THIRTY-THIRD YEAR. NO. 21.

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1910.

WHOLE NUMBER, 1693,

CAPT. M. BIGELO

Writes to His Father, Capt. A. Allan Bigelow, From Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Sept. 18, 1910.

Wrote to Mamma and Bat yesterday and today, and I have to fight to find time to write at all. I was at it till late last night and up early this
a. m. again, and then I went to church and then to a lecture on Outpost Duty

An magain, and then I went to entarge and then to a lecture on Outport Duty that lasted for two hours and a half I wish that I had you here to help me. That may seen like a joke, but it is dead oblive aremest. I would like to have you here to study the problems with me; and tell me what you would do. As it is I have to air mapin no time and then you could tell me what you have I will go to make the plant. It is no longer the country down to read a finding remains the plant. It is no longer the country about the progressive cemeteris under the mapin no time and then you could tell me what to do. As it is I have to air the price, $10, includes the rost of where the reserves, and where I will put my supports and then rout out the support need, lessly, and maybe get the whole outfut in a useless scrape, whether from cert tain information that I have that it is of the most power with it is just the cinest sightened, and where I will put my export need lessly, and maybe get the whole outfut on the support had the converty in this past of the country and now here I will put my export need lessly, and maybe get the whole outfut in success scrape, whether from cert tain information that I have that it is a determined hance or whether it is a determined and conke a little coffee and get a little rest or whether I must keep them all rest or whether I must keep the most of the neething has goted to a make a can be an all respects.
