David Anderson, who has been sick with tonsillitis, has about recovered.
Mrs. John Schneider, of Troy, is slowly recovering from a long sick spell.
Ed. Peters, of Rochester, recently did a fine job of papering at George Hille in Troy.
Fred Warner, of Troy, who has been real sick with tonsillitis, is much better at present writing.
Mrs. George Ekhard, of Fenton, visited her brother, Ira Carner, of Big Beaver, a few days last week.
Will McKnight, of Detroit, brother of Mrs. Peter Anderson, recently had a decayed bone removed from the bottom of his foot.
Calvin Moore, of the County View farm in Sterling, is beautifying his fine farm home inside and out. Ed Lamb is doing the work.
The Big Beaver telephone company have their posts on the ground and soon 11 phones will be connected with the Birmingham exchange.
Miss Jennie Milton, of Southfield, is home from Harper hospital, Detroit, after a successful operation performed by Dr. Campbell, of Birmingham.

Worse Than Bullets.

Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Hartman, Huntington, Indiana, got in the army, and suffered with 40 years. "But Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. Greatest healer for sores, ulcers, boils, burns, cuts, wounds, bruises and piles. 25c at C. J. Shain's and J. W. Cobb's.

Charles Delmater last week had a sick cow but is better.

H. H. Martin on the Ella Wood farm, Monday, lost a fine cow last week. Joseph Croft is still on the sick list, but says just as soon as the sun shines he will be all o. k. again.
Dr. H. K. Bryant of Southfield, has moved to Birmingham, and we wish him all kinds of good luck.
Clyde Glass has bought his mother-in-law's fine farm, Mrs. James Harmon. Clyde will just hustle things this summer.
Frank Deer who got hit and hurt by the trolley car last week is getting along very nicely and will soon be back home again.
William Oddy is getting settled nicely on the John L. Keyser farm, and will be in line soon with his crops. We wish him all kinds of good luck.
Ren McKinney last week bought 15 acres of land from Halsey Stevens. It joined Ren's land and is just what he wanted, as he had no land here.
William Duff has just finished painting all of his outbuildings, and it certainly does look fine. Looks to a traveler like onto a small village, all by his loneliness.
Miss Ida Bristol had a birthday party last Saturday. Age, sweet 20. A large number of her girl friends were present. All had a delightful time, and Miss Stanley took the 1st. prize—a beautiful, nice big baby doll.

THE Demon of the Air is the germ of grippe, that, breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after-effects—cough, weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The great need is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerve, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of grippe. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by C. J. Shain and J. W. Cobb, anted by C. J. Shain and J. W. Cobb.
