

ANDERSONVILLE

Mr. H. F. Daniels, Who Spent Several Months in the South, Tells Interesting Facts About the Prison

On Jan. 15, 1912, I got together with a number of the boys and went to the Andersonville site, which is about a half mile northwest of Prison Park, containing 24 acres. Surrounded with a brick wall four feet high grown over with ivy. On going inside you first gaze upon the graves of nearly 14,000 Union soldiers who were buried there rather than dishonor the flag of our country and who now rest in one of the most beautiful cemeteries of this nation. Each grave is marked with a headstone, giving number, name and state, which will be found registered at the office of the superintendent, Capt. J. M. Bryant, who will gladly give you all needed information. In the cemetery there are nine state monuments as follows:
New York represents 2261 soldiers who died in the prison, costing $35,000; Illinois represents 889, Indiana 702, Iowa 216, New Jersey 235, Main, Pennsylvania and Connecticut with no figures. Near the center of the grounds and to the left, is a flag staff at the top of which is a flag that flew during the war in 1862. Every day in the year from sun to sun, there are 64 of our Michigan soldiers, of every age, to be seen in the 22nd Michigan Inf., 41 died in the prison making a total of 113 deaths, leaving only 65 to return home out of 178 taken prisoners of war in 1862.

Before leaving home and thinking of the boys in Andersonville cemetery, I bought flags and packed them in my grip to be placed on the graves of the 22nd Michigan Inf., the boys before being far well to the boys of 20 years ago, lying in holy grounds. It was Washington's birthday in the morning, I erected my marker on the ground located as Company B quarters in 1864. Then myself and wife, A. Necker and wife proceeded to the cemetery and set a flag on the graves of 64 members of the 22nd Michigan leaving eight members unaccounted for. The list is as follows:

Escapes an Awful Fate. A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Jellison, Mich., for her wonderful escape from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I saw my life of health and wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now. Quick and safe, it's the most reliable remedy for cough, cold, croup, whooping cough, and all other ailments. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and Trial bottle free at C. J. Shain's."

Always. A man always has a ready tongue when he is trying to persuade himself that he has been wronged.
