INCREASE IN NUMBER OF AMERICANS GOING TO CANADA

Although Western Canada suffered, as did many other portions of the west, from untoward conditions, which turned one of the most promising crops ever seen in that country, into but little more than an average yield of all grains, there is left in the farmers' hands a big margin of profit.

Of course there were many farmers who were fortunate enough to harvest and market a big yield, and with the prices that have been secured, to secure some returns.

There is a great influx of settlers to occupy the vacant lands throughout Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Those who have not had the latest literature sent out by the Government should send to the one nearest, and secure a copy.

Saving a Desperate Man.

"Who told you that engaged to marry?" "You assure that you would never, never have anything to do with such a man."

"That old stall about rushing out and committing suicide?" "No, worse than that."

"No, no, I've heard that before. Doctor has threatened that if I did not accept him I would be killed."

Evil of idleness.

Work develops all the good there is in a man; idleness all the evil. Work sharpens the faculties and makes him trim; idleness makes him stout and a spendthrift.

All the Same.

A young fire recently went into a grocery store and destroyed the grocer's stock. "I bought three or four barrels here a month or so ago and they were fire; have you any more of them?"
