MRS. E. L. CALKINS

Every Voter in Birmingham Should Have Heard This Eloquent Speaker Last Sunday Afternoon

The address on "The Legalized Saloon" in the U. P. church Sunday afternoon last by Mrs. E. L. Calkins, president of the Michigan W. C. T. U.

She began by quoting the golden rule of our Saviour King. "All things whatsoever, ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to others."

She drew a vivid contrast between the wet city of Kalamazoo and the dry town of Battle Creek. Impersonating the mayor of Battle Creek for information as to the facts.

Republicans of Royal Oak Township Hold Banquet. Local Gov. Kelley Gives Interesting Talk.

The Republicans of Royal Oak township held their first banquet Wednesday evening, Feb. 23. A. W. Willson acted as toastmaster in a very able manner.

After a vocal solo by Mr. Nelson, of Pontiac, Lieut. Gov. Kelley, candidate for governor in the September primaries gave a very interesting address.

It has seemed to be thought best to make the affair a permanent organization and hold a banquet every year.

OH! WHAT A NAME THE D. U. R. GETS IT

Veritas Wildly Favors Lum T. Tum as a Synonym for Lum T. Tum, While Good Roads Prevail.

Big Beaver, Mich., March 1, 1910. DEAR EDITOR: "Veritas is the truth." "Veritas is the truth." "Veritas is the truth."

Now, to brand Mr. L. T. Tum as a monumental liar, pretentious and a person that is non compos mentis.

Whoa, there! What's up? Bill Hunter's boy just tumbled in to tell me that his father had seen a two faced skunk in the meadow near the hardy oak!

My factories are inundated with most exquisite torments. Dear Editor: The mail leaves in 15 minutes, and I am so upset I can't think.

P. S. I am going early tomorrow morning to the Mill! I mean the Mill! End sale, therefore will have the pleasure of mailing this from the town, where, "Life is worth living," instead of sweet dream.

How Good News Spreads. "I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B. F. Tolson, of Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

Rev. J. C. Pinkerton preached a fine sermon and assisted in the ordination service. Elder John Donaldson will not now feel so lonely.

Charles S. Matthews Announces His Candidacy for the Nomination to the Office of Prosecuting Attorney

Charles S. Matthews desires at this time to make public announcement of his candidacy for the nomination to the office of prosecuting attorney on the republication ticket at the primaries next September.

Mr. Matthews is a native of Oakland county and is the son of Col. S. S. Matthews, who is one of Oakland's pioneers. He graduated from the Pontiac high school in 1898 and from the University of the University of Michigan in 1902 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Since the first of January 1905, Mr. Matthews has held the position of assistant prosecuting attorney and while in that position has been actively engaged in all the cases that have been tried in the past five years, and the experience thus gained has made him thoroughly familiar with all the workings of the office, both in and out of the court room.

Vote a Principle

All Ready too Much Water For A Dry Village Even, Hence The Sewer Question, Again.

That a public improvement is required in our village to preserve the public health, and to insure our future growth, so no can successfully deny—we refer to the matter of public drainage.

But, I believe the time has now arrived when we should make our voices and our votes heard for this needed improvement. We are about to hold our village caucuses and election, and it would seem a step in the right direction to make "sewerage" a living issue.

Teachers Drawing Full Pay For Half Time Teaching, Kindergarten Work A Fad.

Recollection serves me right, a few years ago when the question of more school room arose, piece after piece appeared in your estimate paper to the effect that while no one denied the need for room, the time for building should be postponed until there was a different board, one better fitted for handling the funds which would be raised for that purpose.
