Latest From Our Sister Village

Mrs. W. E. Fitch visited at Fenton last Sunday with friends. M. J. Carley left Thursday for a month's visit in Benton Harbor.

Miss Netta D. Jacobs, of Detroit, is the choir director in the Methodist church.

Mrs. John Flint is very seriously ill at her home. Dr. St. John is attending to her.

Carl Hawley returned to his home in Boyne City last Saturday after spending the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt French of Richmond were the guests of their cousin Mrs. Lucy Mellen last week.

New is the time to use the Tribune to cover those precious plants from the icy breath of Jack Frost.

Mrs. H. Hitchcock returned last Thursday from a visit with Rev. George Elliott and family of Bay City.

Have you seen the harvest window of D. W. Barnard's grocery store? Its the prettiest autumn scene in many a store window.

The county fair and harvest home festival of the Methodist church will be held this Friday afternoon in the social rooms of the church.

Mrs. M. J. Carley left Wednesday for Portland, Ore., to attend a convention of the National W. C. T. U. Mrs. Carley is a Michigan delegate to the convention.

On the very last day of September Mrs. J. M. Lawson picked a lilac blossom from a bush. Verily, this is a strange year for even the dainty American beauties decided to try again and succeeded as far as a bud but Jack Frost had an idea too.

Fifty citizens attended a meeting of the Welfare club held in the school house last Thursday evening. Speeches were made by several citizens. Harry Smith discussed the waterworks question, Albert W. Wilson spoke of the school problem and Attorney George A. Dondro spoke on "civic and social conditions."

The county Sunday school convention will be held at the Methodist church on Oct. 23 and 24. The principal speaker will be Prof. F. S. Goodrich, of Albion college. Prof. C. H. Gurney of Hillsdale college, Eugene C. Foster of the Detroit Y. M. C. A., and Leslie C. Lawrence of Detroit and Dr. W. J. Wilson, Jr., of Detroit.

The first informal dancing part of the Masonic lodge was held in the Masonic temple last Friday evening. Twenty-five couples enjoyed one of the most splendid parties ever given by the chapter. The hall was most artistically decorated, the platform being converted in a very bower by two porch boxes belonging to Mr. and Mrs. George Mathewson. The decorating committee received unbounded praise for their taste in arranging the tables. The sunnesh used brought words of praise from everyone. D. W. Barnard, groceryman, donated the groceries for the supper.

Kenneth Keith, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keith, was instantly killed last Friday by the Chicago flyer of the Grand Trunk. The accident took place two and one half miles north of Royal Oak directly in front of the Keith home. The little boy, the only child, escaped from his mother's notice for only a moment and wandered upon the track just as the flyer, two hours late, came along. The agonized mother heard the train rushing past and rushed out of the house only to pick up the lifeless form of her loved one. Part of the child's head was cut off and nearly every bone in his body broken. The body was taken to Daines & Bell, undertakers in Birmingham, and the funeral was held Sunday. The father is a metal polisher employed at the Whitehead & Kales Iron Works in Detroit.

Garrick Theatre.

The next attraction at the Garrick Theatre, the engagement which is for one week beginning next Monday night, will be an elaborate production of a new American farce entitled "C. O. D.," by Frederic Chapin.

"C. O. D." will have a cast of more than twenty comedians and among the leading players will be Charles A. Murray, Sam Edwards, Charles Brown, Percy Plunket, John T. Baker, Charles Walton, Antonio M. Moreno, Vernon H. Macdonald, George Betts, Ffolitt Paget, Clare Krall, Adelya Wesley, Isabelle Vernon, Eysa Condon, Grace Morrison and Miss Howard.

The plot of "C. O. D." concerns primarily three husbands who pore as widowers, their three wives who pass themselves off as widows, three young New York avails and the three daughters of a farmer whose farm is in the Catskills, where all the scenes are laid. The play is in four acts. All kinds of fun is extracted from the circumstance of mistaken identity, all of the action of the play transpiring within a period of twenty-four hours. The title refers to the three husbands, each of whom has the same initial.

Husbands and wives meet with difficulties, particularly the husbands fear to have their wives discover them. The efforts of the husbands to avoid their wives lead to various complications and the husbands find themselves in many precarious positions.

Mrs. Loren Benson, of El Paso, Texas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Purdy, on Pierce street.

A Butcher Who Sells a Lot of Meat Can Sell it for a Smaller per lb. Profit

That profit-sharing idea ours is based on VOLUME OF BUSINESS, or it would be mere talk. If we sell two pounds of meat instead of one, we can thrive on a smaller per pound profit.

We want the patronage of all those who would appreciate being able to save something from usual prices on every meat purchase.

Our Vegetables and Fruits are strictly fresh.

Our Butter and Eggs ditto.

Our prices right—our stock large.

We solicit a share of your patronage.
