

Royal Oak

Latest From Our Sister Village

Mr. Wooten, of Milford, was in town Sunday.

R. H. Rose made a business trip to Orionville recently.

Wm. Phillips is building a new home on Washington avenue.

Fred Stevens and family, of Oxford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gardner.

Mrs. Arthur Helfrich, of Utica was the guest of her brother, Frank Harvey, several days the past week.

Mrs. Kenedy has the most profitable flock of hens in town. They number 22 and average 18 eggs per day.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clack, of Sand Creek, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White, the past week.

Will the village council give us a chance to vote on the waterworks question in the near future? Why not?

Who knows of another town in Michigan of 1,200 inhabitants that can beat our record for building this spring.

Ralph Kishpaugh, of the lower end of town, is sick in Port Huron. Early morning commuters have missed him.

Waterworks, five cent fare to the Ford factory and 15 minute car service to Detroit will make us a more desirable suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Braze, of County Line.

Mrs. Pratt, who has spent the past three months with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Sage, has returned to her home in Durand.

Mr. Bamlet, of the Bamlet building, Detroit, is building a bungalow on his Woodward avenue property near the 12 mile road.

A party of butchers and friends gave Robert Ford a pleasant surprise on Friday evening of last week. All report a most enjoyable time.

Miss Clara Ries, who has been employed at the Home Bakery for some time, has secured a position with the Royal Oak Savings Bank.

Fifteen new houses have already been started this spring and as many more will be under construction as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

The band is progressing very rapidly and are already able to play several pieces. This speaks well for the boys and their instructor Prof. Norton.

The Grand Trunk railroad have greatly improved the appearance of the grounds around the station, but we notice that parts of the old board fence still remains on the east side.

The snow having disappeared it has left a good many unsightly back yards and in some places there are piles of ashes in the street. Wouldn't it be a good idea to clean up a little this nice weather.

It is said that one of Hendrie's sons is to occupy the Hendrie cottage on the corner of the 10 mile and the mill road. For several seasons this cottage had for a guest D. J. Campau, the democratic leader.

If every one who owns a vacant lot would set out at least two shade trees on it, how much it would improve the appearance of our streets as well as add greatly in value to the property and the cost would be small.

The band boys will give a dancing party at Moorey hall April 1 instead of Mar. 28 as we stated last week. Every live citizen should buy a ticket whether they attend or not. The boys are deserving of all the encouragement we can give them.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Doane, who bought the Campbell bungalow on the 11 mile road, near Woodward, will move in May 1. Mr. Doane is accountant for the Acme White Lead Co. Mr. and Mrs. Doane are Flint people, but have been living in Detroit for several years.

Bring your job work to us. Our prices are right.

Democratic caucus Saturday, Mar. 26; at 7:30 p. m.

Misses Rose and Mary Stauch spent Sunday at home.

Wm. Told has sold his farm and will move to the village.

Don't be a knocker. Say good things about your own town.

Mrs. Willow is very ill at the home of her father, Frank Richards.

The Home Missionary society meets today at the home of Mrs. Tom Bell.

From the present outlook there will be 100 houses built here this summer.

Hugh McCormick and family, of Detroit, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. Gregg and daughters, of Detroit, visited Dr. Morrison's Saturday last.

Mrs. James Cobb, of Birmingham, visited Mrs. A. D. Kidder the past week.

Mrs. C. U. Souly, of Milford, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Morrison.

Miss Beach, of Walled Lake, visited at the home of Rev. Willets the past week.

Dr. Groves has purchased the E. J. Hough residence and will take possession at once.

Miss Mable Baldwin, who has been on the sick list for the past three weeks, is able to be out again.

Robert Vinton, of the Vinsetta farm on Woodward avenue, is dangerously ill with pneumonia in Detroit.

Lee Campbell has commenced the erection of a fine residence on the corner of Washington avenue and Sixth street.

Those who attended the Aid society at Mrs. D. L. Campbell's last week were delighted to find his aged mother, who is nearing the century mark, enjoying good health.

The boys of the senior class, Armstrong Pair of the eleventh, Thomas Lavery of the tenth grade, recently attended federal court in Detroit.

The band boys consider themselves fortunate in having among their number Thomas Pratt, who is an accomplished instructor and expert cornetist.

John C. Hickey, of Detroit, was in town one day last week and made the TRIBUNE call. Mr. Hickey was formerly a resident of this place, but at the present time he is engaged in the oil business, being interested in several paying wells at Leamington, Ont.

The Thursday evening club met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Matheson. First prizes were won by Mr. Scott and Mr. Yates, second by Mrs. Yates and Mr. Bristol and consolation by Mrs. Matheson and Mr. Reavely. The club will meet Mar. 24 with Mr. and Mrs. Gillette Valentine.

A protest has been signed by more than 2,500 women, who do not want saloons returned to this county. All they ask is a square deal for every one, and as the mothers and the children are the ones more directly affected by such an institution, they ask voters, especially the merchants to co-operate with us in this matter.

Several from here attended the funeral of Rev. Simpson, in Detroit last Friday. Rev. Simpson fell from a street car from which he was attempting to alight, and fractured his skull, from the effects of which he died. He was at one time pastor of the M. E. church here and numbered his friends by the score.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd of Chicago, Ill., commenced a chancery suit in the circuit court Friday through her attorneys, John E. Brondige and Ross Stockwell, to secure the settlement of the estate of her father, Hugh McLaughlan, formerly of this place. She asks the court to sell some property here and divide the proceeds among six sons and daughters. The defendants to the suit are William and Louis McLaughlan, of Chicago; Fred McLaughlan, of Buffalo; Mimie Easter, of Hamilton, Ont.; and Jennie Eckles, of Tonawanda, N. Y.

Prohibition caucus Monday, Mar. 21, 8 p. m.

Republican caucus Saturday, Mar. 26, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Harry Lonstaff spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. Welch.

Warner & Schimmel have opened a bakery in the Moorey building on Fourth street.

Mrs. R. S. Leonard, of Rochester, Ind., spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. George H. Beach.

The Rochester Savings Bank have an advt in this week's issue. Don't fail to read it and if you wish to open an account with them, they will be pleased to accommodate you.

Don't fail to read Mrs. E. A. Baum's advt in this issue and when you get ready to get that Easter bonnet give her a call. We can assure you of right prices and fair dealings at her place.

Through the efforts of Supt. Stevens, the sub district contest is to be held here Mar. 25. Representatives from several high schools of south eastern Michigan will take part. The winner to represent this section at the district contest.

St. Mary's church will hold a big bazaar on April 25 to 29. The following articles will be given to those holding the lucky tickets, a barrel of Stott's flour, rocker, umbrella, silver butter dish, foot stool, parlor lamp, couch cover, parlor table, bed spread and table cover.

A most enjoyable time was given to a few friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ebling at their home on Saturday evening. Progressive pedro was played until 10 o'clock when prizes were awarded to Mrs. Wm. Sullivan first prize, Mrs. Clarence Granow second, Edward Lamb first gentleman's and George J. Scott captured the consolation. Immediately after the distribution of prizes, a bountiful lunch was served to which all did justice. Several selections of music were offered by Mrs. Ed. Lamb on the violin assisted by George J. Scott as pianist after which the entire company voiced one sentiment that Mr. and Mrs. Ebling were royal entertainers and bid them a good night.

John Starr has an advt in this issue that it will pay you to note.

John Archer, of Battle Creek, was a business caller here last Friday.

A. Aspinwall has moved into the Carleton house on Washington avenue.

Miss Elouise Goodale has commenced as a millinery apprentice with Mrs. E. A. Baum.

Charles Mathieson, of Thomas, was the guest of his brother George one day last week.

Miss Gladys Rose was very sick for a few days the past week but is better at this writing.

Robert Willson, who joined the navy some weeks ago, has come home with a medical discharge.

Chaney Hutchins, of the Price Varnish Co., of Pontiac, was in town one day the past week on business.

Mrs. George H. Dewey, of Detroit, called on friends here Friday last. Mrs. Dewey formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rockelman of Pontiac, were in town Sunday called here by the death of their brother-in-law, Wm. Traesdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dondero and daughter Cordelia, of Grosse Pointe, were guests of Mrs. D. Marsland, Mrs. Dondero's mother Sunday.

A public mass meeting will be held at the town hall Saturday evening. While the women are welcome, the men are urged to be present.

Levenseler & Wooten have already made preparations for warm weather by having a new awning placed in front of their meat market.

The subject that Rev. John Mathews, pastor of the Baptist church, will take next Sunday morning will be, "We know not what we shall be."

REPUBLICAN TOWNSHIP CAUCUS.

Notice is hereby given that a republican township caucus for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for township offices of the township of Bloomfield, county of Oakland, state of Michigan, and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may properly come before it, will be held at the town hall in said township on Saturday, the 26th day of March, A. D. 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m. By order of Township Committee.

Sensation Oats!

Choice Re-Cleaned Seed for Sale
Forty Acres Yielded 2,668 Bushels, Crop 1909
PRICE $1 PER BUSHEL
E. A. STARR & SONS
Birmingham Phone 111 - ROYAL OAK, MICH.

New Spring Styles in Footwear

MEN'S OXFORDS
Patent Colt, Bright Velour Calf, Dull Gunmetal Calf, Vici Kid, Grey or Tan Russia Calf, Button, Lack or Sailor Ties, Welt Soles.

$3.00 to $4.00 Pair
Ladies' Oxfords, Ankle Pumps, and Two or Three-Eyelet Sailor Ties

All the new effects and patterns—Patent Kid or Colt, Gunmetal Calf, Dull Kid and Black Suede Calf, $1.75 to $3.50 Pair.

H. B. MERRITT PONTIAC

Home Furnishing Co.

Furniture
Carpets
Rugs
Draperies

Don't buy in Detroit when you can save 25 per cent buying of me. Come and see.

J. M. DONALDSON, Prop.
21 South Saginaw St.
Pontiac Michigan

Royal Oak Democratic Caucus
Democratic electors of Royal Oak township will meet in caucus, at the town hall, Saturday, March 26th, at 7:30 p. m. to nominate candidates for the various township offices, and to transact such other business as may come before the people. By Order of Com.

Paints and Finishes for Your Home

If there is a shabby surface in your home to be painted, enameled, stained, varnished or finished in any way, we have just what you need for producing the exact finish desired in the line of

ACME QUALITY PAINTS AND FINISHES

Let us show you colors for painting your house or barn, samples of finishes for floors, woodwork, walls, ceilings or furniture. Let us help you make shabby places look new and attractive.

COME IN and get a copy of THE ACME QUALITY PAINTING GUIDE BOOK. It tells what Acme Quality Paint, Enamel, Stain or Varnish to use, how much will be required and how it should be put on. It not only enables you to tell your painter or decorator exactly what you want, but it makes it easy for YOU to refinish the many surfaces about the home that do not require the skill of the expert—the jobs that a painter would not bother with. Ask for a copy. IT'S FREE.

SOLD BY JAMES W. COBB BIRMINGHAM