

Prospects in New England and Pacific States Redeem Losses in Interior.

England and the Pacific coast show almost counterbalance the poor showing of the central states, where early frost got in some telling work...

The condition of the apple crop is reported to be more than 80 per cent above last year's crop of 53, as compared with 30 last year and 10 in 1914...

On the other hand, the peach crop is reported to be 10 per cent below last year's crop of 88, as compared with 100 last year and 100 in 1914...

The watermelon and the cantaloupe crops will be slightly off, it appears, and the former is estimated at 77, as compared with 81.5 a year ago...

Sugar cane was reported at $47, as compared with $66 and sugar beets at $9.5, as compared with $9.

NEWS TOLD IN BRIEF.

That Alma Keller met her death at the hands of Joseph Wendling, missing janitor of St. John's Catholic church in New York...

The government of Austria-Hungary has officially advised the secretary of state that it has decided to accept the terms of the proposed opium convention...

The treasury department authorized the sale at public auction of the marble and granite monuments at the site of the Pearl and Kilgore streets, Cincinnati...

A special from Cananea, Mexico, says that forest fires have swept over a section 26 miles in length in the state and Mazatlan mountains...

Discouraged in his attempt to induce congress to increase the number of senators, the secretary of state...

THE MARKETS.

Detroit-Cattle-Market strong and steady. We quote choice dry-fed steers $17.00...

East Buffalo, N. Y.-Cattle-Market strong and steady. We quote heavy, 34 lbs. Yorkers $13.00...

Wheat-Chicago No. 2 red, 10.15; July option, 10.15; No. 3 red, 9.85...

Grain, ETC. Wheat-Chicago No. 2 red, 10.15; July option, 10.15; No. 3 red, 9.85...

Lone Bandit Loots Train. An eastbound train on the El Paso & Southern railroad was held up by a lone bandit, who herded the occupants...

Two thousand Mexican troops are marching against the army of Indians which captured Valladolid and massacred many persons...

What is believed to be a record at target practice with 16-inch disappearing gun was made at Fort Rosecrans, California...

OF Peculiar Interest to Women.

Dr. J. M. Hamilton, Registered Physician, St. Olney, Cal., says: "I suffered severely from pain and weakness, over the kidneys that it was a true case of kidney trouble."

My kidneys are a lot better now. I was unable to walk, and my back was so sore that I was unable to get up...

and was permanently cured. I was cured through the critical period of a woman's life at that time and after using Doan's Kidney Pills there was a miraculous change for the better in my health."

THEORY AND PRACTICE.

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

My motto is "The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Yes; but you'd rather have somebody else tell it."

SAVED OLD LADY'S HAIR.

"My mother used to have a very bad humor on her head which the doctors called an eczema, and for it I had two different doctors. Her head was very sore and her hair nearly all fell out in spite of what they both did. One day her niece came in and they were speaking of her hair which was falling out and the doctor did it so good. She says, 'Ah, what you'd do you're Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment.' Mother did and they helped her. In six months' time the itching, burning and scaling of her head was over and her hair began growing. Then they would crack open as bleed. I thought I would die to my mother's friends, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I did for four or five winters, and now my feet are as smooth as any one's. Elizabeth L. Latham, Hiram, Me., Sept. 30, 1910."

It will help. "If we didn't have the children," she bitterly declared, "I'd get a divorce from them. 'I'll write and let 'em get my folks to take 'em.'"

Dr. J. M. Hamilton, Registered Physician, St. Olney, Cal., says: "I suffered severely from pain and weakness, over the kidneys that it was a true case of kidney trouble."

My motto is "The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Yes; but you'd rather have somebody else tell it."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

My motto is "The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Yes; but you'd rather have somebody else tell it."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

My motto is "The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Yes; but you'd rather have somebody else tell it."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

My motto is "The truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." "Yes; but you'd rather have somebody else tell it."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all druggists. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Tomato, Chicken, Vegetable. Libby's Beans are ready for immediate use. An equal part of Libby's.

Ask your grocer for Libby's Soap. Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago.

DAISY FLY KILLER. Kills flies and mosquitoes. Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago.

Poor Appetite. Indicates weakness of the stomach nerves which control the desire for food. It is a sure sign that the digestive organs need the help of BEECHAM'S PILLS.

WESTERN CANADA. Senator Doolittle, of Iowa, says: "I have been in the West for many years and have seen many things, but I have never seen anything like this before."

The Army of Constipation. Is Growing Smaller Every Day. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. Only one responsible. It will cure you.

Cook in Comfort. You no longer need wear your self but with the weakening heat of an intensely hot kitchen. Here is a stove that gives no outside heat. All its heat is concentrated at the burners. An intense blue flame (hotter than either white or red) is thrown upwards but not around. All the heat is utilized in cooking—none in outside heating.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove. entirely removes the discomfort of cooking. Apply a match and immediately the stove is ready. Instantly an intense heat is projected upwards against the pot, pan, kettle or boiler, and yet there is no surrounding heat—no smell—no smoke.

PECULIAR IDEAS OF AUTHORS.

Illustrations by W. W. WOOD. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

BY RANDALL PARISH. Author of "A MAN OF FORTUNE."

The story opens with the introduction of John Stephens, a Massachusetts man married by a woman named Valparaiso. Being interested in mining operations, Stephens was abandoned by Chile as an insurance broker and as a consequence of his being abandoned his attention was attracted by an Englishman.

"Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me, Over Life's Tempestuous Sea."

rather than walked forward. A long, breathless moment she stood, grasping the window-casing, staring blindly out into the dark, the snow-flecked glass, her shoulders bent and trem- bling. She turned slowly, then looked one hand shadowing her eyes. Twice she endeavored vainly to find voice; then, clear, yet with the glimmering of tears clinging to each word, she sang:

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea. I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me.

CHAPTER XXV—Continued.

When the dishes had finally been removed I gave the men a mission. I moved west back to the after state room, and brought forth the log-book, which we made an effort to decipher. It was roughly written and by a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands.

CHAPTER XXVI.

In which We Find Treasure. They were locked in beyond the cockpit as soon as the first winds ceased, and the waves fell. The lust for wealth, partially blunted by the requirements of hardship and the weary days of the instant nature granted a temporary respite. The memory of the child of Seneca, Alexander died; the next day the mother went quietly to sleep, never to wake again. They did not even know when her final breath came.

It ended in the blank page. "Doris, sweetheart," I whispered, my words low and hoarse, "this will drive us all mad unless we can do something to bring back faith and hope, and best of you to sing to us, as you do here."

PECULIAR IDEAS OF AUTHORS.

Illustrations by W. W. WOOD. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

The story opens with the introduction of John Stephens, a Massachusetts man married by a woman named Valparaiso. Being interested in mining operations, Stephens was abandoned by Chile as an insurance broker and as a consequence of his being abandoned his attention was attracted by an Englishman.

"Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me, Over Life's Tempestuous Sea."

rather than walked forward. A long, breathless moment she stood, grasping the window-casing, staring blindly out into the dark, the snow-flecked glass, her shoulders bent and trem- bling. She turned slowly, then looked one hand shadowing her eyes. Twice she endeavored vainly to find voice; then, clear, yet with the glimmering of tears clinging to each word, she sang:

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea. I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me.

CHAPTER XXV—Continued.

When the dishes had finally been removed I gave the men a mission. I moved west back to the after state room, and brought forth the log-book, which we made an effort to decipher. It was roughly written and by a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands.

CHAPTER XXVI.

In which We Find Treasure. They were locked in beyond the cockpit as soon as the first winds ceased, and the waves fell. The lust for wealth, partially blunted by the requirements of hardship and the weary days of the instant nature granted a temporary respite. The memory of the child of Seneca, Alexander died; the next day the mother went quietly to sleep, never to wake again. They did not even know when her final breath came.

It ended in the blank page. "Doris, sweetheart," I whispered, my words low and hoarse, "this will drive us all mad unless we can do something to bring back faith and hope, and best of you to sing to us, as you do here."

PECULIAR IDEAS OF AUTHORS.

Illustrations by W. W. WOOD. LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

The story opens with the introduction of John Stephens, a Massachusetts man married by a woman named Valparaiso. Being interested in mining operations, Stephens was abandoned by Chile as an insurance broker and as a consequence of his being abandoned his attention was attracted by an Englishman.

"Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me, Over Life's Tempestuous Sea."

rather than walked forward. A long, breathless moment she stood, grasping the window-casing, staring blindly out into the dark, the snow-flecked glass, her shoulders bent and trem- bling. She turned slowly, then looked one hand shadowing her eyes. Twice she endeavored vainly to find voice; then, clear, yet with the glimmering of tears clinging to each word, she sang:

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over Life's tempestuous sea. I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me, I was a man before me.

CHAPTER XXV—Continued.

When the dishes had finally been removed I gave the men a mission. I moved west back to the after state room, and brought forth the log-book, which we made an effort to decipher. It was roughly written and by a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands, and between us our knowledge of early Spanish script was barely sufficient to decipher a number of different hands.

CHAPTER XXVI.

In which We Find Treasure. They were locked in beyond the cockpit as soon as the first winds ceased, and the waves fell. The lust for wealth, partially blunted by the requirements of hardship and the weary days of the instant nature granted a temporary respite. The memory of the child of Seneca, Alexander died; the next day the mother went quietly to sleep, never to wake again. They did not even know when her final breath came.

It ended in the blank page. "Doris, sweetheart," I whispered, my words low and hoarse, "this will drive us all mad unless we can do something to bring back faith and hope, and best of you to sing to us, as you do here."