THE FOOL-KILLER'S CEMETERY.

Side by side lies the eternal creatur who kept her corset laced up th the ast hole and the intellectual idiot wh a bicycle nine miles in 10 minutes rode a bicycle nine miles in 10 minutes. Way over by the gate reposes the remains of a boy who went awimming on Sunday and the old woman who kept her baking power side by šide with strychnine in the cupboard.

Down there in the potter's field, with is toes partly above the ground, lies the misguided wretch who tried to lick the editor; while the broken bones of the man who wouldn't pay his subscription are piled up in the corner of this fence.

The fool-killer gathered them one by one; still he is somewhat hefind with his orders.

No. 143, Dept. III., Q. A. R. saaac Cook, Commarder of the above st, Kewanee, Illinois, writes: "For ong time I was bothered with backer and plains across my Kidneys." When the same plains across my Kidneys. When the same plains across my Kidneys. The same plains and some way there to doing just as claimed. I kept on ing them and now I am free from kacke, and the painfall biadder miss all gene.
