ALL OVER

Colds are common owing to the bad and shifting weather.
 Lizzie Behrendt of Clawson, is sick with the mumps but better.
 Mrs. John Davis of Southfield, is a great sufferer from rheumatism.
 The Willing Workers of Southfield, met last Wednesday at Jos. Brooks.
 G. W. Wilson of Troy, was in Cheesing a few days fixing up his business there.
 Floyd Hunt has been ailing the past week and seems no better. Perhaps it's the gripe.
 Howard Reid of Clawson, is taking a short course at the Agricultural College at Lansing.
 John Davidson and wife, and Mrs. Fred Warner all went visiting to Detroit last Sunday.
 Miss Beattie Slater of Toledo, Ohio, is the happy guest of Miss Leilha Davenport, of Troy.
 Leilha Davenport is gaining in health under the treatment of Dr. George B. Clark, of Birmingham.
 Bennie Haines of Lamotte, Mich. is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Rhoda Henderson, on Wednesday.
 Fred Smith spent a few days at home lately, as a lay off from his duties as a motorman on the Detroit-Toledo line.
 Miss Elsie Nixon of Southfield, spent last Saturday with Mabel Davenport in Troy. These two mingled a joyful time together.
 George Hill had his black horse badly kicked last Thursday while the two horses were out at play. Luck is a freak sometimes.
 A recent telegram from Denver, Colo. to Mrs. John Davidson of Troy, informed her that Mrs. F. White, her sister, is dangerously sick.
 Down to the bottom prices until Feb. 20th. H. W. H. Codnor will offer the Woman's Home Companion, that beautiful and useful household educator in clubs to suit readers.
 Skating on the Lowery pond has been a fashionable of the past weeks, and much delightful fun had by many boys and girls. Oh, well, when I was a boy what jolly times I used to have. Wow! To meet all desires ye readers! get Codnor's latest and lowest of prices on Women's Home Companion. He will gladly call once at your home for your ideas in reading. I have an Atlas of the World to present.
 A serious accident happened last Thursday to Jack Hunt, while on his way home with a load of 68 cakes of ice. When near Frol Hawthorne's in Sterling, he slipped down upon the wagon tongue, and one of the horses began to him, and in scrambling back upon the load, he fell off entirely, causing the team to run away. His left foot was crushed, fracturing the bone, and his right arm smashed and his left temple badly bruised. Dr. Benny was called and skillfully cared for the victim. Christ, Hacker stopped the runaway team and in his buggy took poor Jack home, and George Hacker drove the frightened team. Poor Jack! He sure had a close call to death.

R. D. NO. 1

The Miller boys bought four new mitch last Tuesday.
 J. M. Beddow last week sold some more ponies to parties up north.
 William Brooks and his hustling family are preparing for spring work.

MORRIS LEVINSON, Prop.

Physician's First Thought.
 A physician was driving along the street when his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown violently to the sidewalk, and knocked senseless. Presently he recovered a little from his unconsciousness, and noticing the crowd which had gathered about him, remarked: "What's the matter, gentlemen? Anybody hurt?"
 "No, Doctor," said one of the bystanders. "Can't be of any service."

Littigum sandwiches.
 A game of poker at one of the leading hotels—the game which is played every Wednesday night during the season, had lasted well into the night. Sandwiches were ordered—the familiar triangle variety; but they were not had. A hungry shout went up for more.
 "More sandwiches, waiter," said the man with the "kitty."
 "Yes, sah! How many, sah?" returned the waiter.
 "Well," said the player, with a canny twinkle in his eye, "judging by the size of your sandwiches and the size of this bill, I should say about $2,000 worth."
 —Philadelphia Times.

A Debt of Art.
 "The professor says that music owes a great deal to Rossini," said the young woman. "What's Rossini?"
 "That," replied Mr. Curran, "is probably Italian for 'roastin.'"

BIG BEAVER

Mrs. Wm. Clark entertained guests last week.
 N. W. Vanderpool spent a day in Detroit recently.
 Miss Flossie Kilmer spent last Sunday in Detroit.
 Joseph Bowers made a business trip to Southfield last week.
 W. H. Lamb made a business trip to Detroit on Wednesday last.
 Wm. Forest, of Detroit, was the guest of James Daly last Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Ebling, of Detroit enjoy dinner with Harry Simpson's family on Saturday last.
 Mrs. Hattie Petrole Lauff died at her parent's home here on Wednesday of last week and was buried on Saturday in the Royal Oak cemetery.
 Consumption claiming her young life, she being but 19 years of age at the time of her death. Mrs. Lauff became a bride in September last and was buried in her pretty wedding gown. Besides her heart broken young husband and a number she leaves two brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Rev. Cross preached a very impressive funeral service and Wm. Sullivan of Royal Oak conducted the funeral. Mrs. Lauff being aware that her end was drawing near arranged her funeral and chose her pallbearers from among her friends and schoolmates. They were Charles Shanahan, J. Thomas Daly, Harry Smith, Thomas Shanahan, and Richard and Charles Scherz.

 Curiously Expressing.
 Curious ways of expressing ideas in English may be expected from foreigners, as, for instance, when the French man, who made a call in the country and was about to be introduced to the family, said: "Ah, sa ladies! Zen I would before, if you please, wish to purty mine 'ands and to sweep mine hair."
