

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1917
NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEK
COUNTESS FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Headlines That Are Making History
Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and—
Given in a Few Lines.

PERSONAL.

That Capt. Robert E. Peary came within 16 miles of the north pole—enough to establish a claim of having been at the exact spot—is the decision of the National house committee on naval affairs, which committee that Capt. Peary was fired with the rank of rear admiral.

A crowd of 25,000 cheering spectators saw a new American airplane descend in a flight set in San Francisco when Philip S. Parmelee remained aloft in a Wright biplane for 3 hours 39 minutes and 49 1/2 seconds.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and secretary of the navy, died suddenly at the Hotel Seymour, in San Francisco, where he had gone presumably to keep a business engagement.
Apoplexy caused death.

Eugene Ely, the aviator, accompanied a new feat in aerial navigation at San Francisco by flying from land to a Curtiss biplane and alighting on the deck of a warship anchored in San Francisco bay. He started at once on the return flight and finished it successfully.

Henry Cabot Lodge was re-elected by the Massachusetts legislature to the seat in the United States senate for the fourth time by the margin of six votes, two of which came from Democrats.

Champ Clark of Missouri was unanimously selected by the caucus of the Democratic members-elect as his party's candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the Sixty-second congress. The caucus decided to take from the speaker all power to appoint committees, entrusting that duty to the house and senate committees.

GENERAL NEWS.

David Graham Phillips, author and writer upon sociological problems, was shot down as he was on his way to the Princeton club, New York city, by Fitz-Gerald C. Goldborough, a professor of English at Princeton, who had been School of Social Science. After firing six bullets into the helpless author, Goldborough turned his Colt magazine revolver upon himself and sent a bullet into his brain. The cause for the shooting is not known.

Organization of the Republican Progressive league by progressive Republican senators, representatives, governors and others—an organization which will seek to "fight for the establishment of popular government," was announced at Washington. A declaration of principles was signed, a constitution adopted and the league was headed by Senator Jonathan Bourke, of Oregon, was made president.

Mexican soldiers numbering 100,000 men ambushed by rebels in the mountains between Ojinaga and Cuernavaca, Mexico, and more than 100 of them were killed. Only a few rebels escaped, so far as is known.

Senator Gamble of South Dakota declined a long speech in defense of the editors of the investigating committee in the Lorimer case. He declared that the evidence did not show that Lorimer had any personal knowledge of bribery having been in the case behalf. Therefore Mr. Lorimer's right to his seat could not be questioned.

Another American aviator broke an American record by flying a Wright biplane, in a Wright biplane, remained in the air nearly four hours and 39 minutes. Parmelee was up 3:39:49 1/2.

The division headquarters, freight house and passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road at Aberdeen, S. D., were burned.
The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Previous firebrands have occupied the heights of Tayabamba, in the north of the capital, and are waiting an attack by the government troops to dislodge them.

Almost complete returns show the ratification of the constitution of New Mexico as framed by the constitutional convention. A majority of approximately 18,000.

In response to the request of Haiti,
the American government has provided its good offices for the Haitian and Santo Domingo in a friendly effort to bring about a settlement of the territorial dispute which is seriously threatening the peace of the two countries.

Attorney Charles E. Eberlein was acquitted of the charge of having bribed a juror in the case of the late Senator John D. Edwards.
Judge Leavelle Brown, former interior secretary of the legislature, not guilty of bribing a juror in the case of William Lorimer to the United States senate.

New Orleans was the first round of the war the location of the expedition, when the expedition committee of the house at Washington by a vote of 9 to 8, decided in favor of it as the site for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

Professors against certain decorations on the battlement Utah, Mr.
O. Green in Washington spoke of William Young as a "treacherous rebel."
The Canadian Pacific railway had died there of pneumonia.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1917
NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEK
COUNTESS FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Headlines That Are Making History
Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and—
Given in a Few Lines.

PERSONAL.

That Capt. Robert E. Peary came within 16 miles of the north pole—enough to establish a claim of having been at the exact spot—
is the decision of the National house
committee on naval affairs, which
committee that Capt. Peary was
fired with the rank of rear admiral.

A crowd of 25,000 cheering spectators
saw a new American airplane
descend in a flight set in San Francisco
when Philip S. Parmelee
remained aloft in a Wright biplane for 3 hours 39 minutes and 49 1/2 seconds.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and
secretary of the navy, died suddenly at the Hotel Seymour, in San Francisco, where he had gone presumably to keep a business engagement.
Apoplexy caused death.

Eugene Ely, the aviator, accompanied a new feat in aerial navigation
at San Francisco by flying from land
to a Curtiss biplane and alighting on
the deck of a warship anchored in San Francisco bay. He started at once on the return flight and finished
it successfully.

Henry Cabot Lodge was re-elected
by the Massachusetts legislature to
the seat in the United States senate
for the fourth time by the margin of six votes, two of which came from Democrats.

Champ Clark of Missouri was unanimously selected by the caucus of the Democratic members-elect as his party's
candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the Sixty-
second congress. The caucus decided
to take from the speaker all power to
appoint committees, entrusting
that duty to the house and senate committees.

GENERAL NEWS.

David Graham Phillips, author and
writer upon sociological problems, was
shot down as he was on his way to the Princeton club, New York city, by Fitz-Gerald C. Goldborough, a professor of English at Princeton, who had been
School of Social Science. After firing
six bullets into the helpless author, Goldborough turned his Colt magazine
revolver upon himself and sent a bullet
into his brain. The cause for the shooting
is not known.

Organization of the Republican Progressive league by progressive Republican senators, representatives, governors and others—an organization which
will seek to "fight for the establishment of popular government," was announced at Washington. A declaration of principles was signed, a constitution adopted and the league was
headed by Senator Jonathan Bourke, of Oregon, was made president.

Mexican soldiers numbering 100,000
men ambushed by rebels in the mountains between Ojinaga and Cuernavaca, Mexico, and more than 100 of them were killed. Only a few rebels escaped, so far as is known.

Senator Gamble of South Dakota declined a long speech in defense of the editors of the investigating committee
in the Lorimer case. He declared that the evidence did not show that Lorimer had any personal knowledge
of bribery having been in the case
behalf. Therefore Mr. Lorimer's right
to his seat could not be questioned.

Another American aviator broke an American record by flying a Wright
biplane, in a Wright biplane, remained in the air nearly four hours
and 39 minutes. Parmelee was up 3:39:49 1/2.

The division headquarters, freight
house and passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul
road at Aberdeen, S. D., were burned.
The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Previous firebrands have occupied
the heights of Tayabamba, in the north of the capital, and are waiting
an attack by the government troops
to dislodge them.

Almost complete returns show the
ratification of the constitution of New Mexico as framed by the constitutional convention. A majority of approximately 18,000.

In response to the request of Haiti,
the American government has provided its good offices for the Haitian
and Santo Domingo in a friendly effort to bring about a settlement of
the territorial dispute which is seriously threatening the peace of the two countries.

Attorney Charles E. Eberlein was
acquitted of the charge of having bribed a juror in the case of the late Senator John D. Edwards.
Judge Leavelle Brown, former interior secretary of the legislature, not
guilty of bribing a juror in the case
of William Lorimer to the United States senate.

New Orleans was the first round of the war the location of the
expedition, when the expedition
committee of the house at Washington by a vote of 9 to 8, decided in favor of it as the site for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

Professors against certain decorations on the battlement Utah, Mr.
O. Green in Washington spoke of William Young as a "treacherous rebel."
The Canadian Pacific railway
had died there of pneumonia.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1917
NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEK
COUNTESS FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Headlines That Are Making History
Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and—
Given in a Few Lines.

PERSONAL.

That Capt. Robert E. Peary came within 16 miles of the north pole—enough to establish a claim of having been at the exact spot—
is the decision of the National house
committee on naval affairs, which
committee that Capt. Peary was
fired with the rank of rear admiral.

A crowd of 25,000 cheering spectators
saw a new American airplane
descend in a flight set in San Francisco
when Philip S. Parmelee
remained aloft in a Wright biplane for 3 hours 39 minutes and 49 1/2 seconds.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and
secretary of the navy, died suddenly at the Hotel Seymour, in San Francisco, where he had gone presumably to keep a business engagement.
Apoplexy caused death.

Eugene Ely, the aviator, accompanied a new feat in aerial navigation
at San Francisco by flying from land
to a Curtiss biplane and alighting on
the deck of a warship anchored in San Francisco bay. He started at once on the return flight and finished
it successfully.

Henry Cabot Lodge was re-elected
by the Massachusetts legislature to
the seat in the United States senate
for the fourth time by the margin of six votes, two of which came from Democrats.

Champ Clark of Missouri was unanimously selected by the caucus of the Democratic members-elect as his party's
candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the Sixty-
second congress. The caucus decided
to take from the speaker all power to
appoint committees, entrusting
that duty to the house and senate committees.

GENERAL NEWS.

David Graham Phillips, author and
writer upon sociological problems, was
shot down as he was on his way to the Princeton club, New York city, by Fitz-Gerald C. Goldborough, a professor of English at Princeton, who had been
School of Social Science. After firing
six bullets into the helpless author, Goldborough turned his Colt magazine
revolver upon himself and sent a bullet
into his brain. The cause for the shooting
is not known.

Organization of the Republican Progressive league by progressive Republican senators, representatives, governors and others—an organization which
will seek to "fight for the establishment of popular government," was announced at Washington. A declaration of principles was signed, a constitution adopted and the league was headed by Senator Jonathan Bourke, of Oregon, was made president.

Mexican soldiers numbering 100,000
men ambushed by rebels in the mountains between Ojinaga and Cuernavaca, Mexico, and more than 100 of them were killed. Only a few rebels escaped, so far as is known.

Senator Gamble of South Dakota declined a long speech in defense of the editors of the investigating committee
in the Lorimer case. He declared that the evidence did not show that Lorimer had any personal knowledge
of bribery having been in the case
behalf. Therefore Mr. Lorimer's right
to his seat could not be questioned.

Another American aviator broke an American record by flying a Wright
biplane, in a Wright biplane, remained in the air nearly four hours
and 39 minutes. Parmelee was up 3:39:49 1/2.

The division headquarters, freight
house and passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul
road at Aberdeen, S. D., were burned.
The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Previous firebrands have occupied
the heights of Tayabamba, in the north of the capital, and are waiting
an attack by the government troops
to dislodge them.

Almost complete returns show the
ratification of the constitution of New Mexico as framed by the constitutional convention. A majority of approximately 18,000.

In response to the request of Haiti,
the American government has provided its good offices for the Haitian
and Santo Domingo in a friendly effort to bring about a settlement of
the territorial dispute which is seriously threatening the peace of the two countries.

Attorney Charles E. Eberlein was
acquitted of the charge of having bribed a juror in the case of the late Senator John D. Edwards.
Judge Leavelle Brown, former interior secretary of the legislature, not
guilty of bribing a juror in the case
of William Lorimer to the United States senate.

New Orleans was the first round of the war the location of the
expedition, when the expedition
committee of the house at Washington by a vote of 9 to 8, decided in favor of it as the site for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

Professors against certain decorations on the battlement Utah, Mr.
O. Green in Washington spoke of William Young as a "treacherous rebel."
The Canadian Pacific railway
had died there of pneumonia.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1917
NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEK
COUNTESS FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Headlines That Are Making History
Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and—
Given in a Few Lines.

PERSONAL.

That Capt. Robert E. Peary came within 16 miles of the north pole—enough to establish a claim of having been at the exact spot—
is the decision of the National house
committee on naval affairs, which
committee that Capt. Peary was
fired with the rank of rear admiral.

A crowd of 25,000 cheering spectators
saw a new American airplane
descend in a flight set in San Francisco
when Philip S. Parmelee
remained aloft in a Wright biplane for 3 hours 39 minutes and 49 1/2 seconds.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and
secretary of the navy, died suddenly at the Hotel Seymour, in San Francisco, where he had gone presumably to keep a business engagement.
Apoplexy caused death.

Eugene Ely, the aviator, accompanied a new feat in aerial navigation
at San Francisco by flying from land
to a Curtiss biplane and alighting on
the deck of a warship anchored in San Francisco bay. He started at once on the return flight and finished
it successfully.

Henry Cabot Lodge was re-elected
by the Massachusetts legislature to
the seat in the United States senate
for the fourth time by the margin of six votes, two of which came from Democrats.

Champ Clark of Missouri was unanimously selected by the caucus of the Democratic members-elect as his party's
candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the Sixty-
second congress. The caucus decided
to take from the speaker all power to
appoint committees, entrusting
that duty to the house and senate committees.

GENERAL NEWS.

David Graham Phillips, author and
writer upon sociological problems, was
shot down as he was on his way to the Princeton club, New York city, by Fitz-Gerald C. Goldborough, a professor of English at Princeton, who had been
School of Social Science. After firing
six bullets into the helpless author, Goldborough turned his Colt magazine
revolver upon himself and sent a bullet
into his brain. The cause for the shooting
is not known.

Organization of the Republican Progressive league by progressive Republican senators, representatives, governors and others—an organization which
will seek to "fight for the establishment of popular government," was announced at Washington. A declaration of principles was signed, a constitution adopted and the league was headed by Senator Jonathan Bourke, of Oregon, was made president.

Mexican soldiers numbering 100,000
men ambushed by rebels in the mountains between Ojinaga and Cuernavaca, Mexico, and more than 100 of them were killed. Only a few rebels escaped, so far as is known.

Senator Gamble of South Dakota declined a long speech in defense of the editors of the investigating committee
in the Lorimer case. He declared that the evidence did not show that Lorimer had any personal knowledge
of bribery having been in the case
behalf. Therefore Mr. Lorimer's right
to his seat could not be questioned.

Another American aviator broke an American record by flying a Wright
biplane, in a Wright biplane, remained in the air nearly four hours
and 39 minutes. Parmelee was up 3:39:49 1/2.

The division headquarters, freight
house and passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul
road at Aberdeen, S. D., were burned.
The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Previous firebrands have occupied
the heights of Tayabamba, in the north of the capital, and are waiting
an attack by the government troops
to dislodge them.

Almost complete returns show the
ratification of the constitution of New Mexico as framed by the constitutional convention. A majority of approximately 18,000.

In response to the request of Haiti,
the American government has provided its good offices for the Haitian
and Santo Domingo in a friendly effort to bring about a settlement of
the territorial dispute which is seriously threatening the peace of the two countries.

Attorney Charles E. Eberlein was
acquitted of the charge of having bribed a juror in the case of the late Senator John D. Edwards.
Judge Leavelle Brown, former interior secretary of the legislature, not
guilty of bribing a juror in the case
of William Lorimer to the United States senate.

New Orleans was the first round of the war the location of the
expedition, when the expedition
committee of the house at Washington by a vote of 9 to 8, decided in favor of it as the site for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

Professors against certain decorations on the battlement Utah, Mr.
O. Green in Washington spoke of William Young as a "treacherous rebel."
The Canadian Pacific railway
had died there of pneumonia.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JAN. 27, 1917
NEWSPAPER OF THE WEEK
COUNTESS FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Headlines That Are Making History
Information Gathered From All Quarters of the Globe and—
Given in a Few Lines.

PERSONAL.

That Capt. Robert E. Peary came within 16 miles of the north pole—enough to establish a claim of having been at the exact spot—
is the decision of the National house
committee on naval affairs, which
committee that Capt. Peary was
fired with the rank of rear admiral.

A crowd of 25,000 cheering spectators
saw a new American airplane
descend in a flight set in San Francisco
when Philip S. Parmelee
remained aloft in a Wright biplane for 3 hours 39 minutes and 49 1/2 seconds.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society and
secretary of the navy, died suddenly at the Hotel Seymour, in San Francisco, where he had gone presumably to keep a business engagement.
Apoplexy caused death.

Eugene Ely, the aviator, accompanied a new feat in aerial navigation
at San Francisco by flying from land
to a Curtiss biplane and alighting on
the deck of a warship anchored in San Francisco bay. He started at once on the return flight and finished
it successfully.

Henry Cabot Lodge was re-elected
by the Massachusetts legislature to
the seat in the United States senate
for the fourth time by the margin of six votes, two of which came from Democrats.

Champ Clark of Missouri was unanimously selected by the caucus of the Democratic members-elect as his party's
candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the Sixty-
second congress. The caucus decided
to take from the speaker all power to
appoint committees, entrusting
that duty to the house and senate committees.

GENERAL NEWS.

David Graham Phillips, author and
writer upon sociological problems, was
shot down as he was on his way to the Princeton club, New York city, by Fitz-Gerald C. Goldborough, a professor of English at Princeton, who had been
School of Social Science. After firing
six bullets into the helpless author, Goldborough turned his Colt magazine
revolver upon himself and sent a bullet
into his brain. The cause for the shooting
is not known.

Organization of the Republican Progressive league by progressive Republican senators, representatives, governors and others—an organization which
will seek to "fight for the establishment of popular government," was announced at Washington. A declaration of principles was signed, a constitution adopted and the league was headed by Senator Jonathan Bourke, of Oregon, was made president.

Mexican soldiers numbering 100,000
men ambushed by rebels in the mountains between Ojinaga and Cuernavaca, Mexico, and more than 100 of them were killed. Only a few rebels escaped, so far as is known.

Senator Gamble of South Dakota declined a long speech in defense of the editors of the investigating committee
in the Lorimer case. He declared that the evidence did not show that Lorimer had any personal knowledge
of bribery having been in the case
behalf. Therefore Mr. Lorimer's right
to his seat could not be questioned.

Another American aviator broke an American record by flying a Wright
biplane, in a Wright biplane, remained in the air nearly four hours
and 39 minutes. Parmelee was up 3:39:49 1/2.

The division headquarters, freight
house and passenger station of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul
road at Aberdeen, S. D., were burned.
The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Previous firebrands have occupied
the heights of Tayabamba, in the north of the capital, and are waiting
an attack by the government troops
to dislodge them.

Almost complete returns show the
ratification of the constitution of New Mexico as framed by the constitutional convention. A majority of approximately 18,000.

In response to the request of Haiti,
the American government has provided its good offices for the Haitian
and Santo Domingo in a friendly effort to bring about a settlement of
the territorial dispute which is seriously threatening the peace of the two countries.

Attorney Charles E. Eberlein was
acquitted of the charge of having bribed a juror in the case of the late Senator John D. Edwards.
Judge Leavelle Brown, former interior secretary of the legislature, not
guilty of bribing a juror in the case
of William Lorimer to the United States senate.

New Orleans was the first round of the war the location of the
expedition, when the expedition
committee of the house at Washington by a vote of 9 to 8, decided in favor of it as the site for the celebration of the opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

Professors against certain decorations on the battlement Utah, Mr.
O. Green in Washington spoke of William Young as a "treacherous rebel."
The Canadian Pacific railway
had died there of pneumonia.