STANDS STRONGLY FOR CONSERVATION

Congress at St. Paul.

DANGER IN CONTINUED WASTE

Paul, Minn., Sept. 5.—President delivered his long-expected ch before the National Con-ation congress here today. Sub-tially it was as follows: leinen of the National Conservation gress:

stated, it was as longers.

A state of the conservation segments and a committed and possible of the conservation of the country the sympathy with quickly impress itself on the country of the country the sympathy with the danger is accorded at or ignored, one conservation of the country the sympathy with the danger is accorded at or ignored, one present the country the sympathy with the danger is accorded at or ignored one present that the readed some carried or by home the crying meed for a rememby personal to the represent that the readed some carried or the control of the control of the conservation and action by the representation of the control of the contro loads. On other lands, but the lands of the

Alaska Coal Lands

INDEPENDENCE ON THE FARM

RANG THE BELL, ALL RIGHT

