

NEXT STATE FAIR.

Michigan's Great State Fair. Remember the Dates, September 16th. to 21st. Inclusive.

Wednesday was the closing day for State Fair entries and while the entry list up to the closing day had gone far ahead of any previous year, the finish was a hummer. Entries poured in by mail and by telegraph until the offices of the Michigan State Fair were swamped.

It seems quite probable now, that Michigan's State Fair will be the record Fair of the year from the standpoint of stock exhibits as it is the record breaker in innovations and many brand new features.

"If two prepossessing young women who can make old-fashioned bread wish to make some money during the Michigan State Fair, Sept. 16th. to 21st. inclusive let them address the Superintendent of the Dairy Department, care State Fair, Bowles Building, Detroit."

What We Never Forget. According to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Buckle's Arnica, today, the mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains, etc.

Rev. J. B. Atchinson delivered his farewell sermon on Sunday last. He may not return to his charge from Conference, but it is not probable that he will be sent back, as he is confident he can accomplish more for the good of his flock elsewhere. We are very sorry to lose so good a citizen.

About 200 people congregated at the State Fair, to witness the long talk of a matched game of ball between the Birmingham Hungry Nine, and the renowned Franklin Stars. After much loud debating, etc. it was agreed that the game be played 'as between the B'ham Hungry Nine, and a Picked Nine from Detroit, Drayton Plains, and Franklin. Picked Nines, 5; Hungry Nines, 2. It was a regular scrap game from start to finish. Today, the umpire being partially blind, saw only one side of the game. Wild excitement prevailed. Among the B'ham players are the stars: John Rainey, Rasty Wright, Ned Dunsen, Till and St. Trowbridge, Henry Hoffman and Short Stop Shelly Bert Baldwin and others. Both clubs return grateful thanks for a wagon-load of ripe, juicy watermelons from Hon. James H. Peabody, and to Mrs. George K. Opekye, for a big basketful of cake and other refreshments.

The Utica Sentinel advises everybody to drink whiskey only in the months that have a 'k' in their names. All O. K. we can skip along on beer and shill until October.

Garrick Theatre.

Wonders in "The Blue Bird." Several Quaint Characters and Beautiful Scenes Exhibited.

The Dog and the Cat that talked; Bread, Milk, Water, Fire and light which took on human shape and accompanied the children Tytyl and Mytyl in their quest of Happiness, the ugly Fairy Beryune and her lovely pal; the Churchyard, grove of which opened and disclosed a riot of blossoming lilies; the Kingdom of the Future where unborn children dwell, and the far-off homes of the Hours, the Happiness, the Stars, the Mist, Maiden and the Blue children--these are just a few of the wonders that will be disclosed to the delighted kiddies of Detroit and vicinity and their grown-up escorts when Maurice Materlinck's quaint and marvelous drama, "The Blue Bird," will be played at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, for a return date next week.

Materlinck meant "The Blue Bird" purely as a poetic fantasy. He had no idea that his magistry and marvel could be actually staged. But through the skill of Mme. Materlinck and the art producers, all these wonders have been realized, and that too, without impairing the quality of the story which describes the quest of two poor children for the Blue Bird, the emblem of Happiness.

The difficulties of its road production are many; but by confining the bookings to the largest cities and allowing a whole day in advance for the setting of the complicated scenery, it has been found practicable to present the complete New Theatre production on tour.

It will be seen here, therefore, with all the original scenery and effects and all the original cast of 100 metropolitan players. Prices, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. Mail orders promptly filled.

Many Driven from Home. Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by epidemics and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and sure. A better way--the way of multitudes--is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles, quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a blessing. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by C. J. Shain and J. W. Cobb.
