FOR THE BUSINESSES

Charles K. Hamilton was the first aerial trip between New York and Philadelphia, and carrying letters between two great cities, a swift way for a message that is above which he flew. He sailed from Governor's Island to the Quaker city and back again, the return trip being compelled to make a long stop. In his hurry to get away he neglected to clean his spark plugs, which resulted in the engine being compelled to make a disastrous landing in a swamp.

The big lawsuit between the state of Michigan and the Michigan Central Railroad Co. were brought to an end signed at Mason, which Judge West awarded the money to Deputy Attorney-General, in behalf of the state, according to a stipulation signed June 10.

State Encampment G. A. R. The final program for the state encampment of the Grand Army to be held at the State Fair grounds, June 22, 23, 24, has been definitely determined and it is assumed the thousands of veterans who will be present will be greeted with the usual military honors.
