The man who thinks parties will do what their platforms say would be a good one to sell mining stock to.

If it is true that Roosevelt has a better chance to win than Taft, Wilson might just as well commence now on his inaugural address and selecting his cabinet. It all done now but the counting.

L. H. Rousseau on the old Wm. Sult's farm has 12 to 14 acres of corn and corn-stalks for sale per acre standing, on the 12 Mile Road. Address, L. H. Rousseau, Birmingham, Mich.

None one of the candidates was born in a log cabin, or read when a boy by the light of a pine knot, or had any blow on the head through the cracks, or evil spirits. Today once shot a wildcat and drowned out a gopher.

FOR SALE—One Quick Meal Garland range, box couch cedar, steam boiler with radiators, quantity of siding and moulding, porch furniture. Inquire of H. T. Dennis, 538 Pierce street.

R. J. Coryell's new home west of our village is nearing its finish. It is modern and has all the modern conveniences. Sanitary plumbing. Electric lights. Everything convenient. R. J. Coryell says good things come slow but sure. George Johnson brought to this office the most beautiful bunch of red Siberian crab apples on a limb small in circumference with more than a peck of the finest ever. These were some of George's own raising and show what Troy can do.

Mr. Frank Buncher, age 70 years, brother of Mrs. Wm. Hulbert of Woodward avenue, decided to enter the National Soldiers' home at Marion, Ind., and went there last Friday. Dr. C. M. Reynolds accompanied the old veteran and saw him safely and comfortably settled in his new home.

A line from J. Bert Peabody, Los Angeles, Cal., says, "We had a chance to get a very nice furnished house at 642 W. 25th Place, and that is where we expect to be for the winter. We would be glad to see or hear from our friends. I notice by the papers you are having some very warm weather in the east. The weather here is very nice, in the middle of the night the sun it is quite warm, but the nights are cool. We are all well as usual."

A wisely conducted newspaper is like a banquet, says an exchange. Every thing is served with a view to variety. Help yourself to what you want. Do not condemn the entire spread because pickles and onions may be included. If you do not relish them some one else may find them palatable. Be generous and broad enough to select gracefully and be agreeable to your mental taste. You, as an individual, are not compelled to swallow everything. We do not think all that is made more variety, and variety is the spice of existence.

To Rent—Seven room house at 311 Southfield avenue, furnished or unfurnished. Apply at the office.

Mr. Slater, county surveyor has been re-surveying the Park, preparatory to being turned over to the city.

Miss Daisy Benedict has accepted a position for the fall season at Morton & Moore's millinery shop at Pontiac.

Mrs. Roy Blakeles of Detroit and Miss Mayme Daniels of Shreveport, La., spent Wednesday with Mrs. H. P. Saltzer.

Edgar Jenks of Hudson visited in town Tuesday. He is a cousin of W. C. Jenks and has not been here since some 20 years ago.

Harvey W. Hedding goes about on crutches, the result of falling and his foot bottom-side-up. Very painful and not profitable at all says Harvey.

Miss Ada and Winifred Couch, of Detroit, gave a luncheon and theater party at the Temple Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Juanita Plumstead.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gardner Tuesday morning and brought Miss Rhys, a baby daughter. Mother and daughter are doing well.

Mr. Frank Goodwin has sold a lot on Willets street, to Mr. M. W. Beale, who has acquired other adjoining land, and will soon erect a handsome home thereon.

Miss Tina Livvie Sanday at the home of Mrs. J. Harvey Carter. Miss Livvie resides at 119 Burlingtons avenue and is an altogether charming young lady.

Mr. Spencer and daughter, Miss Zoe Spencer, spent Sunday with Miss Utter. Miss Spencer who is now teaching in Detroit was a former teacher in high school at Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stowell and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. Harvey Carter. All coming out in Mr. Stowell's new car which all enjoyed very much.

Mrs. George Ferguson, of Southfield avenue, is slowly winning her way back to health again. Mrs. Schoonover has been taking care of her ever since the trained nurse departed.

W. H. Marvin, one of the oldest printers in the business, died suddenly in his home in Ulex last week. Mr. Marvin was a most respected citizen, a live business man of Ux and will be greatly missed. His funeral was largely attended.

Joseph E. Packowah, a young man of Detroit out joy riding with his lady friend, did not give enough of the road to John McClure and his three daughters while driving towards Birmingham. Result. Smashed up buggy, harness ruined and a suit for damages on before Justice A. W. Campbell. Mr. McClure failed to settle for $200.

The reason W. E. Murchie is being around so painfully is that during a recent ball game one of the players and one of the men working on the Barnum school building got into a mix up in separating the angry men, one of the other men working on the school job in helping his mate stepped on Mr. Murchie's foot and hurt him quite badly. No arrests.

Wanted every housekeeper in the townships of Bloomfield, Southfield, Royal Oak and Troy to give Black Silk Stove Polish a trial. Try it. You will be delighted with the result. Every grocer, if he hasn't it he will get it for you. It certainly has created a sensation. Cost no more than the ordinary kind. Read big ad. tells all.

Just to show you that Birmingham is growing, the Grand Truck 19 cars of freight all full and sealed arrived. We can easily remember when J. P. Cranch was ticket agent, baggage master, switchman and freight-carrier and the only man on the job. Even at that, believe me! It didn't take all his time then, and he didn't receive 19 cars of freight in 19 years. It now takes 19 men to do the work there. Besides now think of the immense amount of freight handled by the D. U. R.

Years ago when in the drug selling business as Editor Mitchell sold a preparation of White Pine and Red Spruce Gosh Balsam, put up by Lambert & Lowman, chemists of Detroit. It was surely the best cough medicine I ever sold—gave the greatest benefit to the most people of any medicine we ever handled. Charles J. Shain has just put in a gross of the very same Balsam. The ideal name cough syrup and any one catching cold should not forget that they can catch a sure cure by calling at Shain's drug store and getting a bottle.

Last Saturday Mrs. Ed. Socia entertained the Baptist Button Hole club, consisting of women only. Each member bringing entertaining other members. They see fit, each entertainer carrying out their own idea of entertaining. Mrs. Ed. Socia gave the last one. Miss Baldwin and Mrs. Conley discussing Mrs. Socia's success. Miss Baldwin heard it regretted it very much, of course Miss Baldwin came off with honor. Mrs. Socia's was a Lavender dress. Mrs. Conley's was a Lavender dress. Every one was dressed in white with a lavender sash. The decorations were in lavender and white, each guest receiving a white cap tied with lavender ribbon. The prize cap won by Mrs. Wm. Hurt was a lavender silk cap with lavender lace, a piece of the hostess' work, made making a very pretty souvenir. Mrs. Hunt proved to be the best story teller of the crowd. Ice cream and coffee were served and all in all it was a dainty affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stearns and son Carl spent the week end with his parents at Lenox.

Mr. Harvey Holcomb, of Detroit, was an over Sunday guest of Mr. Ernest Hunt on Brown Landing.

Altho' Mr. Miner is an Expert in raising green corn, he is in no wise a green grocer. R. A. and he said it will pay U.

"Everybody's doing it!" Doing what? Taking in the state fair just off the road about 3 miles, far off. If you don't go you miss the greatest educational and the most interesting event of the season. Try it.

An Oakland Motor Co.'s truck, No. 5073, collided with a maple tree in front of Edgar McBride's home, on Woodward street, and was completely wrecked and the front of the powerful truck is all stove in. The Chiffonier has not yet come down.

FOR SALE—Cheap. In moving to Birmingham we find we have more furniture than we can use, so will sell cheap. Fine oak bed room set, bed dresser, commode, hair mattress and steel springs, oak hunk, large oak's board. M. W. Beale, 423 Martin street, Birmingham. Phone 229.

We notice in the M. E. Conference appointment recently made at Alpena, Mich., that Rev. G. H. Whitney, will be "at home," in Tecumseh the coming year. Birmingham, Rev. C. E. Wakefield, Royal Oak, Rev. O. T. Olsen, Troy and Warren, Rev. R. J. Chase at Rochester, N. Y. Walker.

If you fail to see the wonderful picture, "The Shadow of the Cross," at State Fair, now on exhibition, you miss in our humble opinion, the greatest and most wonderful sight on the grounds. It is located under the grand stand, and should be viewed by everybody. All daily papers praise it highly. The Denver Post says: "Awe-inspiring and Benign. . . . Many see in it the hand of the supernatural, but as a pasting Christmas card, it is well. Even as a curiosity is worth more than a passing notice."

What We Never Forget, According to the old saying, the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises, are never forgotten. It is so true. Unrivaled for piles, corns or cold sores. Only 25c at C. J. Shain's and J. W. Cobb's.

Home Builders
Want Good Lumber
In fact, most of them absolutely insist on getting the best that their money will buy, and in that particular we heartily agree with them, because that is just the way we buy our Lumber. It must be strictly up to the grade. There are some manufacturers, however, who interpret grades more liberally than others, and you can bet your last dollar that we know who they are. Because of this inside knowledge we're not afraid to put our Lumber up against any in the country. Come in and look this Lumber over and let us make you prices.

Why Deep Streams Run Still.
Deep streams run still—and why? Not because there are no obstacles, but because they altogether overflow these stones or rocks round which the shallow stream has to make its path.
