The first day of the Spring-Opening Sale!

At the BIRMINGHAM DEPT. STORE

My stores are filled with the newest and most up-to-date merchandise for your inspection.

Our old friend Frank P. Townsend has sold his nice little farm, and has moved to Detroit, as his business calls him there.

MORRIS LEVINSON, Proprietor

R. D. NO. 1

Tom Reddow sowed oats last Tuesday.

Joseph Ely is getting ready to do a big year's work.

H. M. Russell in the near future will also do some tiling.

John M. Reddow will work his mother's farm this year.

John Zimmerman is back in his cozy home again and will do gardening this year.

J. M. Reddow last Monday sprayed his orchard with the good help of W. L. Stickney.

Frank Reeder is all o. k. again; has used tobacco for the past 25 years and now has given it up.

H. A. Adcock of Detroit, bought the F. P. Townsend farm, and will fix it up for a neat chicken farm.

Our old friend Frank P. Townsend has sold his nice little farm, and has moved to Detroit, as his business calls him there.

L. A. G. Blumberg is fixing up round the old homestead, trimming trees around the house and also round the barns.

On the Fairview farm they commenced to do a lot of tiling last Monday, and Uncle William McGraw is the Boss on the job.

Elmer Haack is home on a vacation for a few days. He dons his overalls and wambles and sails into farm work like a little man.

R. J. St. Clair on the Two Oaks farm is continually doing things up fine and dandy. He is taking a new line of fence on the east that is a lulu.

George B. Burt and one of his sons will start Detroit next week and stay in leaving. They have a big lot of good paying contracts on hand.

Charles Martin, high school baseball catcher, got a bout over his eye making a very bad cut. It had to be stitched up by a surgeon, and he is now back in the game as good as ever.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Will Snider was home from Detroit last Sunday.

Fred Smith spent Sunday with his parents here.

Miss Ida Scheff is in Jackson for a short visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson entertained a number of guests last Sunday.

Miss Dally of Detroit, is spending her Easter vacation at her parent's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tramball spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith.

Mrs. Charles Smith spent last Monday in Detroit on business and a general shopping tour.

Nelson Vandepoel spent several days in Detroit last week as a witness for the D. U. R. on an accident case.

Albert Fort has moved here from Columbus, Ohio, and will occupy his summer home furnished some time ago.

Auction sale on the Ann Harris farm last Thursday was well attended, Jake Levy has rented the farm for the coming season.

Mrs. Fannie Harris, of Detroit, was the guest of her father, Louis Smith, also her sister, Mrs. Will Clark, for a few days last week.

Several rods of tiling have just been put in on the Bowers farm. There is nothing to surpass this improvement for up-to-date farmers like Joe.

Dr. Bonnie accompanied Walter Farquhar to the Pontiac asylum last week, where he is detained, awaiting an examination as to his mental condition.

Harry Spencer returned home last Saturday from Grace hospital where he recently underwent an operation. Mr. Spencer is rapidly regaining his strength.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shute drove out from Detroit in their handsome new touring car last Sunday with a party of friends and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dongrowe.

MEETABLE.

THE LYCEUM THEATRE.

Those who have seen "The Man Between," one of the most talked of dramas, have a treat in store next week when it will be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, by Vaughn Glaser, supported by Miss Fay Courtney and a company of players.

Mr. and Mrs. Glaser, that he bought the production outfit for his starring tour this season.

This play with its massive scenic effects, its delightful love story and incidents throbbing with life, provides a most fascinating entertainment.

The engagement opens with Sunday matinee in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

THE CYPHERS GUARANTEE.

That each and every incubator we send out will do satisfactory work in the hands of the purchaser will give it a fair trial, or it can be returned to us in 30 days, in good repair, less reasonable wear, and the purchase price will be returned.

The incubators are an important factor in poultry raising. It is a success; it has come to stay and the time is not far distant when it will be necessary on every farm as the plow, the mower or the separator. The purchaser of an inferior machine, failing to secure good results, sets aside his in what might be his neighbor's actual loss of profit is a failure. The purchaser of a good machine, one properly made and fitted to his needs, is so not to be pleased with his success that he encourages his friends and neighbors to undertake raising chickens with incubators.
