Blue Cross!!

Watch the above space!
A ruling of the P. O. D. (Post Office department), says we cannot now continue The Eccentric, as it is in arrears one year or more.
If a blue X appears in this space in our first issue in April then your subscription has expired, and we have a big round X coming. We can use it. Please read carefully!
The label on your paper or wrapper will show the date of expiration. If the time named has passed, please do your part promptly, and say: "if the date is very near one year past, and possibly more do for the love of Mike be reasonable and run! RUN! RUN!"

Lost, strayed or stolen. Ice togs worth 30 feet of rope attached. Please return to Smith Bros.

There will be no Easter exercises at the M. E. church next Sunday evening on account of the death of Mrs. G. H. Whitney.

Miss Mattie Waters, of Detroit, after spending three months in the south has returned. She visited her sister Mrs. Patten last week.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church will hold its monthly business meeting last supper at the church Thursday, April 11. All are welcome.

FOR SALE—A thoroughbred male fox terrier, 15 months old, kind and gentle, a children's pet. Apply to Wm. Parkinson, Woodward and Maple Aves., Birmingham.

FOR SALE—S. C. White Leghorn eggs for hatching at reasonable prices, by the setting or hundred. C. J. Burkman, Birmingham. Phone 219 ap

On Friday evening of last week the entertainment committee of the Prude of Oakland Rebekah lodge No. 415, gave a very nice entertainment which was largely attended.

On Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will hold their Easter exercises. The choir will render the musical cantata "A Morning in the Orient."

Mr. Earle L. G. Barr, who has been connected with the cost and accounting departments of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co., for the last three years, has resigned in order to accept a position as junior auditor on the staff of the Security Trust Co., of Detroit.

The Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the Mansie Thursday, April 4, at 3 o'clock. Miss Nindie, secretary, will address the meeting. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance. Please remember the change in the day.

Birmingham temple No. 94, Pythian Sisters will hold their regular meeting at Pythian Castle Monday evening, Apr. 5, at 7:30 sharp. All members of the degree staff are positively requested to be present in order to practice their parts in the drill. A good attendance is desired. H. W. M. of R. 6. C.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Address, Postoffice box 94, or phone 312.

FOR SALE—Good sound bay mare, five years old. Herman Hopp, Royal Oak, phone 114 2r.

Florence, infant daughter, one year old, of Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Townsend, died Monday morning of this week.

Fred Lambert sold $400 worth of hay at $25 per ton. Fred says it beats the milk business all to smotherens.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter McBride of Portland, are the guests of their parents, and were in attendance at the Porter-Andrew wedding.

Large and handsome improvements are now being made at Brae Burn, the country home of Mr. W. J. Chittenden, of Bloomfield Hills.

Why pay a fancy price when you can get a setting of pure bred barred rock eggs at 30c per dozen. See our write—H. B. Winegar, Pierce St., Birmingham.

Pride of Oakland Rebekah lodge No. 445 meets on the first and third Wednesday evening of each month. Visitors members welcome. Lillian McQuatters, N. G. D. B. Wilkinson, secretary.

Died, suddenly at his home in Louisville, Ky., of cerebro-spinal meningitis, Stanhope Woodcock, age 16. He was a brother of Mrs. Raynald Whitehead, and an exceptionally bright young man.

A magazine rack has been located at the Library. A fine one is now in place, Mr. Will C. Jenks was the builder. No need to go to the Library Bureau when you can get such work at home.

The Twentieth Century club of Detroit gives a series of Sunday afternoon entertainments for persons who are employed during the week. Why can't some of our clubs give us a series of Sunday evening meetings on popular subjects during the coming summer?

That matrimonial agency of Wooster Kemp-Tewilliger Co. has gone out, business. Their first attempt to do Cupid's work failed miserably. George H. Hains would faint, and say: "I don't believe at all either of you are giving their first sample out. They'll dodge George now," specially Gary.

Our good natured friend, brother and amusing shoe-maker, Bayley, has a very neat sign which will spread to the gentle zephyrs as soon as the paint is dry. It reads: "Blow away my heavenly breezes! Blow amongst the leaves and trees; Sigh away ye heavenly muses, whilst Bayley mends your boots and shoes."

It has been many years since Charles Gleve left Michigan for Kansas. He has always prospered there and yesterday he sent $3 to the Eccentric, saying: "I am nearly a year in arrears on that subscription, and am awfully afraid of that Blue Cross so I'll pay up one year behind and two years ahead." That is the Kansas style and it is "sehtr gut."

Next fall election we will have a chance to give the women a right to vote. Think it over carefully you ladies and if you want to vote so instruct your father, brother, sons, uncles, lovers and all others. We feel the Women's clubs of both Birmingham and Royal Oak should engage the most brilliant Suffrage speakers to strengthen the already strong conviction which strange as it may seem exists among the men.

The funeral of Mrs. G. H. Whitney, age 55, wife of Rev. G. H. Whitney, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., Rev. W. G. Nixon, pastor of the First M. E. church of Pontiac, had charge of the services, assisted by Rev. Butler, of Lapeer. The Detroit Union of Methodist ministers was represented by ten pastors in attendance. Mrs. Whitney has been an invalid for some time, and beside her husband leaves three children.

Married at the home of the bride's parents in this village, Wednesday, April 12, Miss Katherine H. Evers and Charles J. Shan, by Rev. W. H. Jamieson. This wedding comes as a complete surprise to the entire village, as the bride is a young woman who has certain relations in the whole community. The wedding was a quiet little "homey" affair, and we certainly wish this happy and popular young couple all kinds of happiness and a long prosperous life.

This is the time of year when each person and each society should plan to do something for Village Improvement. There are 12 organizations in our village outside of the church societies, and many more are counting these. Now surely all these are interested in the beauty of the home town. If each one of these will do something, carry on some work in which they are interested, put out a tree, a flower bed, adorning fountain, anything, or if you prefer, pay something to the Village Improvement Society to enable them to do, then they may be about—Birmingham—The Prude of Oakland.

New firm in town. New architects and engineers, Messrs. Payne and Murchie office in Ford Block, Business surveying and general engineering. House plans a specialty. We guarantee prompt and satisfactory work. We believe in this growing town, and there is need of, and a growing demand for such a firm. We also believe in the people of this town, and that they will patronize us if they can be assured of satisfaction. Come and see what we can do for you, and we will show you what we have done. You want house plans and specifications in a hurry? See us. All business done with promptness and dispatch by Payne and Murchie.

FOR SALE—One 2500 pound matched team. Warranted sound. Phone Lapeer 64.

Monday was a rainy, wet, cold and disagreeable day and wet from start to finish.

Donald Plimsted told us he took 110 Saturday Evening Posts last week. When asked what he did with all the money, he replied, "Oh, I laid it down in barrels and sent it in the bank."

The regular annual meeting of the Birmingham Cemetery Association will be held at the home of Mrs. Mortimer Smith on Saturday April 24 at 2 p. m. A full attendance is asked. M. Baldwin, Secretary.

Miss Grace Heck told us a "heeder" found a flight of stairs at John O'Connell's home one dry last week, and we are glad to say that the good lady was not seriously hurt, but she did frighten John Grimshaw, working at Brick Bank for W. T. Barbour, was badly gored by a bull he was leading. Men at the barn heard his cries for help and rescued him. It was his wife and baby who were burned to death on the Clifton farm a few years ago. Mr. Clowson seems to be on his track as he has a child now seriously ill at his home in Bloomfield Hills.

Glenn Edwards, a scamp barber, hid out in Bayley's room last Friday, worked Saturday, Sunday, he borrowed Berne's key to the shop to go and change his shirt. He did. He has not been seen since, neither has any of Berne's tools, such as, razors, shears, hair, shaving and cloth brushes, combs, clippers, combs and so forth, and all other loose things. Berne thinks the chap would have carried off his chairs and outside sign only that they were bolted down. No trace of the tonsorial artist as yet.

A cheerful letter from Mrs. Eva Means Limer of Naosho, Mo. with a few interesting lines telling of the biggest storm Missouri ever had. It came late in the winter, and a safe enough storm. This strange storm began one Tuesday morning accompanied by heavy thunder lasting all day. She further says: "The weather the past winter has been the topic of the times. Several big snow storms, one of which 8 inches deep, and that too, at a time when last year our oats were up. All kinds of feed and hay very high, crops nearly a failure and dull times." Still for all this the same from Ozark.

The services at St. James' church on Easter Day will be as follows: 6 a. m. Holy Communion; 10:45 Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon. At four in the afternoon the children of the Sunday school will have their Easter service. The music at these services will be especially attractive and helpful. Morning Prayer at 9 o'clock and Ante-Communion and the T. R. school services from twelve to three on Good-Friday. The Vestry of St. James has sent out an earnest appeal for a generous Easter offering which is to be expended for improvements on the church and rectory. The Eccentric commends St. James church as we understand there is no out-standing indebtedness and extend our best wishes for a happy Easter and a prosperous year.

33 YEARS AGO

The following items were published in this paper:

George E. Daines and Palmer Sherman start for Leaville, Colo., next week.

Mrs. E. G. Keyes left for Ludington because of the serious illness of Mrs. J. W. Armstrong.

Following are the nominations for Bloomfield officers at the Greenback caucus: Supervisor, James VanEben; clerk, George E. Daines; treasurer, Edwin Miller; Justice, Charles Fay; Highway commissioner, Thomas H. Power.

Married—Hugh Burnham of New Boston and Hattie Trumbull, by Rev. Thomas McWhorter.

Died—William P. Durkee, 72. He left seven children, John G., Geo. W., Mrs. Caroline and Emily German, Walter, Arnos and Hattie.

The Methodist of Royal Oak are going to raise $300 to build a brick parsonage.

Our new marshall, James O. Beattie, will stop the practice of boys jumping on trains at the depot.

William Williamson discovered his pants were on fire while coming up Saginaw street. The cause was smoldering pipe. Williamson, with great presence of mind and plenty of snow, quenched the blaze without the Babcock brigade.

Fred Stockwell made the "hit" of the School exhibition. Stockwell received a kick from his imaginary mule, "Nebuchadnezzar."

L. H. Everts and Almon Parks will debate the question—"Resolved, that the immigration of the Chinese into this country is a detriment to it and should be stopped by law."

Jack Baldwin got as far as Melvin Ross's place before remembering his name is now on Council Bluffs.

John Rodine has choice Green Tamarr and Grapes vine wood for sale.

Horace Randall has rented a room at J. G. Barclay on Mill street.

Will Power is clerking for J. S. Steckwell.
