Big Ben is for the farmer who believes in the advice of old Ben Franklin "Plow deep while slugs sleep."

He's for the farms whose owners want Big Ben.

He's for the hard-to-get-up farm hands. It's up to him to get them in the fields on time.

He keeps watch time. He's reliable and handsome. He's sturdy, well set and long lived.

Be first in the fields every morning. Get the farm hands out bright and early. Depend on Big Ben.

He'll more than earn his wages the first month you employ him.

Big Ben the busy farmer's friend

THE PRIMARIES.

Hardly Enough Interest in Nominations to Pay for the Great Amount of Board Work.

There does not seem to be interest enough in our primary election to pay for the trouble and expense incurred. Gen'l Apathy seems to have captured most of the voters of every party. Some of our oldest politicians and men of sound judgment prefer the old-fashioned convention system. It is preferable and produces better results. Many voters absolutely are ignorant as to the "How of voting." After years of voting and instructions some do yet vote only a blank sheet of paper. They take a ticket, walk right in the booth, don't make a mark, fold it up, and walk right out again, without marking the ticket, and of course without voting. In Tuesday's election some voted for only one candidate, some for two, etc. One voter was heard to soliloquize: "By Heck, I just now realized that I didn't vote for a County candidate, I only voted one side of the dang ticket. Gee, man, can't it be long enough to learn how to vote anyway."

A Butcher Who Sells a Lot of Meat Can Sell it for a Smaller per lb. Profit

That profit-sharing idea ours is based on VOLUME OF BUSINESS, or it would be mere talk. If we sell two pounds of meat instead of one, we can thrive on a smaller per pound profit.

We want the patronage of all those who would appreciate being able to save something from usual prices on every meat purchase.

Our Vegetables and Fruits are strictly fresh.

Our Butter and Eggs ditto.

Our prices right—our stock large.

We solicit a share of your patronage.

A material that endures like granite is vitrified clay

It will never crumble or decay, is proof against the chemical influences of silage, and does not absorb moisture. IMPERISHABLE SILOS are made from this material. They are cheapest in the long run for they never blow down, burn down, or require attention for repairs. First cost is the last cost. Simple to construct. No hoops to tighten. No point or coating needed. The patent channel blocks, carrying steel bars buried in mortar and protected from the air, afford immense strength, and have been thoroughly tested. The company WARRANTS THIS SILO.
