THE ECCENTRIC

25c For 3 MONTHS

R. D. NO. 1 BIG BEAVER

Mrs. J. Mel. Henning was at Pontiac last Tuesday.
Mrs. H. B. Blodgett has been quite sick last week but she is o. k. now.
J. Mel. Henning was at Corona last week to see Mr. Wallace before he died.
Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Miller will hold their 12th. wedding anniversary this week.
Mrs. H. H. Martin and her daughter, Mrs. E. Ross were in Detroit last Saturday.
Mrs. William Mills from Detroit is visiting her daughters, Mrs. R. J. Hanna and Mrs. Louis Randall.
H. C. Middlemis of Detroit, was out calling on his old friends last Sunday, around the Twelve Mile road.
Mrs. Alex. Parsons is some better, but is still a very sick woman. With good care she may pull through.
Allen Porteus has rented Will. Elkwood's tenant house, moved last Wednesday, and is as cozy as a bug in a rug.
Alvin Leach has started to move on the Cleve farm last Monday, and will be ready for business by the first of April.
Malcomb McDonald will put up a new house on his farm in the spring. The lumber is all on the ground ready for business.
Nelson Shattuck, the realty man, started last Wednesday for California, where he will buy a tract of land for future use.
The Glens held their meeting last Wednesday at the home of Clyde Douglas. 60 were present, and a good time was enjoyed by all.
William Shepherd lost a valuable horse last week. It got hurt last fall, was put in a sling, became paralyzed, and had to be killed.
The Roseland Cemetery will commence work first of April. A new superintendent from the East will take charge and everything will boom.
Mrs. Mary McDonald just returned from Corona, where she has been for the past six weeks attending to her sick father, who passed away last week.
Well, John Keyser has lost his old perch Grey horse, his old stand-by. This faithful old equine never was sick, and never missed a meal for the last 27 years. This all happened last Thursday.

COUNTY LINE

Jake Thout is shingling his house.
John Frislie is shingling his barn.
Wm. Bush is getting ready to build a new barn.
Mrs. Sam Martin and children spent Sunday at H. C. Wilson's.
Jule Boening is boring for a well. Oliver Phillips is doing the work.
Fred Boening, of Holly, visited County Line and Warren friends recently.
Charles Schultz, of Detroit, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schultz.
Loren Blunt, of Ann Arbor, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Blunt.

AT THE THEATRES.

No play of American life fuller of keen human interest has been presented in the last decade than "The Squaw Man," which comes to the Lyceum for one week beginning next Sunday.
Lieber & Co. have spared no pains or expense to make the production complete in every particular and the stage settings are calculated to excite the wonder and admiration even of a generation of playgoers surfeited with elaborate stage spectacles.
The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinee will be given.

$30.00 SUITS TO ORDER
$20
This is a very special January and February offer to our customers that cannot be equalled anywhere else in the land.
They are exactly such fabrics as other good tailors sell at $30, $35, $40 - or, on our own basis, goods that we, with our buying power, could not sell for less than $25 to $28.50 for Suits, while now the price is $20 for the suit.
Every garment made to order - to measure - to fit - and to please. Call and see me and inspect my samples.
