Only the uncertainty of a few close states whose electoral vote in no way can affect the election of Wilson and Marshall; speculation over the popular vote of the three presidential candidates, and the completion of legislative returns from the states. States senators held interest Wednesday night in the final returns of Tuesday's general election.

The total of the Republican column apparently was fixed at the 21 votes of Idaho, Utah and Vermont, but the footing of the Wilson and Roosevelt columns flickered all day in the list of states. Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming gave indications of change from the receipts accepted last night.

On the basis of the latest returns the Democrats claim to have carried 171 electoral votes, the Republicans 114, and the doubtful states 15. On account of the tremendously heavy vote cast, the great number of offices voted upon and the fact that there were three parties in the field, result in much splitting of votes, the county was very slow.

Lindquist is a winner in the eleventh, but in the twelfth there is the Beecher's pulled through by another tough battle.

The early returns are as a rule only on the president and governor, though fragmentary returns on the suffrage amendment indicate that the vote on that proposition is very evenly divided.

The returns on congressmen are very scattering. For congressmen at large, Woodbridge N. Ferris, Rep., has defeated the Democratic incumbent, but in the second district Beakes, Dem., leads Wedemeyer, the present Rep.

In the third the election of Carney, Dem., over J. M. C. Smith is indicated. In the fifth Edwin F. Sweet, present Democratic congressman, is being given a hard race by Carl E. Mapes, Republican.

There is a possibility that Sam W. Smith, Rep., has been defeated in the sixth by Alva M. Cummins, Democrat, and in the seventh Cramton, Bell and Sherman are all closely bunched.

In the eighth, as was anticipated, Chanter, the Progressive, pulled off a narrow victory over Farney, Democrat, to make the snowing expected of him in the ninth, and McLaughlin has probably won.

Too few returns are in from the tenth, the biggest district in the state, to venture a prediction as to whether Lead has been re-elected, or defeated by Roy Woodruff, his Progressive opponent.

Woodruff is a winner in the eleventh, but in the twelfth there is the Stout's victory, probably, over Young, Democrat, and in the thirteenth, the Bull Moose candidate.

The upper peninsula. The vote cast in the state was the heaviest ever known, practically the entire registration going to the polls to vote.

There is only one thing wrong with Indian summer. That is its brevity.

Mount Wrangel is in an eruption. Wonder if it's a political disturbance.

Aeroplane rides can now be had for $1 apiece, amble charges not included.

It is announced that sneezing spreads the measles. A measles-sort of stunt, isn't it?

Six girls constitute a "crowd," according to the Harvard library rules, or three companies, to be exact.

Before long, say scientists, we'll be making eggs from fat. Hope the air won't have to be foul, though.

The death of a "living skeleton" is reported by a foreign paper, no doubt due to one of the ills that flesh is heir to.

A Chicagoan was crushed to death under a radiator by falling against the coming winter. Another heat victim.

An Englishman has been imprisoned because he couldn't pay his wife's debts. Bet it isn't a title married to an American girl.

The New York board of health wants to probe beef stew. What has the New York board of health lost that it expects to find?

Now comes word from manufacturers that women are wearing larger stockings. Probably due to the fact that Christmas is coming.

Perhaps aviation is advanced by the sacrifice of men, but what is aided by the broken knee caps and cracked skulls of football players?

An inventor has manufactured an umbrella that will not turn inside out. If he could make it tightproof, he might accomplish something.

English military authorities have discontinued the use of the aeroplane. England has a big standing army, but it couldn't stand the depletion.

This washing of old bills is all right. But what is a man going to live on when he's sent his week's salary to the government hauler?

Bavaria has passed a law that a man may not kiss his wife on a railroad train. Only the women and children are allowed to kiss in Bavaria.

An Indian woman has invented a muffer which, she claims, will render crying babies inaudible. Ought to be tried on some autos and motorcycles.

Commercial Goes Democratic. The vote of the state shows the choice of electors who will cast the seven votes of the state for Woodrow Wilson, that decision being made by a plurality of 10,000.

Indiana Overwhelmingly Democratic. Indiana apparently went overwhelmingly Democratic. Governor Woodrow Wilson, on the basis of the returns from 810 out of the 3,172 precincts, had almost as many votes as Taft and Roosevelt combined.

Massachusetts Turns Democratic. Indications with half of the state tabulated, were that Massachusetts had favored a Democratic candidate for president for the first time in its history.

Wilson Leads in Nevada. Early precinct returns from scattering counties throughout the state give Wilson a substantial lead over Taft and Roosevelt.

Minnesota Favors Wilson. It looked at 11:30 p. m. as if Wilson had won in Minnesota.

Mississippi's Majority 105,000. The Democratic majority in Mississippi is estimated at 105,000. Indications are that Roosevelt's electoral vote in the state and one half of the New York city vote of Taft 211,000. Democratic congressional nominees are elected by large majorities.

Wilson Safe in Nebraska. Returns received up to 10:30 from Omaha and Lincoln and scattering precincts over the state showed a clear plurality for Gov. Wilson.

Florida Democratic Again. Although the vote is light and slow in reporting, indications are that Woodrow Wilson will carry Florida by the usual Democratic majority. Probabilities are that every Democratic candidate has been elected.

Texas for Wilson by 170,000. Returns indicate that Wilson has carried Texas by 170,000. The vote for Taft and Roosevelt is nearly evenly divided.

Taft Likely to Get Utah. Scattering returns from 300 of the 550 election districts in Utah indicate that Wilson has carried the state by a safe plurality and that Governor Wilson will be re-elected.

Taft Good Second in New York. Returns from 2,340 precincts out of 2,600 in New York state, outside of New York city, give Taft 211,000. Wilson 285,482; Roosevelt, 198,987.

Taft Wins Vermont by 924. President Taft carried Vermont by 924 votes. Complete returns show the following results: Taft, 23,247; Roosevelt, 2,232; Wilson, 15,397.

Berger, Socialist, is Defeated. Although the vote is light and slow in reporting, indications are that Woodrow Wilson will carry Vermont by the usual Democratic majority. Probabilities are that every Democratic candidate has been elected.

South Dakota in Doubt. Slow returns from scattered precincts of South Dakota leave the result in doubt. Wilson has a lead of 176 out of 1,663 precincts give Wilson 8,882; Roosevelt 8,214.

New Hampshire in Doubt. It is still too early to say whether Wilson or Taft will win in New Hampshire. President Taft has a lead of 100 over Wilson at that hour.

Wilson Ahead in Pennsylvania. 1,987 election districts out of 6,593 in Pennsylvania gave Taft 24,245; Wilson 114,493; Roosevelt 116,885.

South Carolina Easily Wilson. Indications are that Wilson has carried South Carolina by a majority of 5,000. Returns indicate all Democratic and congressional nominees are elected by two majorities.

Managers of two Cadillac routes have stated that they will go out of business in a few days, as there is no money in selling milk at 7 cents a quart. Other managers say they will charge 10 cents a quart as soon as the other man quits.
