Royal Oak Baptist church, morning service at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. Mathews, pastor. Subject, "Love the Master Passion of the Human Soul." Sunday school at 11:30 a. m.

On Tuesday evening of last week quite a number of our people who are lovers of good music availed themselves of the opportunity afforded them to hear that matchless oratorio "Handel's Messiah" performed at the new North Woodward Congregational church by a chorus of 100 voices with an orchestra of nearly 40 instruments. It proved very interesting and profitable to many, and we presume will linger long in the memory of all who's great privilege it was to hear it. Mr. Renwick, the director, is to be congratulated upon the great success which crowned his noble efforts. He was very fortunate in selecting such able artists for the solo's and by his consumate skill as a conductor the choruses were executed to perfection and most enjoyable, especially the one at the close, the grand "Halleluiae Chorus." It is now 170 years since the beautiful Oratoria was written, but its popularity during all those years has not waned; and it would seem that if any such work ever derived inspiration from the great master of all music, then Handel's Messiah surely did. It has been my privilege to hear it rendered in various other parts of the world, but none would compare to that on this occasion, for every body seemed enraptured with delight. The large church was crowded and scores of ladies and gentlemen of refinement were glad to sit on the floor in the aisles of the large gallery and in every nook and corner of the auditorium the people stood in groups during the whole performance. May we not hope to hear the beautiful Oratorio given in Royal Oak some time? It is certain that we have the necessary talent for its production. Respectfully, W. H. P.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?". He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhœa or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at C. J. Shain's store—the Rexall Store.

Webster's NEW INTERNATIONAL Dictionary (G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.) surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. On the old foundation a new superstructure has been built. The reconstruction has been carried on through many years by a large force of trained workers, under the supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris, former United States Commissioner of Education, and reenforced by eminent specialists. The definitions have been rearranged and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unsparing scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness. In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.

So great was my sympathy for weak men in the early years of my experience that I have made it a special study, and formulated two prescriptions, one for men under 50 and one for men over 50 years of age. In my declining years I want every man to have the benefit of my long years of careful study, research and long experience.

I realize that my time is short, but will do all in my power to aid men and women who are helpless and seeking relief. If I know there has been a great many disappointed when they thought relief in their grasp, but let me send you my free prescription and booklet of private lectures to men which is the result of study since I began lecturing to student classes, way back in '71. Since that time I have cured many cases that are now pleased to recommend me.
