Do your shopping at Tolles & Unger before 7 o'clock, after January 4th, as we are starting the New Year right, closing business at 7 o'clock.

The Baptist church held their Christmas entertainment and tree on Monday evening. Their program was fine and was appreciated by the large attendance.

Ralph Burgeois is happy in receiving the congratulations of his many friends here, upon his graduation as an Undertaker and Embalmer, but we understand he does not expect to engage in that business here at present, as the field is well covered now.

This week a sale of interest was completed when Gas Dondoro became owner of the Stauch property, located on Washington avenue. This is one of the best business locations in town and we understand that the building is to be remodeled with a store beneath and offices up above.

Please attribute all our deficiencies to moving. We are starting the New Year right by running our own paper, in our own town, with a full equipped office. We are now in a better position to do our work better and do it promptly. Come and see us. Our new office is directly over the old stand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neal were pleasant callers at the Tribune office last Saturday. Mr. Neal is editor of the Orion Review.

A very pretty miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Mrs. Lottie Geyer on Dec. 20, by Mrs. G. W. Penny and Mrs. Earl Halson at the latter's home on Harrison avenue. The color scheme of the evening being pink and white throughout. The evening was spent with games and music, after which a light luncheon was served. Mrs. Geyer was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts, and as the guests departed all kinds of joy and success was granted the happy bride.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance was held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hitchcock. Much interest is being manifested by the members of the Union and those in charge have every reason to hope for a promising year. If you are a member, try to attend the meetings which occur the fourth Friday of each month. If you are not a member you are always welcome. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robbin's Jan. 24. At this meeting 'The Ideal Father' is the subject for discussion. You will want to hear it so keep the date in mind.

Robert A. Toms has filed a petition in the Circuit Court asking for a discharge of an old mortgage, dating back to 1839. It appears in records that one, Benjamin K. Pierce gave a mortgage covering the property on which he now resides and other lands in the west part of Birmingham which has not been discharged on records. He has also filed a petition in Probate Court for the purpose of determining who were the heirs-at-law of Eleanor Carpenter who resided in Birmingham many years ago. These petitions were filed for the purpose of quieting the title. Attorney George A. Dondoro has charge of the case for Mr. Toms.

Delbert Geyer and wife have been visiting the former's parents in Ashley.

Mr. and Mrs. Beltz entertained the Beltz family with a dinner on Sunday.

A Butcher Who Sells a Lot of Meat Can Sell it for a Smaller per lb. Profit
That profit-sharing idea ours is based on VOLUME OF BUSINESS, or it would be mere talk. If we sell two pounds of meat instead of one, we can thrive on a smaller per pound profit.
We want the patronage of all those who would appreciate being able to save something from usual prices on every meat purchase.
Our Vegetables and Fruits are strictly fresh.
Our Butter and Eggs ditto.
Our prices right—our stock large.
We solicit a share of your patronage.
