

PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Eleanor Adams of Birmingham and Mr. Alphonso Toothaker of Chicago were married Oct. 7.

The wedding of Miss Eleanor Adams and Mr. Alphonso Toothaker was solemnized at the residence of her parents...

The groom is a graduate of a Boston technical institute and has a fine position with the American Tag Co. of Chicago, Ill., as a designer and draftsman.

The bride was tastefully gowned in white with real lace, wearing a handsome pearl necklace, the gift of the groom and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of pink Karoly roses.

Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. E. C. Crochen and son of Salt Lake City, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams of Toledo, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Adams, and other friends from Detroit.

A pleasing feature of the evening was the christening of baby Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Adams, after which a sumptuous supper was served.

The bridal couple left at an early hour for their future home in Chicago, Ill.

Gives Aid to Strikers. Sometimes liver kidneys and bowels seem to go on strike and refuse to work right.

Quite Different. Constance—Did he tell you that? Why, Clara, I don't see how you could have listened to him.

Constance—Oh, that's different. Birmingham Baptist Church Notes. Sermon themes, Sunday morning.

Attendance at the Sunday school and the preaching services is steadily increasing. The 75th annual Baptist state convention will be held at Adrian Oct. 17-19.

Its Equal Don't Exist. No one has ever made a valve,oint or ball to compare with Buckler's Arnica Salve. It's the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, eczema, salt rheum.

Fair Warning. All persons are strictly forbidden to play football, baseball, or any other game without permission on the premises known as the J. B. and A. S. Adams farm.

National Sinners. There may be some disagreements as to what constitutes our national sin, but there will be substantial accord as to who are our national sinners—Charleston News and Courier.

33 YEARS AGO

The following items were published in this paper by its present owners.

Mr. Johnson, the watch tinker, will be in town next week. J. P. Cranch and wife left for Niagara Falls. Mr. Cranch is ticket agent for the Grand Trunk R. R.

Bids are asked for labor on Library Hall: turning the building half around to face the south and putting on new roof with "A" on east.

Martin M. Tombs bought a half barrel of soap. In loading into his wagon the bottom dropped out of the barrel. He didn't say a swear word.

O. A. Smith will build a brick house on his lot near P. H. Sherman's on Saginaw street. Miss Mamie Utter is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever, and we are glad of it.

A new floor of ash and cherry strips has been laid in the bar-room of the National Hotel. A family cat died in Southfield: Let R. I. P.

Mort. Smith left for Green Bay, Wis., with a car load of apples. Wanted.—40 bushels of potatoes, by G. H. Mitchell.

Is the World Growing Better? Many things go to prove that it is. The way the nations are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, New Hampshire.

In Memoriam. Howick.—In loving memory of Mrs. James Howick. She dwells forever in a region bright. Her memory is a joy to all who delight.

James C. Dahlman, "Cowboy" Mayor of Omaha, "Throws the Lid." Mayor James C. Dahlman started his career as a cowboy, and is at present Sheriff of Dawes county, Nebraska.

LOCK 'EM OUT. Hiram Harrick (at the country store)—I see that this here Panama canal is going to be a Jordan.

Take Your Common Colds Seriously. Common colds, sorely and frequent, lay the foundation of chronic diseases. Conditions of the nose and throat, may develop into bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption.

PROOF POSITIVE. Boy—This is a good place for fish! Angler—What can you catch here? Boy—don't know, but it must be great place for fish, because I can't see any of them leave it.
