Latest From Our Sister Village

Remember the alumni banquet June 23.

Mrs. Clark, of Pontiac, visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. H. Hitchcock is spending the week with her sons in Pontiac.

Edward McHugh has moved into the Butts' house on Eighth street.

Mrs. M. Robinson, of Southfield, was the guest of relative here Sunday.

Mr. Lewis and bride of Grayling, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Fournier.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dove spent the past week in visiting friends in Romeo and vicinity.

Next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Children's day exercises will be held at the M. E. church.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Barnard Tuesday afternoon.

An all day meeting of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies will be held Friday at the home of Mrs. W. D. Curtis.

Dr. Morrison and wife, George Dandero and Miss Roegner attended the wedding of Dr. McFetters in Detroit last Saturday evening.

The fifth grade of the Birmingham school has formed a Civic League. Would this not be a good idea for some of the grades of our school.

The directors of the Royal Oak Savings bank at their meeting on Monday of this week declared a semi annual dividend of 4 per cent and taxes paid.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Perry, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Toles, have returned to their home in Ponterville.

Don't fail to note D. K. Smith's new and wonderful bargain sales. D. K. is a hustler and Royal Oak's foremost citizen. He is building up our village and deserves the patronage of every citizen of Royal Oak.

James Lockman, an old pioneer of this township, died Saturday, aged 77 years. The funeral was held from St. Mary's church Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Lockman was a conductor on the D. G. H. & M. Ry. He leaves one son, Amos, who is in business in the west.

Parents whose children have passed the eight grade examination and who expect them to enter high school this fall, must file an application with the director of their home district before the fourth Monday in June. If they fail to do this, the district is not obliged to pay tuition.

The annual banquet of the Royal Oak high school alumni association will be held at the school house on Friday evening, June 23, at 7:30 p. m. Tickets are now on sale at Blair's drug store and will be until June 21. All members please purchase your tickets before June 21. The committee in charge have arranged an excellent program. Members show your loyalty by coming to this banquet. If you cannot come, buy your ticket and help make this banquet a success.

Wisnisky evening, June 9, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rose, their eldest daughter, Viola Irene, was married to Otto Shuman both of Clayton. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Hazel Mundy, of Flushing, cousin of the bride, the couple descended the stairs unattended and took their places in an alcove of ferns and roses, where the Rev. Passmore of Swartz Creek, performed the ceremony. Little Opal Shepherd, niece of the groom, acted as flower girl. A dainty lunch was served to over 100 guests. The Misses Perry, Glass and Moss, of Flushing, acted as waiters, these being classmates of Mrs. Shuman. Mrs. Shuman is a niece of Richard H. Rose, of this village.

B.I.S. RACK MEET

33 YEARS AGO

The following items were published in this paper by its present owners.

A 1000 Snow, an early settler, is very ill with fever.

Lorenzo Corey of Stanton was in town Sunday visiting his mother.

Martin Tom's horse tore up Billy Mauer's high seat and threw the settler looking for a while but little damage was done.

Eugene Brooks returned from Denver Colo. on Saturday last accompanied by his brother, Ell.

The primary school fund for Oakland Co. now in the hands of Treasurer Partridge, ready for distribution to the township treasurers for this year, is $6,139.10. Twelve thousand two hundred and seventy eight children draw $1.00 above amount, with the library fund, totals 50c primary and 10c library money per capita.

Two men, Morrell Dennis and Walter Tixworth were seriously injured by being buried in a ditch five miles south at 1 1/2 of here on the farm of Clark Daniels in Southfield. The ten foot ditch was dug for a well and they made deep prairie to escape but were soon covered with the exception of their heads and arms. It is thought that they will both live.

Special Agent White, of the Post Office Dept., was in town last Friday and in the morning he had the inauguration of the money order system here for about the first of July.

John Heth of Southfield will soon have the new style of fence, barbed wire, on his farm.

In Pontiac, a telephone between L. Barry's store and the Gazette office is the latest novelty.

Our young friend, Mark Miller, has ranked an interest in the Birmingham mill and the firm will hereafter be Odyke and Miller.

The crystal wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harris was celebrated this week in Troy. Old time ballads were sung by Miss Kitty DuPuy and the jolly crowd made merry until morning. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clark were the first ones to venture forth into the heavy rain storm and more than 4 rods from the house their carriage was turned completely over. They were not injured badly and soon were able to start for home again.

TAXPAYER'S ATTENTION.
