Watch out for Edwin & Smith's show window, for Charlie Nellert promises something that will make us all sit up and take notice. Fair warning! Watch out.

The Richardson Blacksmith shop on Martin street is now open for business. Experienced horse shod, now ready to do first class business. Geo. Lauer, Proprietor. Dec. 27.

John Walker on the 104 mile road, 2 miles east of Royal Oak, on Tuesday Dec. 10, will have an auction sale of Horses, a cow, harness etc, will be sold. M. H. Blunt, Auctioneer.

Notice to all Eastern Stars. Any one desiring to pay their dues can do so by calling Mrs. Clara Baker at the Nixon's store. She is there all the time and will be pleased to give you a receipt.

Advice to my neighbors. If my chickens stray into your yard, you are authorized with my full consent to kill them, as we all know there is a village ordinance forbidding these neighborhood nuisances and garden destroyers, from running at large.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brooks start for California this week for the winter. They will land at Los Angeles first and then will decide what to do and where to go. Our best wishes go with them for a pleasant happy winter and a safe return when the robins nest again.

A night of quiet Friday evening Dec. 15 at the First Baptist church the Studio Quartette, assisted by Mrs. Wyniek Shafer, reader, will give a fine concert. When the ticket seller calls on you buy one for each member of the family. You won't be disappointed.

Birmingham has long needed a book store carrying the popular 50 cent line of interesting fiction. Charles J. Shain has made good along these lines. If you are looking for a book for Christmas do not go out into the streets. Here is the full line. All the latest and most interesting ones. Call on C. J. Shain.

Winters warning. Examine your stove pipes, your furnaces and frost pipes, protect all these from frost and freezing, see that hydrants can be used if necessary, do not let snow and ice bank up around the stoves, do not empty ashes into wood receptacles, unless you are absolutely sure that there is no fire, a match is a small thing, yet it can start a mighty big fire.

Books by popular authors at Shain's only 25 cents. Look up M. J. Chapman's auction sale advertisement in this issue. Miss Viola Hanna of Normal College was at home during Thanksgiving holiday. The 'minute congress,' that is, the sixty-second, started its first session on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Price, and daughter of Mariette visited at Robert Hanna's last Saturday. Wm. Boughner has gone to California to join his brother John and to accept a very fine position.

R. J. St. Clair in Southfield has an auction sale, on Monday, Dec. next. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer.

Fred Haack has moved into his new and handsome new home on Pierce st. and is now all ready for winter.

The Union Bible class will be called off for next Sunday afternoon on account of the opening services in the Baptist church.

Daniel McGaffey and wife of Pontiac spent Thanksgiving with their mother, Mrs. Samuel Bell on the old farm. Roast pig! You bet, all o. k.

Lost - On Martin street between the school house and Pierce street, a paper written on the subject of Alaska. Finder please leave at this office.

FOR RENT - Eight and a half acres with house and barn, 1 mile west of Clawson, known as the Michael Kolka farm. Apply to 288 Grand avenue, Detroit.

Miss Etha Shattuck has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., to attend Art school. She will be home with her grandparents Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Shattuck, formerly of Detroit.

Dr. F. W. Young has been offered a fancy big refuse for his Evangelical gymnasium. Refused. LaVerne Blumberg is on the verge of selling out his farm. So goes the world.

The Hupp sisters will conduct a Union Gospel Temperance service in U. P. Church next Sunday evening, consisting of music and songs with addresses. A silver collection will be taken.

There is to be a New England dinner served at the M. E. Church at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon of this week. There will be a great variety of good things offered with a social time. A free will offering will be taken for the dinner.

The Home Missionary society will entertain the Foreign society for the week commencing at 2 o'clock sharp at the home of Mrs. Agnew. Mrs. Robb will speak of her life and work in China. Supper will be served, all are cordially invited.

FOR SALE VERY CHEAP - Fine oak bedroom suit, large fine dresser, commode and bed, with first class hair mattress, and all steel springs. Also have hanging hall rack with mirror. M. W. Beale, 428 Martin street, Birmingham, phone 239.

Seeing the notice in your paper of some one losing their pocketbook, caused me to wonder if all folks were so honest as George Shattuck who found $54.00 on check for $35.00, and read the name on check and returned it at once. Owner seemed to think that any one would have done the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heathcote of South Gate, quietly slipped away for I winter. They are now snugly settled in Los Angeles, Cal. and wish their many friends here as pleasant a winter here as they are having there.

Our former townsman Mr. Samuel Alexander, who in town Monday, Dec. came to get from Mr. Corryell a wonderful plant that he is to exhibit at Cleveland where he is to speak upon 'The American Institute of Science.' He has recognition from the Carnegie Institute and the Chicago University, as well as our own U. of M. He is a man of whose high standing we are justly proud.
