STORIES RETOLD

Interesting Facts Pounded Out by A. Whitehead, on His Typewriter, of "Ye Olden Time."

Ziba Swan had been duly elected justice of the peace and the question as to his qualifications was under consideration by the judges of the supreme bench on the easterly side of the old academy.

"Why, I tell ye Ziba's all right; he'll make a bully justice when he gets agoin'" said the colonel. "Why, he married a couple right off the bat the day he was sworn in."

"When a feller sticks his stakes, I like to see him stand by 'em," said Uncle Jim. "Now there was Len Stora...

CIVIC LEAGUE

Will be Organized in Birmingham. Investigate Its Purpose and Then Aid All You Can

No--this is not a new baseball league, neither is it a political party as so many have supposed, but it is to be strictly non partizan and non sectarian.

Investigate our league, its purpose, send us your views of such movements pro or con, we need both, otherwise we may err, and the stake is too high to permit of one dissenting voice.

In the interim, we would thank our friends to send in their names for enrollment of membership in the Birmingham League.
