

A merican army in mailing. In this respect, however, the significant weekpeck, however, the significant weekpeck, however, the significant weekpeck, however, the significant weekpeck and the significant season of the significant season of learning in this country. To be sure, the drills, of learning the significant season of learning in this country. To be sure, the drills, openating would think, dream parkes and sham battering the significant season of learning the significant season of the significant sea

The second results of the school of the scho

way from "guard mount" to rough riding, are the magnets which draw to West Point the vast throng of sightness and pleasure seekers intentionally of sightness and pleasure seekers in telestable, it is an excellent opportunity to see celebrities. The president of the properture of the

GENERAL WOOD ALWAYS READY

That Earned His Advancement in Brief Time.

Brief Time.

Ray Stannard Baker writes a most interesting the steep of Gen. Leonard Wood in the American stantee, part of which is quieted as follows:

"Many there are who have steem the following the stanting of the starting rise to power and fame Gen. Leonard Wood. Twiley years ago an istant aurgeon, with little pr no regular mility of the stanting and the stanting and the stanting of the stanting and to the stanting and the army, although only a surgeon, he was assigned to lead a detechanent of a oldier's in pursuit of Geronimo's Ajaches warriors, far down among the mountains and acctuse deserts of Joid Mexicol. He mountains and acctuse deserts of Joid Mexicol. He mountains and acctuse deserts of Joid Mexicol. He mountains and acctuse deserts of Joint and the mountains and acctuse deserts and efficiency in the latest that the second and the mountains and the second and the mountains and the second accordance with one of its rare medals. Theodore Roosevelt said of him:

·

"No solider could outwalk hing, could rive with rearester indifference on hard and seanty fare, could endure hardship better or do better without sleep."

At the beginning of the Spanish war, when it will be a sent of the second o

Mother the First in Home, e dominant feature of the home, ver loving the father may have is the mother.

Dignamism.
Dignam tells us: "There are many sks in business. The wise man all ws his competitors to take them."

Real Estate Exchange

Forty Acres Enough for a Family