ROYAL OAK SCHOOL NOTES.

MILTON BARNES SCHOOL, EDITOR

Donald Parmenter has returned to school after recovering from a slight attack of appendicitis.

We were pleased to have Mrs. Hughes spend the forenoon with us a short time ago.

The football game with the Pontiac first team on Nov. 21, resulted in a victory for the Pontiac team with a score of 20 to 0. The Pontiac team was larger than our boys, and used to advantage what they styled a "false kick". At periods the game seemed to run entirely in Royal Oak's favor, then became a series of free feet of the best level changed.

The senior class has organized with Miss Vera Mars as president, and Harold Chamberlin as secretary, and treasurer.

Loss of sleep in the earlier hours caused a deficiency in the number attending some of the classes last week Monday morning.

Miss Lillian Phillips was a recent visitor at the High School.

Several of the lower grades were photographed by a camera man from Detroit recently.

The Misses Xenia Pure L. C. Cafe, and Laura and Esther Thomas visited the school Wednesday afternoon.

The smiles of Harold Storz were missing from the tenth grade classes on Monday. It is declared that he has been visiting friends at Armida.

The fourth annual Thanksgiving Festival of the Seniors was held on Wednesday evening of last week. The main entertainment passed off well with four or five minor attraction as supplements.

The pupils of Miss Mageehan are studying cases, and for instruction in computation, they have been loaned a rate book by Wm. H. Penny, the local assessor.

Digby Duncan, late of the Detroit schools, has entered the sixth grade of which Miss Frank is the teacher. Eva Quandt has been promoted to the third grade from the fifth grade, and Carol Watkins has entered it after an absence of eight weeks.
