BIRMINGHAM SCHOOL NOTES.

The pupils of the fifth grade were asked to write a poem on Hallowe'en, Many really clever little verses were written by the children. Here are some of the good ones.

Hurrah for Jacko'Lantern,
On every street in town.
The witches in the corners,
Upon us all do frown.

ELSIE.

Tis the last night of October,
When strange sights are heard,
Ghosts, witches, Jacko'Lanterns
And bats that look like birds.

MELBOUNE.

A Jacko'Lantern stood on a post one day
And a little boy happened to pass that way,
He looked and looked, "I wonder," said he,
"What that silly thing was, that stared at me!"

HELEN.

The first literary meeting of the year was held on Thursday, Nov. 14. A miscellaneous program was presented. On Nov. 27, the eighth grade will have the Thanksgiving as its theme. The students are already working on this program which promises to be very interesting. Every student should be interested on the history of his own town, its origin, and reason of its growth.

The third grade has been studying the history of Birmingham for the past two weeks, and are now writing it out in little note books, so that when they have finished they will have the entire story of the town. They are more interested in this than in anything else, they are doing at present. The third grade have a record to be proud of. In the recent examinations every pupil in the room passed in every subject. A new precedent for the school.

The ten weeks examinations just finished bring to a close the first quarter of the years work. Reports will be out on Thursday of this week.

On Friday four of the teachers will take their annual visiting day and visit other schools. Miss Kinney and Miss Bennett will visit the Detroit schools, while Miss Hanna and Miss Chubb will visit the State Normal Training school at Ypsilanti.

A GAME OF FOOTBALL.

PEG & PORCUPIES

Mrs. Bessie Donovan, of Birmingham and Friends Enjoying Life and Bagging Lots of Game.

Drimoleague Lodge,
Near Red Oak, Oscoda Co. Mich.
Nov. 6th, 1912.

Dear Daddy:—The weather is fine, the shooting ditto. But, Oh Dear, we have our troubles, King the pup is a good one for a young dog, but he will not learn to let porcupines alone, as about every three days he comes in with his nose looking like a spiked cactus, then we do have a time, we get his head fast between our knees, then Peggie takes the pinchers and if you were in the next room, you would think some one was killing five dogs. Peg had her first look at a wild bear, and she used her lungs to good advantage in calling Rey, "Come and shoot him, Come and shoot him," but Rey only had bird shot and the bear left for the other side of the river.

We were sorry you and mamma did not come as we wired, for we had seven partridges all roasted nicely, and Mrs. Parmalee sent over two great pumpkin pies, and about two gallons of buttermilk. George and Rey have splendid luck, Leo shot one bear so we have a variety of provisions. Too bad you did not come.

We will be home soon as the law ends our shooting season Nov. 30th, good bye with love from all,

BESSIE B. DONOVAN.

P. S. I forgot to ask you papa, can you take care of three dogs for us this winter, they are all nice bird dogs.

EDITORS NOTE—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hodges are with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan at their shooting lodge in Oscoda county and Peg is Mrs. Hodges.

FAMOUS BALL PLAYER PASSES AWAY.

The funeral and burial of John M. Rainey, formerly of Birmingham takes place today. He died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Bigsby, 100 Twenty-first street, Detroit, and is buried under Masonic ceremonies this Friday afternoon in Greenwood cemetery.

John M. Rainey, in the early '80s, was first baseman of the New York National league, and later with Rochester, N. Y., in the old days of the International league. He was one of the famous ball tossers of the country, serving with merit in the major leagues of those days. Upon his retirement he entered the employment of Swift Bros meat packers in Chicago, and remained with them to the time of his death.

Rainey started his baseball career with the Hungry Nine of Birmingham, Mich., where he was born, later graduating to the famous old Cass team that won country-wide prestige through the United States and Canada. As a member of the Birmingham aggregation he was a battery partner of Rasty Wright, another Birmingham product, who acted as his catcher.

Mr. Rainey was 54 years of age and a bachelor.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, North Carolina, once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes. "My stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach liver or kidney trouble. Price 50c at C. J. Shain's or J. W. Cobb's.—Adv.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health.

Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regard the effects of constipation. C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt., says:

"I was afflicted with constipation and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

Is There Corn in Your Egypt?

"And when there was famine in Canaan, Jacob sent his sons down into Egypt for corn."

Possibly the quotation isn't literal, but it expresses a pregnant fact in the experience of all of us, and it thrusts upon your attention, and mine, the question; Is there Corn in our Egypt? Have we made or are we making Provision against the time of famine?

What excuse can we make in the recurring times of famine if there is no Corn in Egypt? Did you ever think of this seriously? Ever discuss it seriously with those of our families to whom we have sacred obligations—the empty Corn bins of our Egypt?

What about the famine of sickness, of opportunity, of the certain decrease in our earning power? Any Corn in your Egypt? Any provision in some strong Bank—perhaps the NOTE—This table was compiled during the night of election and the day following. One representative of the Press Gazette put nearly 20 hours of almost continuous labor upon it. In several instances the report is not correct but it is substantially so and as correct as a report compiled under circumstances of great stress could be. The majorities of each candidate will not vary much from what is shown in this table.
