Royal - Oak Catest From Our Sister Village

The new postoffice building is ast nearing completion.

Miss Alice Yoeman has ite sick the past week, Mrs. Bruce Rolls was a Detroit visitor last Saturday. Miss Lena Heavener visited the high school Monday after-

. Miss Ella Whalen visited at the home of Myrtle Gillette Sunday last.

Miss Kennedy, of Birmingha ent Thursday at the home of Miss Margaret Brondige spent the week end at the home of Minnie Eseman.

Mrs. James Heavener, of Syracuse. N. Y., is visiting her son, Josiah Heavener.

Mrs. Mary Heavener spent a week at the home of her mother Mrs. S. E. Wilson.

August Baker has moved into is new residence in the south part of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller spen Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eseman.

A. B. Corkins and family left last Saturday for their new home at Frankfort.

Master Ferris Gardner has received some very pretty views of Winthrop Beach, Mass., sent by Mrs. Carrie Kenny.

Dr. J. S. Morrison has moved from the Central block to his new office located at his home on Washington avenue.

Misses Margaret and Anna McClelland of Southfield visit ed Lena and Florence Heavener Tuesday of last week.

Miss Altana Campbell and Miss Edna Campbell returned June 11. from their visit to relatives in New Jersey last Saturday.

Much credit is due Miss Starr and her able assistants for the splendid entertainment "Pirates of Penzance" given at Masonic hall last Friday and Saturday

M. J. Carley has sold his home on Main street to Detroit parties Training and Leadership." on Main street to Detroit parties and will give possession June 15.
Royal Oak property is rapidly being picked up by people from Detroit who realize that this is Wednesday, a very enjoyable evening was spent among her an ideal place in which to live.

A number of the relatives of Mr. Lyman Richards from Troy and this place, gathered at his pleasant home on Center street Saturday evening and gave him an agreeable surprise, the occasion being his 39th birthday. A subscribers of the Flate and strength of the place and so short being his 39th birthday. A subscribers of the TRHEWE. fine time was had by all.

We like to see and hear a man who is proud of his native town. He is an indispensable citizen, who is proud of his native town.

He is an indispensable citizen, assisted in making Memorial day although he may be as poor as a church mouse, but his name hearts of the people of Royal should be written in large letters at the entrance gate of his town ok, to accept our sincere thanks. Abould be written in large letters at the entrance gate of his town as an chorn to his memory. We have such with us and they are worth more to the progress of our town than their weight in gold. They know every point for interest and of advantage for an address appertaining to their hands will soon learn everything that adds to the honor of our town and will be most favorably impressed. Such persons overlook with true honor of our town and will be most favorably impressed. Such persons overlook with true will soon be established on the arthorism all shortcomings and magnify with honest citizenship every advantage. Ye grumblers, meditate.

The seniors of the high schot of the content of the content zance" Friday and Saturday evenings last week at the Masonic temple to well filled houses. Mr. James Mathews as Frederick, performed his part in a very credible manner. Mr. George Starr as Richard the pirate chief was great, persons who did not know the difference would have said he was the zenuine article. know the difference would have said he was the genuine article, so well did he play his part. Mrs. Alice Paynter as Ruth, per-formed her part equal to a pro-lessional. Mr. Norman Patter-jon as Major General Stanley, lid remarkably well, while the cest of the cast took their parts qually as well. It was the best rest of the cast took their parts equally as well. It was the best prformance that has been held be sare to call for them at Merritt & Tompkins, Pontiae. They lead.

Miss Edith Parr was absen from school Friday.
Miss Myrtle Gillette

school on Friday.

Russell Hardy is seriously ill at his home on Lafayette avenue. Mrs. Trombley, of Grayling, visited Mrs. Fournier over Sun lay and Monday.

The June examinations for teachers occurs next Thursday and Friday at Pontiac. Miss Carol Sage, of Detroit, was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sage.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller spent Decoration day at the home of their granddaughter, in this vil-Hiram Bower, of Rockwood, visited her daughter Mrs. Joseph Burgess a few days the past

Be sure and read the new or dinance as passed by the village council and which appears in this issue. Mrs. Carley and Mrs. Lawson are in Petoskey this week at-tending the state W. C. T. U. convention.

Charles Morris, of Utica, N. was the guest of his cousin, s. Lucy Mellin, a few days the past week.

The King's Daughters of the Congregational church will give a bake social on the church lawn Saturday, June 10.

Don't fail to read Charles Alger's adyt in another column, as he has something of vital importance to say to you.

Children's day exercises in the M. E. Sunday school have been postponed one week. They will now be held June 18 instead of

It is hoped and expected that the stakes set for the proposed new sidewalks be let alone and not pulled up and thrown away like some have been.

Epworth League devotional meeting Sunday evening 6:15. Leader, Mr. James Elsie, Sub-many relatives and friends.

We wish to ask the citizens of Royal Oak and vicinity who so liberally donated and otherwise meditate.

The seniors of the high school open air meeting at the residence assisted by local talent present-of Mrs. Merritt. All welcome. edthe play "The Pirates of Penzance" Friday and Saturday the Masonic nated June 14 as Flag day and has issued the following proclahas issued the following procla-mation: "All our loyal people love the flag. It indeed has come to be the emblem of the highest form of human liberty. Let it float from every church and school and home and from every place of business. And as we give it to the breezes let us real-tize its fullest meaning and re-solve again that it shall never mean less, but always more."

Good Jokes

SLEEP AND LET SLEEP

Mary Ann as she loomes we well for for a saked the foreman suddenly appearing.

"Shure, it's only six o'clock," complained Pait.

"Never mind that," retoried the foreman. "We want a man to help us unload that ship."

"What's the cargo!" asked Pat.

"Sleepers," said the foreman short-

"Sleepers, bedad!" exclaimed Pat, with his fingers to his lips. "Shure, didn't Oi tell yer it was too soon to start work? We musin't be wakin' em up so early in the mornin'!"

Seeds That Failed.
Fair Patron—Those morning glories
ou sold me are no use.
Seedsman — What's the matter, is an?

ma'an?
"They never opened."
"Those seeds, mum, were imported direct from China, mum, and, bein' day over there when it's night here, I suppose, mum, they do their bloomin'
after you get to sleep."—New York Weekly.

A Critical Case.
The Doctor—Mrs. Browning telephoned me to come over and see her husband. I must go at once.
His Wife—What is the matter with him?

The Doctor—I don't know. But Mrs. Browning has a book entitled "What to Do Before the Doctor Comes," and I must get there before she does ft.

"My dear friend," anys the platitud-inously impressive gentleman of an order of the control of t

OF COURSE NOT.

She—People do not often m their first loves. He—No, not often. At least, more than once.

A Cruel Deceiver.
She calls him "Pet"
And likewise "Honey,"
But her heart is set
On allmony.

His Disadvantage.
"My wife is always able to it things much more cheaply than things much more known;

"How do you account for it?"
"How do you account for it?"
"Well, when I am dealing with a pretty girl clerk I haven't the heart to left her think I ann't afford to pay the flyst price asked, and when a man the flyst price asked and th Dissipating Them.

"Jaggs 4s a grouchy sort of fellow.

No matter how often you meet him, he always has a chip on his should be the sort of the control of the control of the control of the biggest fellows I over saw, mad, and the fellow wen; for him and made the chips fly."

Judical Propriety.

Thate men who won't express at opinion. There's that justice of the peace I saked some unimportant political guestion, and he refused to commit birnself."

That's all right. He's not a committing magistrate."

Turning the Tables.

Mr. Youngwed (complacently)—I suppose you know there were several young lades disappointed when I mar fiel you?

Mrs. Youngwed — Yes. my girl friends had prophesied a brilliant future for me.

Where's One?

There used to be a famous steer in Missouri named Ever Onward.

'That would be a fine name for a mule, if one could be found that wouldn't balk."

A Safe Claim.

Griggs (protesting) — You don't mean to claim that your memory is slacutely perfect?

Briggs—Well, I can honestly say that at the present moment I cannot remember anything that I have ever forgotion.

HARMONY.

Mrs. Noobride—My husband and I lways act in concert. Mrs. Gldun—I'm astonished! I had o idea that either of you were mu-lelans.

A Comfortable Voyage, Sail on, O silver moon, in state! You're luckier than a ship, For you no customs men will wait When you complete your trip.

Driving it Home.

Mrs. Dorkins—I couldn't see that the story Mr. Throggins told you at the party was so awfully funny. Yet you spoke of it as a "regular rib tick-ler."

Mr. Dorkins—So it was, Maria; so it was. Didn't you notice that when he came to what seemed to be the point of it he nudged me in the ribs?

Something Different.
"I don't believe there is anything in that talk about Harlow being hard up." said Little Binks. Why, he's just blossomed forth with a footman on his motor."

tor."
"Footman!" echoed Jinkinson, deri sively. "Footman is good! That isn'i a footman—it's a deputy marshal is charge of the car."—Harper's Weekly.

A Vague Compliment.

Smith (talking to Wegg)—There's a magnificent fellow who would be an ornament to the bench "Jones—He would be highly complimented to know you thought so much of his law.

Smith—Pshaw, man! I didn't mean the man for a judge. I was talking of his dog for the show.

"Well," panted the defeated foot racer, "you won fairly, but you beat me by only a nose." "Hull," saped the other, "I beat "Will," saped the sald," At which point the heaty interfacence of the referee became necessary.

Monotonously Regular.

"How often do the 17 year locust isit you?" the traveler absent minded asked.

"O, about every five or six years, be westerner answered with a yawr.

beg your pardon; I wasn't what I was saying." I right, cap'n; neither was I."

NOTHING TO BACK IT.

Elusive.

he war scare's wondrous path we trace Across the lands and seas so wide:
never lingers in one place
Till it can be identified.

Our international Game.

Parry—I see those bush league thaps down in Mexico are putting a ew ever the border.

Gorrick—Yes, and if they keep up hat careless style of filinging Umpire sam will begin calling balls on em.

A Delicate Compliment.
"My new gown received a very sinere compliment the other day."
"As to how?"
"The proprietor of a restaurant I ent into asked me to sit near the rinder. Said it would lend tone to its place."

Successful.
"Has Perry ever done anything to add to the gayety of nations?"
"Yes. He tries to speak French.
German and Italian when he is in those countries."—Harper's Brazar.

Dr. Lillian J. Courts,

PATRONIZE

E. A. PARKS LIVERY and

PRICES RIGHT

I have for sale at living prices:
Baled Hay, Baled Straw, Heavy
buble Harness, Wide tired Wagon,
bod Three-Spring Market Wagon.
Bargains in all. E. A. PARKS, Prop.

Dawson & Felder

ement

We make Cement Blocks, Brick, Window Sills, Window Caps and Water Tables.

Our prices are reasonable. We guarantee satisfaction in Asking your patronage wear espectfully you Dawson & Felder

Ladies! Save Money and Keep in

Style by Reading McCall's Magazine and Using McCall Patterns

THE M.C. LL C.

RDER FOR PUBLICATION-Appo

State of Michigan, the Probate Court for the county of Oakhand. At a session of said Court, said county, on the 5th day of May. A. D. 11. Present, Hon. Kleber P. Rockwell, Judge Probate, in the matter of estate of STEPHEN R. NEWMAN, Doccased.

oties thereo to saven-sis order, for three successive weeks previous aid day of hearing, in the Birmingham Eccen unewspaper printed and circulated in said cour newspaper printed and circulated in said cour (A true copy.) KLEBER P. NOCKWELL, Judge of Probat JUDSON A. FREDENBURGH, Probas-25may-16j.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION - Probate

tatate of Michigin, the Probate Court for the unity of Oakland. At a session of said Court, at the Probate Office in the City of Pontiac, said county, on the listlay of June, A 1911. Present, Hon, Kile et P. Rockwill, Judge Probate. In the mater of the earlie of WILLIAM ALLEN, Deceased.

and executor and executive man of the William and deceased, or to some other man of the William and deceased, or to some other will be a softened that the lat day of July, A, D, 1911, at nine of-cleck in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby associated for probate Office, be and is hereby associated for probate of the work of the work

KLEBER P. ROCKWELL.

(A true copy.) Judge of Probate.

JUDSON A. FREDENBURGH. Probate C.erk.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION. - Appoint ment of Administrator.

State of Meiyan, the Probate Court for thounty of Oakland. At a session of said Court dat the Probate Office in the City of Pontiasid county, on the lat day of June. A Dill. Pre eatl Hon Kleber P. Rockwell, Judge Polin. Pre eatl. Hon Kleber P. Rockwell, Judge PRANCIS P. BEREKMAN, Deccased.

"suitable merson, is ordered that the 1st day of July. A. 911, at 9 o'clock in the forencon, at said Pro-Office, be and is hereby appointed for herald petition. It is further ordered that publin of a copy of this order, for three successory excess previous to said day of hearing, in the matter the ordered that publication of a copy of this order, for three successory and the successory of the order of the ve weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the immigham Eccentric, a newspaper printed an irriculated in said examp.

(A true copy.)

Judge of Probate,
JUDSON A. FREDENBLUGH, Probate Clerk.
9-30inn

Oxfords, Pumps and Strap Sandals Are the Most Comfortable Footwear for the

Birmingham Depart. Store

Has a Complete Stock to Choose From, $1.50 to $3.50 Pair

Special Sale of White Oxfords

For Ladies, Misses and Children. Prices reduced as follows:

Ladies' $1.75 and $2.00 White Oxfords, Sale $1.25 pair.

Ladies' White Oxfords, $1.50 values. Sale 95c.

Oxfords, $1.00 and Sale 75 pair. Black and Tan Oxfords for La-dies, $2.00 and $2.50 values, Sale

Stylish Summer Merchandise arriving all the time. Our qualities are the best—our prices are Come for inspection. We guarantee satisfaction.

MORRIS LEVINSON, Proprietor

"Everything for Dresses." "Isn't the Bride's Dress Exquisite?"

How MUCH it adds to the joy of the wedding festivities to hear such remarks as this. The New York house makes a specialty of materials that produce the most beautiful fromsenux. No matter what price you wish to pay you will be satisfied.

Lovely Fabrics for Trousseaux

Here are the materials for charming outfit. Very rich and lustrous Satins and mea-salines — beautiful cotton Voiles — silk Marquisettes. Chiffon cloth and gauzy all-over nets for coverings. Also and lustrous Satins and Mesover nets for coverings. beautiful bridal veilings.

Beautiful Trimmings

Proper trimmings are abso-lately essential—we offer you the most complete line in the city. Real Irish crochet laces frincess laces in allovera— Frances laces in allovera— Pearl Foint Venise Laces, Fearl Foint Venise Laces, Fringes, ornaments and ap-pliques. The most popular trimming this year.

Any one saleslady will show you everything you will need for your outfit—and she will gladly give you suggestions if you wish Why not be sure that your outfit will be as you want it?

New York TRIMING House DAVIES & McDONALD
16 JOHN R Cor. FARMER DETROIT

For particulars and terms call on or

H. B. PARKS & CO.

Hanna's Green Seal

"The Made-to-Wear Paint" FORMULA ON EVERY PACKAGE

Does This Mean Anything to You?

It expresses the maker's faith in the product. Labor is the principle cost in painting. The material should be the best. YOU CANNOT AFFORD ANY OTHER KIND.

W. H. HOGE & CO., Birmingham

