A very pretty St. Patrick's party was given by the Misses Leah Parent and Teedah Wilcox Friday evening. The house was artistically decorated in green. Supper was served at 9:30 and covers were laid for 20 guests. The table was beautifully decorated, a bank of green carnations forming the centerpiece which was surrounded by a pyramid of green baby ribbon suspended from the chandelier. The favors were small green flags. Cards were played for which prizes were given. A number of out of town guests were present including some accomplished musicians. A most delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

The Royal Oak Woman's club met Monday, Mar. 20, at the home of Mrs. Harry Mellen. After the usual order of business, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in discussing our state institutions. Mrs. Sullivan read a paper on "Educational Institutions." Mrs. Fielding told of "Charitable Institutions and Their Work" and Mrs. Kidder took Mrs. Fournier's place and explained the work of "Reformatory Institutions." Roll call responses were "Some Faults of our State Government." The above program made a very interesting study for, as some one has said, "The fire burns brightest on one's own hearth."

Tom Moyer, a barber of this place, was unmercifully beaten by a gang of toughs in Detroit Saturday evening. He was walking down Monroe avenue when he was accosted by a man who asked him for a cigarette and when he told him that he didn't have any, he commenced to call him names which he resented. The man started to run with the barber in pursuit, he had not gone far when four men sprang out of an alley, knocked him down and pounded him unmercifully. He received several bad cuts about his head and was badly bruised on other portions of his body, which required the services of a physician. He was brought home on the last car Saturday night.
