

R. D. NO. 1

Master Byron Sharp is attending Birmingham high school.

W. J. Park last Monday bought 25 lambs from Mr. Coleman.

The Miller boys will make a concrete bottom for their ice house.

Louis Granzaw will set out about 8 acres of strawberries this fall.

Mrs. Mary McCarroll will live in Beautiful Birmingham for the winter.

Miss Helen Gray of Detroit, is the guest of Mrs. V. B. Miller for a few days.

Carl Alurin is home from school for a few days drawing produce to the market.

Jessie Nichols spent last Saturday and Sunday at Plymouth visiting old friends there.

John Kreusch and wife spent last Sunday in Detroit with friends and had the time of their lives.

V. B. Miller bought W. J. Stickney's auto. He took it away last Monday and it was in fine shape.

Fred Barnes moved to Detroit last Friday and our old friend, Joseph Ely donated his team and self.

McGaw is putting a front porch on his house. He has an idea home, and everything is down to now.

The Miller Bros., Tom, Beddow and W. J. Stickney just fixed up the road east of their farms in good shape.

George Kusch has about finished his new house; it is a dandy. Uncle Bill Ellwood is the boss on the job.

Rowan F. Crawford who visited at J. M. Henning's started last Friday for Mercersburg, Pa. to attend college.

Dr. F. Young last Saturday took a few friends from Detroit to Flintville lake, and you talk of fish! They had them galore!

Our old friend Charles Todd made a flying visit last Saturday to his old home in Wayne and New Boston to visit old friends.

Viasgar Spicer has a brand new wire fence around his farm. He commenced cutting his field corn and this week everybody is corn cutting.

Law Fitchett on the James Miller 40 is just more than fixing things up fine. New hen house, new granary and new steps for the house proper.

Now Norman Bell will manage the John Snow farm. His mother will see that the house is cared for. Norman took the reins last Monday.

Joseph McClelland is just finishing his new barn and his father, William Bell, and Edward McKinney are the boys that are doing the work.

George Stoll, William Lowe and William Spicer all took a vacation last Saturday to the Lake. They all had a good time, but forgot to catch any fish.

Last week on the Fairview farm, the Miller boys lost their old stand-by grey noble horse, one, they raised from a colt. It was like losing their best old-time friend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Henning left last Monday for the North to visit friends for 4 or 5 days. While they are absent Master George will be chief of cook and bottle-washer. Everything goes.

R. D. No. 1, met with a hold up last Saturday about 11:40 a. m., at the Fairview farm. No damage done to his pocket book but a good big dinner in his "rummy." So let the good work go on.

Now the Jackson school-house is in fine shape; a new front vestibule, a fine bunch of pupils and a most excellent teacher. We don't see why everything won't be prosperous this year as it has been in the past.

The Brick and Tile yard of R. Whitehead & Co. are just more than rubbing the brick and tile manufacture this year. The grounds are a regular beehive. Everybody works there, and big results show from their labor.

One of the Grandest Weddings that ever took place, took place last week. The parties were Miss Jennie Milton, and Mr. Kirk Daniels at the home of the groom, and Kirk is just passing the cigars to the boys and the brides, the wedding cake. Well, we wish them all kinds of good luck and may they live a thousand years to come.

Mrs. Ed. Chatfield is still away visiting.

Miss Jay Chatfield has a dreadful cold.

Mabel Brisby, of Troy, is working in Detroit.

The Jackson school house has a new weather steeple.

Miss Edna Smith of Troy is troubled with her tonsils.

Miss Lethia Davenport, of Troy, is improved in health.

Sam Hawthorn is holding out about the same in health.

Charles Poole and Floyd Hunt, of Troy, spent last Saturday in Orion.

Des Davenport and Mel Maxwell were off last Saturday for Ishpeming.

Miss Jessie Gray, of Birmingham, was the guest of Miss Alta Reid, of Clawson.

Harry Dawson, of Troy, was sick last Saturday and Dr. Shaw was called to attend him.

W. H. C. sold Wm. Stickney $16.10 worth of goods last Thursday and they will be shipped to Clawson.

John McRoberts is now keeping bachelor's hall while his mother is with her daughter, Mrs. Gieffe.

The school at the Irish church began Monday with Miss Myrtle Phillips as teacher. May success go with her.

Reid Hartwig spent his summer vacation with relatives in Detroit and last week Monday and returned to Ann Arbor Monday.

Mrs. M. A. Hartwig left Monday for her home in Ann Arbor, after spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Liza Todd, of Troy.

Mrs. James McRide and twin daughters, of Southfield, attended the wedding of her niece at Wyandotte last Wednesday.

Miss Olie Hartwig, of Ann Arbor, has returned to her home after spending the summer with her cousin Miss Alta Reid, of Clawson.

The Auxiliary Cemetery association of Franklin held a social at the home of Edna Bristol Friday afternoon. They made $7.70 towards staging a well in the cemetery.

W. H. Codnor, last week Monday night fell off the high stoop of Behrend's striking mostly upon his right shoulder and wrenching him, and unmaning him for the week in his business. Last Sunday night he fell again in front of Behrend's over a rail laid across the path, striking mostly upon the same shoulder. Poor Cod.

Who is the oldest lunatic on record? Time out of mind.

How do the bees dispose of their honey? They sell it.

Mr. E. conference and the state fair in Detroit next week.

Ed. Jarvis, of Detroit, called at the home of Cy Jarvis Friday.

F. R. Cutting and wife have had a hard tussle with gripe-colds the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Robbins, of Royal Oak, were Sunday visitors at C. E. Haddell's.
