An effective border for a round, big cake lead in white can be small flags of red, white and blue, and even divisions. Cut these on a round platter, log cabin fashion, to resemble a fort. Through some of the openings stick red candles, and in the center have a small silk flag.

For another coloring let the cakes in red, white and blue, have the soldiers in colonial uniforms, while several of the flags used in the early days of the revolutionary war can be stuck in a standard in center.

DAIRIES FOR PARTY

CONFECTIONS SURE TO PLEASE THE CHILDREN.

May Be Known as Washington Cakes or by Any Other Name, but Will Always Be Found Most Delicious.

Passes yourself of a forcing tube such as is used for icing, various harness colorings, and plenty of confectioners' sugar, and you can evolve all sorts of patriotic designs at little cost.

Make a single cup cake batter, bake in shallow tins about two inches deep, when cold cut the cake in oblong pieces, for some of those with red icing, others in white, and with a tube make a curled fancy border of white on red, and vice versa.

For a big cake, bake in a deep star-shaped pan, like a white icing, decorate with scrolls and fancy border, and in each part a cluster of candied cherries with a delicate foliage. Serve on a round platter, covered with red, white and blue ribbons, or surround with wreath of artificial cherry leaves and fruit.

For a child's party make a number of small cakes, but in blocks as described above. Use red, white and blue, in even divisions. Cut these on a round platter, log cabin fashion, to resemble a fort. Through some of the openings stick red candles, and in the center have a small silk flag.

ROYAL OAK CLUB

Listened to a Very Interesting Address by Miss Gilchrist of the Michigan Agricultural College

The Royal Oak Woman's club met Monday, Mar. 9, at the home of Mrs. Anselmy Smith. After the usual preliminary a very interesting program was given.

"The Battle with the Slugs" was the subject under consideration and the afternoon was spent in the discussion of this gigantic pest.

Mrs. Sage read a splendid account of "Rescue Work in New York City" and Mrs. Lawson read a most excellent paper on "The Boy and Girl in the New York Slums."

Roll call brought forth many anecdotes of work in the slums.

On Monday, Mar. 13, the Woman's club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Sage.

On this occasion Miss Gilchrist, dean of the Woman's department of the Michigan Agricultural college, gave an address on "Household Economics or a Plan for Right Living." She said in part that much of the humdrum of housekeeping might be avoided if our girls were taught to do things properly and systematically; also that it is our duty to make our brains serve us in our household as well as in any other line of work. On the whole Miss Gilchrist's talk was much enjoyed.

FOR BALD HEADS.

A Treatment that Costs Nothing if It Fails.

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "39" Hair Tonic on our complete guarantee. If the trial will not cost you a penny it will do for you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "39" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles atrophied and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "39" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it will do for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Return bottles to Rexall, 100 Broadway, New York. This commodity only at our store - The Rexall Store. Charles J. Shain.
