Minyon's Paw Paw Pills

Minyon's Paw Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They ease the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour, they do not grip, they do not weaken, but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and cures constipation.

MAY CLEAN UP OLD BUSINESS

Case of John Boyd, Whose Sentence Was Commuted From Twenty-five Years, Will Doubtless Be Taken Up.

Lansing.—The greatest number of applications for pardons and paroles will come before the state board of pardons, which began a session at Jackson, Tuesday, August 12, and will continue at that place until the 20th of the month. It is said the reason there are so many cases now is because of unfinished business in the past. The members of the old board, it is expected that, with the new board, all these old cases will be cleared up. It probably will result in the case of John Boyd, whose sentence was commuted from life to 25 years, will doubtless be taken up. Boyd has a patent on a baseball schedule, and could make a good start in life if given a chance before he breaks down in health. Boyd has been a trusty for ten years.

Relief Measures Being Ruched.

With food at their disposal and tents provided for their shelter, the thousands of more homeless survivors of the fire-wrecked villages of Cheboygan and Oscoda are more comfortable than at any time since the flames destroyed their homes. Late reports from other counties that fire zones are generally increasing.

The wind subsided almost entirely Wednesday and it would seem that a little rain, whether the smoke and the rain stretch through Otsego, Cheboygan and Presque Isle counties. The rain, however, is not probable, and the proposition to have an increase of every available man to check the progress of the flames. His reports indicate that small forest fires are burning in the north of the tier of counties bounded on the west by Mason and on the east by Arenac. In the western section of the state Antrim and Charlevoix counties report threatening fires, and every trespass agent and landowner employed by the state is being sent out to see to it that the men of fire wardens is proposed it is a case of saving at the spot and wasting at the bunkhouse. Michigan has a large fire department, and personal property every year by woods fires to support a fire warden system for many years equal to the best in the world.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE AND DAMAGE OCCURRED IN PORCUPINE MINING DISTRICT.

PROPERTY LOSS WILL RUN INTO MILLIONS.

Dead Bodies of Men and Animals Stray Streets in Dozens of Burned Mining Locations—Victims Caught While Working.

The loss of life in Porcupine district, northern Ontario, from forest fires is known to be several hundred and property loss to reach several millions of dollars. Only three of 84 employees of the West Dome mine have been accounted for and 200 miners, muckers, etc., in the Dome mine have been suffocated. The body, some time and some going away, in about six months the bolts quit, but my arms, neck and body broke out with an itching, burning rash, would burn and itch, and come out in pimples like grains of wheat. I was in a terrible condition; I could not sleep or rest. Parts of my flesh were scalded, and could scarcely bear my clothes on. I could not lie in bed in any position and rest. In about a year the sores extended down to my feet and I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and used exactly as directed. I used the Cuticura Remedies constantly for four months, and nothing else was perfectly cured. It is now a year, and I have not had the least bit since. I am ready to praise the Cuticura Remedies at all times. (Signed) E. L. Cate, Athol, Ky., Nov. 10, 1910.

While at the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 21, K. Boston.

IN AGONY WITH ITCHING

"About four years ago I broke out with sores on my arms like boils. After two months they were all over my body, some turning and some going away. "About four years ago I broke out with sores on my arms like boils. After two months they were all over my body, some turning and some going away. In about six months the bolts quit, but my arms, neck and body broke out with an itching, burning rash, would burn and itch, and come out in pimples like grains of wheat. I was in a terrible condition; I could not sleep or rest. Parts of my flesh were scalded, and could scarcely bear my clothes on. I could not lie in bed in any position and rest. In about a year the sores extended down to my feet and I purchased Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and used exactly as directed. I used the Cuticura Remedies constantly for four months, and nothing else was perfectly cured. It is now a year, and I have not had the least bit since. I am ready to praise the Cuticura Remedies at all times. (Signed) E. L. Cate, Athol, Ky., Nov. 10, 1910.

While at the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 21, K. Boston.

RUDE AWAKENING FOR ELIZA

Too Late She Discovered That Visitor Was Not the Object of Her Adoration.

The gentle Eliza was sitting drearily in the darkened room, waiting miserably for a visitor, whom she feared would never come. To tell the truth, Eliza said William had quarreled awfully the night before. But what is that? A ring, a step, a masculine voice. She waited not, but she knew he had not come. "Well, miss," said a strange voice, "I'm willin', I'm sure. But my instructions is if you don't 'm to cut out of the gate." Eliza was only then that Eliza found out she had mistaken a common gas-baron for her William—London Tit-Bits.

Harold Knorr the Signer.

Five-year-old Harold's older sister was in the habit of making a good many demands on him. Usually her requests for favors, usually the running of errands, and the like, were refused by what she considered subtle flattery.

"Now, Harold," she began one day, "you're a dear, sweet little boy, and you know I love you," but Harold cut her short.

"Well, Ethel," he said, earnestly, "if it's up to me, I won't go."—Lippincott's Magazine.
