

GEO. F. BRONDIGE DONALD F. NOBLE PATRICK H. KELLY ANDREW L. MOORE

Candidate at the Primaries For the Office of Register of Deeds for Oakland Co.

George F. Brondige ASKS YOU to first read carefully the special letter sent you and now gives the last and final word before the primaries to the readers of the ECCEBTRIC, on Register of Deeds.

He comes to you now with the legal, mental and moral qualifications together with thirteen years experience on abstracts, titles and the practical knowledge necessary for this work.

He forced the payment of $4000.00 delinquent taxes, when the Detroit Sugar Co. sold out their plant at Rochester, that never would have been.

He made over 300 special written reports on title, over his signature for loans (not ordinary searches) at a cost not to exceed $1.00 each, thereby saving to the borrowers at least a total of $4,000.00 over the cost of unnecessary abstracts.

These two items alone show a saving to the tax-payers of more than the office was worth to him net, in the four years he was Register, and he now has an order placed with him from one bank to be filled if he is returned to this office, of 200 descriptions of farm and village property and if made will save at least $2,000.00 for its customer, and only when made by an experienced man can this work be of any value. The results of incompetence and inexperience in public office are found in increased taxes, and should you by your vote, force on the county these things you would refuse to do in your own business affairs? Has he not earned a return to the office which he seeks and turned over to his successor just as he had completed it? He can give you the service you demand and one that only experience can give.

He is now and always has been a republican, advocating the policies of his party, which means decent wages, and opposed to questionable methods that have justly criticised in securing nominations through "Judicious Combinations."

Were the actual conditions fully understood, in reference to this office and his personal work therein, he would receive the almost solid vote of the enrolled Republican voters of the entire county.

Go to the Primaries September 6th, and vote for Geo. F. Brondige, if you be for your personal interests, your party's advancement and the welfare of the County. GEO. F. BRONDIGE.

PURDY--JENNELL

Were Quietly Married at the United Presbyterian Parsonage on Thursday, Aug. 25, 1910

On Aug. 25, at 8 p. m. at the United Presbyterian parsonage by Rev. Pinkerton, Mr. George Jennell, of Detroit and Miss Jean Purdy, of Birmingham, were wedded and two happy hearts were made one.

The ring was used in the ceremony which was witnessed by Miss Aggie Heribson and Mr. Melvin Deer, Miss Irene McHugh and Mr. Robert Purdy attending the bride and groom.

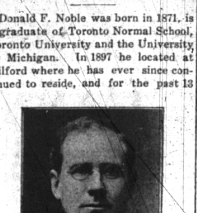

A large and happy, jolly laughing, teasing crowd of friends and young people accompanied them as far as Royal Oak showing them with rice and good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennell expect to live in Detroit.

ORA C. FARMER

Republicans! When you cast your Primary vote, next Tuesday, be sure and see that the name of Ora C. Farmer, of Pontiac, for County Coroner, is there and there all right.

Of Milford, Republican Candidate For Prosecuting Attorney in Oakland County

Donald F. Noble was born in 1871, is a graduate of Toronto Normal School, Toronto University and the University of Michigan. In 1897 he located at Milford where he has ever since continued to reside, and for the past 13 years has been actively and successfully engaged in the practice of law in Oakland county. Mr. Noble has always been a staunch republican in politics, and ever since locating in Milford has been a vigorous worker and an active factor in the Republican party in Oakland county. He is a gentleman of good habits, strong personality and determination, and eminently qualified in integrity, education, legal experience and natural ability to fill the office of Prosecuting Attorney, and pledges himself that if nominated and elected to the office he will be governed by the oath of office in the discharge of his official duties. —Pontiac Press-Gazette.

Mr. Noble's splendid run at the primaries two years ago gave him an acquaintance and strength throughout the county that stands him well during this campaign.

He is a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet, a lawyer of tact and judgment, and will make a good prosecuting attorney.

MCBRIDE--JENKS

A Very Pretty Wedding at the Episcopal Church Followed By a Reception in Detroit

Miss Anna Grace McBride, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. R. Perry, of Detroit, and Mr. Earle R. Jenks, of Birmingham, were married at the St. James' church Wednesday of last week.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. F. Kraft, rector of St. James and Rev. MacKaleen, of St. Thomas church, Detroit, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride's party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march and the bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Miss Floy Cortright and Mr. Don Jenks acted as best man, and Mr. Mitchell, of Detroit, and Mr. Charles Shain served as ushers. During the ceremony Miss Montana sang "O Perfect Love." The bride was groomed in white silk, crepe de chene with a court train and wore a long tulle-veil and carried cream roses.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, 46 Palmer avenue, east, Detroit, at 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Perry and the bride and groom were in the receiving line. The music for the reception were selections given by a harpist.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenks left that evening for a trip to the Muskoka Lakes.

CHAUNCEY A. HARRIS,

Republican candidate for re-nomination for Sheriff—SECOND TERM—respectfully asks your assistance at the primaries, Tuesday, September 6.

"I Can See No Difference Between the Mine and Little Home on the Hillside When It Comes to Taxation."

For the past two months Lieutenant-Governor Patrick H. Kelly, candidate at the primaries, September 6, for the Republican nomination for Governor, has been made the subject of a series of attacks at the hands of Chase S. Osborn, who appears in this campaign as the candidate of the mining interests. The Northern Peninsula man has attempted to cloud the issues of the campaign—which is equitable taxation for mines—by shooting "Warriorism" at Lieutenant-Governor Kelly. Just how sincere he is and how truthful his statement that he has always been against Governor Warner is the following extract from a speech which he delivered at Sault Ste. Marie during the primaries two years ago will show Mr. Osborn said at that time:

"I want to say for Governor Warner that Michigan has never had a better Governor. They have never had a Governor who has striven harder to meet the demands of the people. The only thing they can say against him is their argument for a third term. Other States, when they have had good Governors, have re-elected for third terms. They did not swap horses in the middle of a stream."

Compare Mr. Kelly's campaign arguments with those of Mr. Osborn. The former talks State issues and dares to tell the man with the pick on his shoulder in the Northern Peninsula the same thing that he tells the man behind the plow in Lower Michigan. The latter about "Warriorism" and, as the Mt. Pleasant Courier says, confines his arguments to "Love your God, love your country and vote for me."

Mr. Kelly says in part: "I favor an investigation into the method of assessing the mines of the Northern Peninsula. I believe that the mining corporations should be placed upon the same level with the farms and the homes. I can see no difference between the way the mine owners and the proprietor of a smaller business or a little home on the hillside."

"We have great business interests in this State. We have 32,000 factories, giving employment to 307,000 men and their daily wage amounts to $500,000, and we are glad of that. We have not as yet let the power get into the hands of any particular interest of the State, or any particular section, and it is essential that we do not."

"We have always given the Upper Peninsula, dominated by the mines, a full share of the State government, and the present time is no exception to the rule. They have Justice of the Supreme Court—they have the Auditor General of the State and he has in his office one-third of all the patronage of the State government at his disposal. They have the Superintendent of Public Instruction, receiving salary of $4,000 per year, one of the highest salaries in the State. They have a Regent of the University, a Member of the State Board of Education, and a Member of the State Board of Agriculture—six elective officers in one Congressional District, with only about one-half the population of Wayne county. Now in addition to these they ask to give them also the Governor of the State! This involves the power of directing legislation, of appointing a Railroad Commissioner, with supervision over $215,000.00 worth of railroad property, and the power of appointing the Tax Commissioner, with general supervision over each and every parcel of land in the State, which gives it power to assess farms as well as mines; the power of appointing a Banking Commissioner with general supervision over the banks of the State; with the power of appointing an Insurance Commissioner with general supervision over the insurance in the State, thus putting into hands of a single Congressional District in the State dominated by a single interest—namely, mining—practically all the vital executive powers of the State government. I leave it to you to say whether, in your judgment, such a course would be wise or prudent."

With four Candidates asking for the nomination for Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries on Sept. 6th, it is a question with many conscientious voters as to which one would best serve the County in that capacity. Not being able to see personally every election in the County I take this means of stating the reasons why I ask for support.

The Prosecuting Attorney attends to the criminal business of the County and his selection is therefore largely a business matter. Without claiming to be the best criminal lawyer in the State of Michigan, I do feel warranted in saying that an experience of nearly six years in the Prosecutor's office of this county as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney has given me a thorough knowledge of the workings of the office and an acquaintance with the needs of the people of this court which could have been acquired in no other way. In asking for the support of the Republican electors of Oakland County I am asking them to exercise the same principle in choosing a public servant as they would exercise in hiring a man to carry on their own private business.

I was born in this county and have always lived here, and have always been a Republican. If nominated and elected I promise a square and impartial enforcement of the law and that I will do my best to give an administration of the Prosecutor's office which will be satisfactory to the people of Oakland County.

CHARLES S. MATTHEWS.

THE LASH OF A FLEND

Would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, New York, as a merciless lank-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome and tickling," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore throats, hoarse voices, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. It is sold everywhere. $1. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by C. J. Shain and Gold-Stanley-Harris Company.

PRIMARYS SEPTEMBER 6, 1910

I am a candidate for Register of Deeds on the Republican ticket for Oakland county in the September Primaries. I will greatly appreciate your assistance and support.

HARRY S. GARDNER.

Republican Candidate For the Nomination for Prosecuting Attorney for Oakland County.

TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF OAKLAND COUNTY:

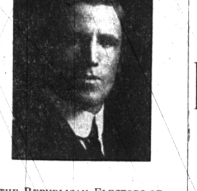

You will no doubt recall that I was a candidate for the nomination of Prosecuting Attorney six years ago before the Republican County Convention, but withdrew my name before the ballot was taken, in the interests of party harmony. I now ask consideration at the hands of the party for the nomination.

I have made my campaign, however, largely on the grounds that a Prosecuting Attorney should be a lawyer of wide experience. I call your attention to my record in the Probate, Circuit, Supreme and Federal courts of this state, and if nominated and elected I will give the duties of the office the same careful attention I have always given my private practice.

A. L. MOORE.
