WHEN TRADING WITH ONE OF OUR ADVERTISERS, SPEAK IN BIRMINGHAM. POINTING ON DETROIT, IT WILL BE A GREAT FAVOR TO YOU IF YOU WILL MENTION YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS IN YOUR ADVERTISING. IT WILL BE A WORD FROM YOU AT THE TIME OF TRADING THAT YOU BOTH AND WE BENEFIT BY GREATLY. WILL YOU BE GOOD AND DO SO?

THE PUBLISHERS.

Entered as second-class matter in the postoffice at Birmingham, Michigan.

Mrs. Mabel Roy and Miss Edith Kozts, of Bates street, entertained several of their friends Thursday afternoon and evening.

Wm. Ellwood and wife of Maple ave. last week visited friends at Waterford, and brought back with them a half bushel of the finest strawberries.

Now you can buy it! A good second hand grapevine heating stove in perfect order and worth the money. Call at Roy Blake's hardware store to see it.

Misses Jessie and Estella Reid, Rosetta Rogers, Florence Stanley, Ella Todd, Ella Schlaack and Katherine Berzarc camping at Cass Lake for two weeks.

The party who took a horse collar and bridle from Tom Cook's barn. If it is stolen Mr. Cook offers a reward of $100 for the return and location of the robber. If borrowed, return it.

Mr. W. H. Baxter, our village jeweler will soon occupy the rooms that will soon be vacated by Shattuck and Watkins. It is a good move for Mr. Baxter, who has a fine and increasing trade in his line.

Mrs. G. H. Mitchell is giving a little tea party in honor of Mr. Walter McBride of Portland, Mich., this Friday afternoon. About a dozen friends of the guest of honor are gathered, and all are enjoying themselves.

Mrs. Ellen F. Peabody, late of Detroit, moved into her Birmingham home on Maple avenue Tuesday of this week. All of her many friends are right glad to welcome her back home again. We are told that the good lady is just as glad to be back to old Birmingham, as her friends are to have her back.

Charles Parks, the painter, carries his left hand all bound round with a wipen string, and some bandages, the result of a severe dog bite he received while trying to separate two fighting dogs. After this, no more packmaking for me, says Charlie. His head was badly mangled, and the dog, strange as one might think, is still getting in his work on Charlie.

The new Hotel Peck is open and doing business not as though it will be later on. Mr. Peck has a big job drawing to a close, and one he will be glad when finished. The new hotel is a grand addition to the business districts and places of Birmingham. With the coming new D. U. R. waiting-room right opposite Birmingham's business interests are perking up considerably.

Mr. Will H. Stephens is a very busy man these days building a new house on Maple avenue east. This new home building is to be an eight room house, with all the modern conveniences. Now whether he will live in it or not when it is finished, or will sell, remains to be seen. No matter which it will be, the new dwelling is an ornament to the village and improved Maple ave. just five times its cost.

Mrs. L. Corey and son, Harris, of Toledo, O. are the guests of Mrs. N. M. Corey for four days. Harris Corey is in attendance at the tennis tournament now on in Detroit, and stands high among the winners of that fascinating sport. We hope he will win out. Mr. L. Corey and daughter, Miss Nellie, are trying the west, but are expected to arrive here soon on their way homeward.

Edwin Starr, Will Stephens and his family all saw a big balloon sailing majestically northward last Monday afternoon. It was about 1,000 feet up and presented a grand appearance and was in sight for about 20 minutes going towards Mt. Clemens. "Buck" saw three people in it, and a rope hanging down. Later, this was a Jackson balloon and one of many being made from the city.

One village has received a baptism of chloride calc., for more than 100 tons, at $4 per barrel, has been spread over our street for laying the dust. The residents along west Maple ave. are called upon to give their sincere and hearty thanks to Messrs. Peck and Heth, for the thorough and able manner in which they have laid out the dust nuisance on this handsome thoroughfare. They spread all this calcium for their neighbors, and without price. Both gentlemen are good workers along the lines of civic reform, so why not make them members of our village board. What say?

The family of Charles Haines, a G. T. Ry. employe, have the sympathy of this entire community in the death of their grandson, Leon Haines, age 10 years, who died at the home of his grandparents, of malignant diphtheria, a few days illness. The boy came here from his home in Michigan to visit his grandfather and was stricken with diphtheria. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery Monday morning, no funeral service being permitted by health officer. Rev. Salzer read a burial service at the grave. The lad's parents were summoned from Marquette when he was taken ill and were with him when he died.

A quiet marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Brown street, on Tuesday, the 2nd inst., at 2 p. m., it being that of their daughter Ethel, to Mr. Dudley, Principally of the high school, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Salzer. The bride is one of Birmingham's most accomplished young ladies, and was, until recently, the efficient organist of St. James church. Mr. Dudley is a graduate of our State University at Ann Arbor, and a man of recognized ability and scholarship. We are glad that the bride will not remove from the town, as is so often the case when a young lady marries, but that Mr. and Mrs. Dudley will still remain with us. We wish them a long and happy life.

The Baptist church will hold their annual picnic at Belle Isle Thursday, Aug. 11. Special car leaves promptly at 8:30.

Messrs. Charles Randall, Lloyd Clawson, Allan Starr and Armstrong Parr are enjoying their vacation camping on the east shore of Cass Lake.

Potatoes for sale. First class eating potatoes. Only a few bushels left. Call early. Only 30c per bushel. Thos. Cook, corner of Townsend and Bates street.

If an ice dealer in Detroit, sells and delivers with snow-ice and fifth on one side, he, the ice dealer, is very promptly fined. How many fines are levied in suburban villages?

Mrs. Arthur H. Carpenter has just returned from a delightful two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Perry Blue, and Clansdore, Ont., where she has had a cool and pleasant time during our heated term.

Mr. J. R. Logan has written from far away Shreveport, La. to know the Michigan town that has adopted the commission form of government. Harbor Beach is the town that has taken the lead in Michigan, closely following Galveston, Tex. and Des Moines, Ia. A copy of their charter is in our library.

A Business Proposition

Did you ever stop to think, Mr. Business Man, that the news of your business is as much a part of the local events as a wedding or a church fair? The ladies are just as much interested in a new fabric you have on the shelves as they are in any home happening. Your store windows and announcements in these columns will reach a large circle of eager buyers. This will enable you to sell your goods while they are new and fresh and you will not have to sacrifice later at remnant counter prices. Think it over.

The August Harper's contains a fine article on Mark Twain.

The west side of our village has been improved of late by the removal of dead trees and a general trimming up.

J. Harvey Carter is the proud and happy possessor of a peat tree shoot about one year old that bears 600 peats.

The Misses Walker, daughters of W. S. Walker, are enjoying a holiday with Uncle Watt, at Elk Rapids. No fish has nothing to do with the Elk's convention. Thanks.

Miss Blanche Heth will soon start for Memphis, Tenn., where she will keep a set of books for her brother who is owner and manager of a large auto garage in that lively southern city.

Some strikers or strike sympathizers creased the rails good and plenty on the G. T. Ry. in the deep cuts and high grades between us and Pontiac. It sure did make lots of trouble for the engineers.

The Misses Matilda Ellen Waker and Ensemble Matilda Mitchell are "out on the farm" of David Walker near Farmville, enjoying their annual summer's vacation. It will last two weeks and everybody 'appy.

Well now what do you think? While Editor Mitchell was away from home came D. E. Hubbs, wife and daughter all the way from Marlette to see him and miss the treat. Try again friends I'll stay home.

It is now that the festive house fly visits the stables, lights on the putrid dog-homes as well as numerous other filthy stunts, tricks and acts, and all that all this, then to the grocery. Yet you do not even ask your grocer to carry his fruits and vegetables. The house fly is known to carry disease germs as well as all kinds of filth.

Seven large envelopes each containing the name of one of the committees of the Woman's Literary Club have been placed in the library. Each one contains clippings, pamphlets etc. on the works of this committee. It is hoped that each club member will contribute to the collection, thus furnishing the committee with reports.

View of the Passing Show. If men are the salt of the earth, women are undoubtedly the sugar. Salt is necessary; sugar a luxury. Virtue is necessary; salt; stern men are rock salt. Nice men, table salt. Old maids are brown sugar; good natured matrons, are the loaf sugar; Pretty girls are pulverized sugar; Pass the pulverized sugar please.

In honor of the birthdays of Miss Sadie West and Mrs. J. E. Howard a pleasant surprise party was given for them at the home of Mrs. Fred C. White, 1922 South Fear street. The house was decorated with flowers and supper was served late in the evening. Mrs. West's nieces, Misses Mary and Anna Davidson, and Miss Clara White presented a cut glass water set to the guests. There were about 60 guests present, including friends from Detroit, Mich., and New Mexico.—Denver Post, Denver, Colo.

Our old friend and co-laborer, Edwin Miller, in the vineyard, is having troubles of his own with the builders of the new Detroit Michigan Central station, — his new tunnel terminal. Mr. Burr Lobdell and Ed tented out and with the stars and stripes waving from their tent top armed to the teeth, — and then a little bit more, kept the construction gangs from excavating on the site of the coming station. Last Sunday week they packed up and left the disputed premises and departed owing to a court injunction. The land involved is 10,300 square feet and the Michigan Canal has already excavated it. Lobdell says he purchased the property in March, 1900, for $11,250 and later sold to Mr. Miller for $25,000, including stock in an automobile firm contemplated by Lobdell. Of this $10,000 was paid and a mortgage issued for the remainder. The award of the jury in the circuit court after condemnation proceedings was appealed. The man says they will fight to the limit to get $25,000 for their property. The supreme court reversed the decision of the circuit court after condemnation proceedings was appealed. Sport.
A man out Rockport way has a little tame fox that is led about by a chain. He proposes in the near future to have a "hunt" in the "sportmen" from Cleveland to come out with their dogs, then he will turn loose the little tame fox and send the dogs after him. It is expected that the dogs will catch the little tame fox and tear him to pieces.

The hunt was scheduled to come off some time ago, but the invited guests with their trained hunting dogs failed to arrive, and the dogs of the neighborhood—just ordinary dogs—were pressed into service. For some reason—other these uneducated canines failed to enter into the spirit of the occasion and contented themselves with toke the trail. The little tame fox was accordingly again cuffed up in his cage to await a more propitious and sporty daylighting.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Stephenson Has No Enemies.
"Uncle Ike" Stephenson of Wisconsin, is a senator without enemies, and it is not likely that he will have any for he remains in congress all the rest of his life, for he is not a man to stir up trouble. He has a sharp political opponent in Senator La Follette, although they were close friends only a few years ago. "Uncle Ike" is in the senate quite frequently, and he goes from one senator to another and has a bit of conversation and then passes on.
