and the greatest novelty ever introduced.

LINCOLN'S CHILDREN WHO COLLECTED THEM

THE EARLIEST PHOTOGRAPH OF LINCOLN.

THE EARLIEST PHOTOGRAPH OF LINCOLN.

It is no secret that the mother of the nation who was loved by those who seek to make the nation a sinless and pure people.

In the present age of money getting, no matter how much of criticism of public men who, while their faults, are to be loved because they have been loved by those who seek to make the nation a sinless and pure people.

And while we are getting ready to honor Lincoln it is well to add that none may understand him who has not first discovered what it is in his character and in ours that makes us love him above comparison in the story of the world's great men.

She threw away the mat of corn husks and leaves which they slept on and replaced it with a soft feather tick. She loved little "Abu" and the lonely boy retained his kind and affection.

Lincoln loved, and waited and hoped, even when his suit appeared utterly hopeless. Finally the boy went to work, promising to come back Lincoln with a hat and a stanch, true friend.

reading every book he could find. Later he engaged in storkkeeping with a partner, but he was not cast for a mercantile career.

When he first was elected to the Illinois state legislature in 1834 he met and fell in love with pretty, sunburn-faced Anne Rutledge, daughter of the owner of the tavern in which he lived.

It was a singular feat of fate that he should have won her away from Stephen A. Douglas, who was later to be his rival in the great anti-slavery struggle that was ended only by millions of armed men and that almost simultaneous with his ending left Mary Todd a widow.

The wife of the union were born the son Robert T. "Willie" and "Tad." Willie died in the White House February 20, 1862, and Tad, or Thomas, died in Chicago July 15, 1871, at the age of 18 years. Robert T., the eldest of the three sons, lives in Chicago. He is president of the Pullman company and has enjoyed a highly successful business career.

Lincoln's attitude toward the estimable woman who became his wife perhaps as good an estimate as any may be found in practically his last words to her, spoken on the afternoon of the day of his assassination, as they rode through the streets of Washington.

He talked to her of what they would do when his term of office was over and they could take up a quiet life again.

"We have saved some money," he said, "and ought to be able to save some more. And with that and what I can earn from my law practice we can settle down in Springfield or Chicago and live cozily to a green old age."

But God had otherwise disposed. Within 24 hours the woman who, in the ultimate, had shared the tribulation of her husband, the great emancipator, was widowed and his sons and the entire nation were orphaned.
