The entertainment given by the Home and Foreign Missionary societies at the M. E. church last week Tuesday netted each society a neat little sum.

In spite of the fact that the night was very stormy, a large crowd was in attendance.

In a recent issue we stated that all business places were to close at 7 p. m. except Saturday night beginning Oct. 9.

Owing to some apparent misunderstanding the business men have now agreed to keep open till 8 o'clock until Nov. 1, after which time they will close at 7 p. m.

Church suppers are becoming very popular here. The Ladies' Union fed between 400 and 500 at their chicken pie supper last Thursday night.

Friday night the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church fed 150 at their regular monthly meeting.

J. M. Lawson secured a judgment in the justice court last week against Mrs. Dolena Prouse for $252.05 and costs.

Mrs. Prouse has appealed the case to the higher court.

The work of macadamizing Woodward avenue from the Eight Mile road is progressing rapidly.

They expect to have two miles of it completed in 80 days.

In the good old days if you had a pain "amidships" the doctor told you it was a stomach ache.

Now he calls it appendicitis, peritonitis or gastritis. If you had trouble in the "upper story" he called it a headache.

Nowadays it is corrupted excretor and is medically emanating from an inflamed condition of the molar and atomic formations constituting the medulla oblongata and thereby materially affecting the cerebral nerves.

which being in juxtaposition thereto, produces a profile source of irritability in the pericranial epidemics of the mental profundity.

A very pleasant gathering was held Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Leo Campbell in honor of Mrs. Minnie Gillett Hall of Boise City, Idaho.

Those present were Mrs. Frankie Gibbs George of Rochester, Mrs. Millie Shultz Schlaecher of Birmingham, Mrs. Jennie Ebling Morris, Mrs. Jean Ebling, Mrs. Maud Dunderon Smith of Detroit, Mrs. Grace Robbins Stanley of Northville, Mrs. Ida Ford, Mrs. S. L. Robbins of Troy.

Mrs. L. J. Levensaler, Mrs. Anna Pearsall Harvey, Miss Anna Quick, Mrs. Carrie Starr, Mrs. Emma King Richards, and Mrs. Alice King Campbell of Royal Oak. These ladies were all girls together at Big Beaver, and some of them had not met for 15 years.

They all enjoyed a bountiful four course dinner after which the rest of the day was spent with music and relating reminiscences of childhood days.

They departed to their homes feeling that the day had been well spent and one never to be forgotten.

Born, Oct. 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Waskins, a baby girl. Mrs. Waskins will be better known as Miss Blanche Kinghorn.

Mrs. Maors and 12 other deaconesses from Detroit were entertained at the pleasant home of Mrs. Hitchcock last week Tuesday.

Houses are in such demand in Royal Oak that while one family moves out through the back door another family moves in through the front door.

Mrs. Yost of Iowa was an over Sunday guest of Mrs. John Baum. Mrs. Yost was formerly Miss Mamie Luttenbacher, who with her mother and brother resided in this village some 10 or 12 years ago.

Farmers in this vicinity are greatly annoyed by parties coming out from Detroit and rambling over their farms, pilfering everything they can lay their hands on.

About a hundred come out nearly every day and go back with baskets and bags filled with stuff they have taken from the farmers.

One farmer stated that he was afraid to leave home for fear that when he came back his farm would be gone.

L. J. Lyansaler is the busiest man in our busy burg. Owner of Central Block which of itself is a tidy investment and profitable in rents, he has a fine business besides. He has a fine candy, tobacco and cigar store; is agent for the Parisian Laundry of Detroit and delivers weekly enough laundry to load a hay rack.

Five billiard and pool tables, everyone working, makes a busy life. Besides all this he has a barber shop department in the front of his busy place.

It takes four chairs to keep up with the procession, and Eugene Doby is chief in this part of the business, ably assisted by Tom Moyer, F. Bogert and Rudolph Hagelstein.

This quartet gives satisfaction to their hundreds of patrons. As if all this business wasn't enough, Mr. Lyansaler is just about finishing another store adjoining this one and they will be connected with an arch.

In this new room, 30x120, will be two barber chairs and a bowing alley. Ross Baxter is clerk behind the counter and we are sure all who call will be cheerfully waited upon and depart happy from this busy place.

Miss Dimmis Quick of Highland Park visits friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Riebel and family spent Sunday at the farm of Joe Grosgean.

Miss Minnie Hawthorne visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lamb, of Big Beaver last week.

Twelve acres of the old Porter farm, near the nine mile road, is to be subdivided into lots.

Robert Brown, who has been sick with pneumonia for some time, does not improve very fast.

Mrs. Harry Schulz of Big Beaver spent last Friday with Ada Simpson of the Twelve Mile road.

Tom Matthews has commenced the erection of a beautiful brick house on his place on the Nine mile road.

Misses Benedict and Matthews and James Matthews of Detroit spent Sunday at the home of Henry Wheeler.

Mrs. Allen Simpson returned from Owosso last Friday. She attended the funeral of her little niece Thelma Kerby.

Do you really have a fondness for that little dog of yours? You will not have him long if you do not pay that dog license.

Frank Parmenter will pay $100 reward for information leading up to the arrest and conviction of the party who stole his team of sorrel horses out of his barn here several nights ago.

Are the people of Royal Oak interested in having their pretty village present a tidy appearance? Then why not take care of old papers instead of leaving them to blow about the streets.

All dog licenses were due the very first of October. To date just one owner has "come across." We can see some lone-some owners pretty soon—every unlicensed dog has a price on his head now you know.

Lyle Brown, who was operated on for an abscess on his temple a short time ago, will have to return to the hospital again for another operation. The doctor in charge does not entertain much hopes for him.

W. H. Fish of Onaway spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carley. He is much interested in the development of northeastern Michigan, believing it superior to the great northwest as a producer of high grade fruits.

Fish used to be in business in Detroit, but a visit to that new country captivated him, and he cast in his lot with the people who are pioneers in the developing one of Michigan's finest sections.

When Robert McClure went home from his work Saturday evening found what he supposed to be a first class burglar. He had planned to go to Birmingham that evening and had told his son of his intentions. When he came to look for his best suit of clothes, they were missing also an overcoat which he had recently purchased.

Nevertheless he went to Birmingham and found that his son had taken them there for him and Bob was happy again.

St. Mary's bazaar will open Thursday evening, Oct. 23, and will continue Friday and Saturday. Mayor Wm. B. Thompson of Detroit will open the bazaar Thursday evening.

Hon. James H. Lynch of Pontiac will give the address Friday evening. The ladies of St. Mary's are preparing various booths that will be filled with articles both beautiful and useful and it is said this will be the finest exhibition of the kind ever seen in Royal Oak.

Lunch will be served each afternoon of the three days at the town hall.

ATTENTION! O. U. "DEAN" HUNTERS. County Clerk, F. B. Babcock has made arrangements to be in the following places during the latter part of the month to issue deer licenses to hunters who desire them.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

We Guarantee to Relieve Dyspepsia—If We Fail the Medicine Costs Nothing.

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of bit-muth-substitute and pepsin have been combined with carminatives and other agents.

Bit-muth-substitute and pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is carefully prepared so as to develop its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid. Without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.

The carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain of this that we urge you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Three sizes—25c, 50c and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at C. J. Shain's store—the Rexal Store.

BIRMINGHAM BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

A HIGHLAND PARK WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Albert C. Fisher, Highland Park, last Tuesday afternoon when her youngest daughter, Bessie Lane was married to Samuel Leonard McCall, of Milford.

The bride was handsomely attired in a grey traveling suit with hat of blue and silver. After the wedding supper the happy couple left for the west.

They will be at home in Milford after the first of January.

A Turtle Story.

While excavating for a cellar a few days ago at Bloomfield, N. J. the workmen came upon the skeleton of a horse and two live turtles eight feet underground. The place was formerly a mill pond and was filled with dirt in 1830. It is supposed the horse was in the pond at the time of the gillnet and that the turtles consumed the flesh of the animal.

Averts Aerial Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wisconsin, R. R. 1, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctor, had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" and that she must die. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery.

"I have been suffering for weeks with a severe bronchitis, and the cough was almost gone. It also saved my little boy who was in the same severe bronchitis." This is an average case. There is no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle free. Guaranteed by C. J. Shain.

Scotch Dog's Business Instinct.

Left one night on Wagoner mountain with 3,000 sheep by the death of John Saunders, one of his men, one shepherd shooed dog two weeks later delivered to Manuel Saunders, owner of the sheep, 3,000 of the animals, having lost only one during the weeks of privation. The dog's achievement was carried out despite the fact that she was the mother of puppies only a few days old when her master died.—From Our Dumb Animals.

The New Maxwell Messenger

requires a minimum of care

Any owner, no matter how inexperienced, can take care of his Maxwell Messenger in 15 minutes, or less, each day.

It is simplicity itself, both in design and operation. The car is so easy to understand that anyone can take care of it.

And yet the simple design is not wholly responsible for this—the excellence of material and care in production makes it possible.

It is easy to drive—that's why it is so popular as a ladies' car.

With all improvements, including magneto, top, three oil lamps, two gas lamps and generator, at $600

Color scheme is optional—dark-blue body, with light-blue wheels, or blue body with cream-colored wheels. Let us demonstrate this stanch car to you.
