

A NOBLE WOMAN

Mrs. Horace Hitchcock, of Royal Oak is Gladly Honored by Her Old Friends by Complete Surprise

A BIRTHDAY. To you a birthday. On the birthday of those who know you it is marked in gold.

The above beautiful selection was read by Mrs. Margaret Deloit Moore, at the home of Mrs. Paul Davis, at Royal Oak, Jan. 13, the occasion being a birthday surprise to her mother, Mrs. Horace Hitchcock, of which she is the "old grand" of Central Church were bidden.

A most interesting feature must not be omitted. Mrs. Moore, in behalf of the Detroit deacons board and other friends presented to Mrs. Hitchcock a "birthday cake." Hours of loneliness will be beguiled by reading the familiar names of many dear, old friends to be found inscribed in this book.

Best Move Birmingham Can Make. Sewers for our Village will Make 'Pham a City Soon.

The question of sanitary sewerage for the village of Birmingham, has been the subject of more or less controversy for some time.

When Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock was asked who was to succeed him as chairman of the Republican national committee he answered, "I have not given the matter a thought."

The politicians know today that it was Mr. Hitchcock who took the initiative in the civil service campaign.
