OF THE ECCENTRIC ARE PLEASED TO HAVE PROBABLY THE MOST COMPLETE AND UP-TO-DATE LIST OF THE LEGAL NOTICES IN THIS PAPER. BY SO DOING THEY WILL BE AT NO MORE TRAVEL THAN WHERE, AND WILL DO US A GREAT FAVOR.

Forty different varieties of cookies, always fresh at Miner & Ferguson's.

WANTED—A good, bright, smart, young lady, not afraid, honest, and a dry goods store. Send name and address to this office.

Some excellent specimens of Baidwin apples, large potatoes and splendid corn are on exhibition in C. J. Shaw's window. They are the products of the Lose Oak farm of which Harry Russell is proprietor.

Our idea of the height of affluence—to be able to use your summer nightingale to protect your plan is from the frost. The very limit of foolishness—to use the Birmingham Eccentric for the same purpose.

Help! Help! Help!!! Say you didn't buy our new Webster's International Unabridged dictionary at $9.00, now offer it for $4.85, less the regular price. Call and see it. Don't get anything to look at it. Ask Mitchell, 2.

Rosenberg's auction was a success as sold by John Heth. Everything was cleared out and just to see if he could do it, this wily old auctioneer had a party raise their own bid twice. Say it takes tongue, gab and nerve to do this trick.

True merit wins. Ernest Morrow, one of the most popular conductors of the D. U. R. has been taken from his car and placed in the train dispatchers office, with increased wages. We know Mr. M. will make good and earn still more promotions.

Chas. E. Tombs has resigned his position as a state examiner, and joins with the Detroit Trust Co., one of the most important institutions of Detroit, where we are sure that Charlie has advanced himself in salary, position and influence,—and we are glad of it.

Any one needing anything in the tombstone or monument line should at once drop a line, a postal will do the business, to Mr. Ans Lyon, of Northville, Mich., and he will be glad to call on you with designs, prices and terms that cannot fail to please the most fastidious.

Mr. Joe Young, the busy carpenter, architect and builder, is putting up a bungalow home for Mrs. Holman Lapeer, who is a relative of Rev. Sval. This pretty little house is on Willets street and will be modern in every respect and will cost nearly $3,000 when completed.

Plemstead Bro. is the name of a pair of wide awake boys, Masters Philip and Don Plemstead, who are busy in the newspaper agency business. They will soon branch out big and until then are giving their earnest and successful attention to the Saturday Evening Post. Subscribe with the boys. Single copies for sale at Taylor Brothers' Tonsorial parlor.

The Rev. N. T. Freeman of Turlock, Calif., called on some of his acquaintances last week. He said he was burying the ashes of his wife in the family lot in our cemetery. His wife was Miss Campbell, whose girlhood days were spent here and who is remembered by many of our people. While here Mrs. Freeman made arrangements for the perpetual care of their lot in our cemetery.

For many winters back wood has been grievously longed for. Now you have no further cause to complain. Read the advt. of big, heavy, set-stove wood. It's near by. It will be delivered promptly from the smallest order to the great big one. All the same price and all treated promptly, sold at once, suitably. If you want stove wood read the advt. and act accordingly.

All kinds of fruit and vegetables at Miner & Ferguson's.

Mrs. Charles Howard of Detroit, via her sister, Mrs. Chas. M. Raynolds last Tuesday.

On account of the fog Wednesday morning, trolley cars run with their headlights all aglow.

Oleomargarine for cooking, takes the place of butter at 25c and 25c a pound, sold by Miner & Ferguson.

You will not fail to read the attractive figures and bargains in Miner & Ferguson new advt. this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan will go north on a hunting trip. Bird shooting on the wing will be their forte.

Miss Ida Corey returned home Tuesday after several days' visit with her friend, Mrs. McLuckie of Pontiac.

Mr. Frank I. Foote, special agent of Rogers' shoe company of Chicago, made a short visit with his brother on Southfield ave. last week.

To rent—A fine house and lot, corner of Dajnes and Woodward avenues. Best location in town. Inquire of the owner, Mrs. Flora Beattie, Dajnes st. 2802.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will give a Harvest supper Thursday evening, October 29th, at the church. Watch for menu next week. Supper, 25c.

H. G. Spencer & Co. is the name of the new store successors to Cobb-Stanley-Harris Co. in the grocery business. The new firm jumped right into business and H. G. is as busy as if there had been no rest. Read the new advt.

The pupils of Miss Ruby Jamieson gave a piano recital at the Manse last Friday evening. In spite of the weather, there was a large attendance, and the pupils all did exceptionally well and reflected great credit on their teacher.

Spirala corsets, fitted to your form, subtle irregularities, bring out beauty lines and give supreme comfort, fit, and style. Guaranteed one year against run or breakage. Give name and phone for appointment. Will call at your home. Mrs. Adam Gray, Woodward avenue, Birmingham.

Marion White, of Southfield, kept judge Smith and 11 jurors waiting for him one morning, going to the court house for a hearing. He was so late that he forgot all about court. The judge let him off easy—fined a big basket of peaches or apples. Was Marion glad to get off so easily? You bet.

An old resident of Birmingham was in town recently and was surprised and delighted at the many new homes lately erected on Oak Grove addition which comprises the old Poppleton homestead and the Willets. He says, "great building boom for Birmingham, his head is level and he sees things straight."

Brother Fox of the Rochester Era, was "off" last week on the Rev. Whitney question. He placed Rev. C. W. Whitney formerly of Rochester, right in Birmingham, and was sure of it, that our own Rev. G. H. Whitney received the Era last week. It is a pleasure to know that Bro' Fox is in error this time.

A very fine auto ride was enjoyed Sunday last, by Mrs. John Baldwin, her daughter, Mrs. Mina Mills, Miss Millie Walker and Miss Grace Heddling, all in Chas. J. Millia's new Ford automobile, with its owner, C. J. M., at the wheel. To celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. E. the trio took them through Franklin to North Farmington, the childhood home of Mrs. Baldwin, where a rest and a little lunch was had. As the day was an ideal fall day the trip was heartily enjoyed by all.

In speaking of our notices in last week's Eccentric, Mrs. Agnes wrote us home this good lady writes us, "In your home news of last week, said item referred to my house being built on Townsend and Southfield. It should have read Houghton and Willey. Mr. Hastings is a young man from Jackson who bought the Grace McKinley house and expects to do business among us. Any one desiring a carpenter to do good work and a lot of it in a short time would do well to contact him."

Friday Oct. 6th '11. Mrs. Charles Newman corner of Brown and Henrietta sts. gave a dinner to a dozen lady relatives and friends in honor of her mother, Mrs. L. L. Houghton's 70th birthday anniversary. It came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Houghton. Guests were present from Detroit, Ortonville, Amy, Clawson and Birmingham. She received a number of useful and beautiful presents. All spent a very pleasant day and departed, bringing Mrs. Houghton many returns of the day.

Mrs. James VanEvery, Sr. of Franklin, has very many strong and true friends who deeply sympathize with her in the sorrowful affliction, she is now passing through because of the mad, rash and insane act of her son, Charles E. Fuller, who killed Jacob Kraft and wife at the Seven Mile road house, last Saturday night. All who are acquainted with this worthy couple, Mr. and Mrs. James VanEvery, Sr., deeply and truly sympathize and mourn with them over this most deplorable and lamentable affair.

Thomas H. Cobb succeeded after all others had failed in buying the site of Poppleton tower with a ninety-foot frontage on Woodward ave. The deal was closed last week and will be an important event in the growth of Birmingham. Mr. Cobb at once sold 35 feet of his holdings to G. C. Taylor, a Detroit auto man, who will at once erect a garage, one modern in every respect. It will have a pavement brick front and be no disgrace by the avenue. Unless sold accordingly.

A new bank building for the First State Savings bank.

Delicious is the Japan Tea sold by Miner & Ferguson, at 50c per pound. 2

FOR SALE—An organ. Inquire of Miss Mielie Wilson at the post office. 2

Miss Viola McCully of Northville, has been spending the past week, with her cousin, Miss Evelyn Deer.

Wanted—A good bright, smart, young lady, not afraid to work, to clerk in a dry goods store. Send name and address to this office. 2

Mrs. Emily Marston of Bay City, wife of the late Judge Marston, spent last week with her cousin, Mrs. David Love Martin, in Detroit.

Girls' Friendly society of the St. James' church will meet at the home of Mrs. Hulbert, Woodward avenue, Monday evening, Oct. 16.

The K. of Pythias held their first card party last Tuesday night. A good time was enjoyed by all present. Now then folks, look out for what will come later.

Attention No. 93, R. A. M. Special convention of Birmingham chapter, No. R. A. M. Monday evening, Oct. 16. Work in M. M. degree. J. A. Bigelow, secy.

All over the country factory sites and business places are making grass-plots, and otherwise beautifying their grounds. The cities are going far in advance of the smaller towns.

No one should think that I. Lee Trux and family are off the scene. Dr. N. T. Shaw just received a grand good letter from him, saying: "we are all alive, kicking and able to get and have three square meals per day." away out in their Western home.

Tuesday last a case in assumpit was started against the late D. G. G. M. R. by before Justice A. W. Campbell, for obstructing the Bowler's St. crossing, on complaint of Robert Allison, per order of the County Prosecuting Attorney. The return day is set for Friday, October 20th, '11, at 9 o'clock a. m. at Justice Campbell's office.

David Levinson is the lucky boy to draw the X on a slip of paper that gives him the trip to New York city, the guest of the Detroit News, and who will witness one of the champion pool games, for free of all cost. David is we had to enjoy this treat, and did more to win the prize for Birmingham club than any other worker. Having relatives in the big city, living will come easy for David. We wish him bon voyage.

The Sigma Tau Sorority held their October meeting at the home of Miss Evelyn Deer last Monday evening. The evening's entertainment took the form of a mock wedding, the ceremony being performed under a shower of pink and white roses. After flashlights were taken of the bridal party and guests, light refreshments were served. Mrs. Melvin Deer was presented with a beautiful silver bread tray engraved with the Sigma Tau emblem.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Addie Stearns on Wednesday afternoon of next week at 3 p. m., in connection with this meeting the ladies will hold their annual experience social. The experience consists of the members earning a dollar and telling in what particular way they did it. A short program will be included. Light refreshments will be served. All friends of the society are invited.

RATHER PERSONAL

"That new man that I employed last week," said the barber, "was not a success."

"What was the matter with him?"

"Why, a lady came in to have her hair dressed, and he asked her if she would like to have it done while she waited."
