THE PONTIAC ECCENTRIC.

THIRTY-FOURTH YEAR. NO. 48.

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1912

WHOLE NUMBER, 1761

VOTERS' TENTION. LOCAL OPTION—NO

To-morrow Evening at Johnson-Shaw Hall, Speeches by the Hon. Baker and Lynch.

The question of a Licensed saloon living up to the law, vs. Prohibition, will be sanely discussed, Saturday evening at the Johnson-Shaw hall, in Birmingham, by two eminent speakers, namely, Hon. Fred A. Baker, of Detroit, who is thoroughly posted on this vexed question, and Hon. James H. Lynch, who is not one whit behind Mr. Baker. Both orators are Oakland County men, and both of them of good, sound judgment, whom it will be a pleasure to hear talk on this great question of Local Option.

These speakers take the stand that is more to the good of the citizens of old Michigan in general, and Oakland County in particular, to have a license law, governed by strict laws lived up to, than to try and have a "Dry" County. Meeting will opened at 7:30 o'clock and it is hoped a goodly number will be present. Ladies are cordially invited. Music by Stone's orchestra. Vocal selections will be rendered by renowned singers.

By ORDER OF COMM.

Neople Attacks of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by William Green, Maicheite, Colorado. "They said I would die of consumption. It was up to me then to try the best medicines, and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and have given my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." It is fully proved that coughs, colds, or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safe. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at C. J. Shain's.

Garrick Theatre.

Jules Loyal's French Grand Opera Co. of New Orleans.

Beginning Monday April 1st, at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, the Jules Loyal Grand Opera Company, from the French Opera House, New Orleans, will begin a limited engagement of 8 performances, producing some of the best known masterpieces of the Lyric stage.

This organization is unquestionably the pioneer operatic institution of America, having produced Grand Operas in the Southern metropolis for nearly a century and the greatest stars of the musical world have appeared on the stage during their career. New Orleans audiences demand talent instead of reputation, and the efficiency of this company is guaranteed by a very successful termination of a 4 months opera season in the old Lyric temple of the South, breaking all records of attendance and winning unlimited praise from the press and the public.

A special train of 12 cars is necessary for the movements of this enterprise.

Repertoire for the week is as follows: Monday, "La Boheme"; Tuesday, "La Favorite"; Wednesday matinee, "Faust"; complete with the world's best of the Wilburg Night; Wednesday night, Japanese-American opera, "Mrs. Butterfly"; Thursday, "Nanon"; Friday, the sensational "Thais"; Saturday matinee, "Lakme"; Saturday evening, "La Tosca."

Sale of seats began at the Garrick, Thursday, March 28th.

Four complete Grand Opera Quartets of singers will be heard in these operas, and this engagement will be the social and musical event of the Detroit theatrical season.

TUBERCULOSIS.

A decidedly interesting booklet, explaining all about this new discovery may be secured without cost, by addressing Chas. A. Barnes, Dispenser, 325 Chamber of Commerce, Detroit, Mich.
