It is a courtesy to your guests to see that their names appear in the local newspaper. It is due to your friends and yourstif that when visiting, their names should appear in the paper. Someone in the family should inform the paper of sickness in the home. Remember that the newspaper is made by human hands and brains, and if the item concerning yourself or your friends does not appear, it is largely your own fault.

Mary had a little lamb—'twas Persian—on her coat; she also had a mink or two about her dainty throat; a bird of paradise, a tern, and ermine made the hat that perched at jaunty angle on her coiffure largely rat. Her tiny boots were sable topped, her gloves were muskrat, and her muff had heads and tails of half the "critters in the zoo;" And when she walked abroad, I ween, she feared no wintry wind; At keeping warm 'twas plain to see, she had all nature 'skinned."

Four or five of our young men locked themselves in the D. U. R. waiting-room Saturday night last about midnight and were some noisy. Marshal Reid was notified and on orders from headquarters burst in the heavy front door,—and ordered and secured silence. No arrests were made owing to—well, the feelings of the boy's parents was too main reason. (Same here.) A narrow escape for the boys for before storming the D. U. R. he had prepared his 4 cages for company. Narrow escape.

"Rally 'round the flag, boys, we'll orally once again; shouting the battle cry of Freedom!" Just which side will be claiming title to their battle hymn depends upon the way you look at the qussion of saloon or no saloon in old Oakland County, but sung it certainly will be soon with vim and vigor, for local option is to be submitted to the voters in our County at the coming spring election. At the recent Prohi. meeting held at the Baptist church, a prominent speaker gave as his opinion that Oakland Co. would remain "wet" and we guess he is a good guesser.

James Schermerhorn, editor of the Detroit Daily Times, has earned and owns the name of having the cleanest paper published in Detroit. Fit for the home! His editorials are sharp, to the point, and it is his pride to refuse all objectionable advertisements, so that his newspaper sheet enters many a home that bars other city papers. Recently Mr. Schermerhorn offered three cash prizes in gold, amounting to $175 for the best editorial written on the subject, "Remain in Michigan." Editor Nisbett, Gov. Osborn and Pres. McRae of the Detroit Boosters, were the judges. Read these editorials in another pace. They are worth a careful and thoughtful reading. Look for the prize editorials. Read them. Harry Heiman, of the Pontiac Press, won the money, but in our opinion, he should have been awarded better.

A LIBERAL OFFER

We Guarantee to Relieve Dyspepsia—If We Fail the Medicine Costs You Nothing.

To unquestionably ptove to the people that indigestion and and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of bismuth-subnitrate and pepsin have been combined with carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth-subnitrate and pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is carefully prepared so as to develop its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid. Without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.

The carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain of this that we urge you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Taree sizes—25c, 50c, and $1. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—the Rexall Store.

PONTIAC

Is Your Horse Lame?

Does he interfere, stumble or forge?
Is he troubled with what is commonly called rheumatism or stiffness?
These faults can be very much improved by good shoeing.
