SPRING 'LECTIONS

The "Big Four" Townships of Bloomfield, Royal Oak, Southfield and Sure Enough Troy.

Last Saturday was a busy day in the Big Four townships named above. The nominations for all township offices were made and preparations for settling the "Wet" or "Dry" question were inaugurated.

At the Town Hall in Birmingham, Saturday last, at 2 p. m. about 75 of the good and faithful republicans, met like one big loving family, and named township officers for the coming year, —with only one in doubt that of treasurer. When the nomination for treasurer come to a finish it showed that C. H. Carter had won out over Alfred Johnston by only 5 majority. The balance of the ticket was named without friction,—much.
