Alfred Black of Ann St. is the proud and satisfied owner of the genealogical tree, or history of his ancestry, dating back to 1728. This family tree begins at this date with Robert Black, a brick maker, street Newry, Eng., and is brought right down Alfred's youngest child. It is to Mr. Black and family, a peculiarly interesting document.

The Board of Review at their recent meeting brought forth some interesting figures. The assessed valuation of personal property including Bloomfield township and the village is $517,400.00 less the valuation of real estate is $2,632,480.00. This compares well with the figures of 1911, these being personal $609,750.00 and real estate, $380.90. The increase for 1912 is $79,350.00 and the difference is due to the relief the mortgage tax has offered.

It was Odd Folios instead of K. P.'s who made the Memorial services, the grand success, which was at the St. James church, June 10th. Mr. D. B. Wilkinson at this late date writes to say that instead of 100 present there were 200 members, and that the editor could not have been very observing or he would have noticed those mystic "I. O. O. F." correct, you are, Joe! And if you had taken a month or two trouble before, as you did after, we could have told our readers a full week ahead what was coming that Sunday and all would have helped along the attendance and we could all have been informed in advance of the important and interesting event.

When Charles Davis was arraigned in circuit court on a charge of deserting his wife, the former, Mrs. Emma Tibbitts, he expected to be released, his wife having consented to withdraw the complaint. Judge Smith couldn't see that way and refused to permit the withdrawal of the complaint. Davis was ordered to file a bond of $2000 to appear for trial at the September term of court and was again disappointed, his tender of a bond signed by a married woman not being acceptable as surety. Davis is the piano salesman who married A. res. Emma Tibbitts, and is alleged to have spent $5,000 of his money which she turned over to him.

He was arrested at the home of his mother in Detroit recently. About the time the prisoner expected to be freed he dug out from the lining of his vest $1,000 bills. He claimed he had returned with only 20 cents left of the $5,000.

Take off your hats and give thanks to our city fathers, for giving us the best, the very best thing that ever came to Birmingham, and we will not accept the water-works, the trolley car, the library or electric lights, or, or, or anything else. Two years ago Mrs. Parks' health began to fail and immediately Mr. Parks accompanied her to Ann Arbor for medical consultation. The attending physician gave the husband no hopes for her complete recovery. However, the end came unexpectedly as on Wednesday she was apparently feeling her best. He revived the body of Mrs. Parks by a single dose of Fowler's solution of arsenic, given by one daughter, Mrs. Fred Cook of Chicago, and four sons, Roland, Leslie, Harold and Warner. Mrs. Parks was visiting her parents and was with her mother on the morning when she died. She was 45 years of age. Miss Anna M. Parks of Maple ave. went at once to her brother at Cheboygan, returning to her home, Monday night of this week.

Our popular meat-market man, Mr. Homer Lajoin, was married Monday of this week, to Miss Leta Davis, of Oxford. This happy couple were married at Royal Oak, by Rev. F. Needham. After a short pleasant bridal trip, came to their prepared-in-advance, day-little home at Piquet Hill, to find it plentifully, startlingly and generously plumed and decorated with big signs reading, a few of them like this: "If you talk in your sleep, it's my monthly name." "If you love your wife, just marry." "O-o-o-o-o-h-h-h! So happy!" "Lovers' Delight!" etc., etc. Mr. and Mrs. Lajoin receive the best wishes of a host of friends both here and at Oxford, for a long and happy life.

Wondrous Power of Music

The meaning of song goes deep. Who is there in logical words can express the effect music has on us? Kind of articulate, unshamable speech which leads us to the edge of the infinite, and lets us for a moment gaze into that—Carlyle.
