Miss Nellie McKinney, of Flint, is visiting her aunt, Miss Grace McKinney.

Try Recall "Skinner Skoot" for mosquito at the Recall store, C. J. Shain's.

To Rent: One-half of Mrs. Fuller's house on Pierce street. A man and wife desired.

Give your ice cream orders to C. J. Shain and get the best and purest cream sold in town.

Mrs. James J. Shain and sister, Mrs. Tibbills are spending a few days with a sister at Dayton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Randall is having a most happy and delightful vacation and visit with relatives at North Bradley, Mich.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church, Friday afternoon, July 28th, at three o'clock p. m. All members are urged to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. Walker and daughter, of Ann Arbor, spent the week end with Mrs. M. Estelle Hensley, on Townsend street.

Mr. Wm. Casey, of Port Sanilac, visited his sister, Mrs. David Roy the fore part of this week. He also visited James Casey, of Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rosso are at present on automobile tour through New York state, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Upton, of Detroit.

Miss Jennie Brown from Chicago, is a happy guest of Mrs. Lillian Huyette, Woodward ave. and enjoying the delights of Birmingham—the Pride of old Oakland.

The last book in the library is "She Buildeth Her Nest" by W. Livingston Comfort. Critic disagree, but admirers of "Notridge Ridge Alone," are likely to be disappointed.

Mrs. H. C. Wilson and her sister, Miss Mary Wilson are enjoying a month of leisure, culture and entertainment at Chautauque, N. Y. Both are very happy in their vacation quarters.

W. A. Sutherland makes a specialty of interior work; hand crafted glass, flat or wax finish. His work always ranks with the best. Do not forget that he hangs American Wall paper, sets and only the best paints and oils. Give me a trial. Telephone 200. W. A. Sutherland.

Married at the M. E. parsonage Saturday, July 15, by Rev. G. H. Whitney, Mrs. Minnie O'Neal and Mr. Edward I. Book, of Harrisburg, Penn. Mr. Book is a highly successful traveling salesman for the Blough Manufacturing Co., of Harrisburg, Penn. where the happy couple will make their future home. We give the happy couple our best wishes for a long and happy life wherever they go.

A cheerful picnic camping out at Union Lake are Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and wife, Amos Howland and wife, and Samuel Cross and his wife, out for a two-weeks vacation. They pitched their tents during the heaviest rain-storm of the season, and all were throughout the entire act. Here's hoping to them all a good time, and a safe return of the entire company. It is a well earned change, rest and vacation for all.

In answer to the call of President Daines for a citizens meeting to arrange for the entertainment of the boys in blue, who will gather here the last of August, a number of our people met last Monday night at library hall to arrange ways and means to provide for these old Vets. What was lacking in numbers made up in enthusiasm. President George E. Daines named F. Blakeslee, John Heth and George H. Mitchell a committee with executive powers to raise the needed cash and make arrangements for a successful reunion of these brave boys in blue. The committee will be done. Subscription paper will be passed around soon and you will be given a chance to help. If you live outside—want to help—hand your money to any one of the three mentioned and our word for it, it will be carefully used. More about this a little later on.

A day at Windate Park.—Taking the early morning train from here I dropped off at this delightfully sunny little retreat in a pretty grove, and the hills of Clarkston and Waterford. I was met at the train by Mrs. Shotwell, Edith and Miss Helen Cary, who are staying at William's cottage. Mrs. Shotwell's brother. It was an ideal day and all Birmingham know what ideal entertainers the Shotwells are, made the day one long to be remembered with pleasure. The first thing was a boat race around the lake with Miss Shotwell and Miss Helen Cary at the oars. These lakes are connected by a narrow channel or strait, too cute for anything, spanned by a little rustic bridge, pond hills and a great deal of beauty of the place. Then after a short rest and visit old Benny, and who does not remember Shotwell's black pennis, was hatched up and all went to Waterford for a very pleasant drive. We returned had a good old fashioned visit, when upon the sound of the dinner bell we adjourned to the hotel for dinner. In the afternoon, Mrs. William took all the ladies for a ride in his touring car stopping at Clarkston where Mrs. Greaves treated the crowd to ice cream, after a stop of 15 minutes or more, we arrived at the cottage, after a 16 mile ride and several stops we found we had been gone just one hour. The beautiful cottage and boat-house, formerly owned by Mr. Shotwell, is for rent, completely furnished, with five bedrooms and four sleeping rooms. Reasonable rates. Any Birmingham friends desiring a cottage by the lake side, I would highly recommend this beautiful beach and comfortable surroundings. One who was there, Mrs. J. E. Carter.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ANNIE SPAULDING.
The deceased, whose maiden name was Smallbone, the third born in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Smallbone, August 17, 1880, in Upper Roddington, England. When still a baby but two years of age she crossed the Atlantic with her parents, coming to Oakland county. Here she grew to young womanhood, attending the district school, and subsequently the high school at Birmingham.

June 24, 1903, she was united in marriage to Warren B. Spaulding. To this union there were born two sons—Samuel Albert, who is now 9 years of age and Warren, who is still a baby of 2 years. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, shortly after their marriage, moved to Mexico, staying but a short time; returning to Michigan, they remained two months before going to Washington, making their home at Anacostis, in that State, where they lived happily until Mrs. Spaulding's death on June 16, 1911.

Mrs. Spaulding, who was of such mild disposition and even temper, so thoughtful and considerate to all, was, as a girl, and afterward as a married woman, one who had many friends. But those who knew her best appreciated her most. She will be very greatly missed by all her acquaintances. But much more by those parents, who are to receive no more letters of love and cheer, written by a loving heart and willing hands, who could not forget father and mother and loved ones, though far away. Also by those brothers and sisters and by this husband and companion, but most of all by these little motherless children.

Bereaved friends, yours is a tremendous loss, and I am at a loss to know what to say that will bring you any comfort or cheer. More than this, she lived her life—short, brief, loving and tender. She did her work and did it well. Then she heard her Lord say: "It is enough; come up to Me to dwell in that house of many mansions in the skies."

Your loss, bereaved friends, is a happy and eternal gain. Out of a family of 10—father, mother, and eight children—Mrs. Spaulding's death is the first. That, and coupled with the fact, it came sudden and unexpected, makes it very hard to bear. But God's grace will be sufficient.

"Cast thy burden on the Lord, and He shall sustain thee."—Psa. 55-2.

Rev. Cross conducted the service, which was held in Birmingham cemetery.

Capt. M. O. Bigelow, of the Eighth U. S. Cavalry, is home a few days from Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He is enjoying his annual vacation and before his return will take a run down to New York city.

Dogs are running wild in our village unharmed, unharmed but not unseeing. In nearly all our sister villages, ordinances regulating the running of dogs at large during July and August are in force. We think we have one. Lets get it to work. Do it now.
