Dr. Millman's son has purchased 5 acres and it's a pretty little farm too; while last but not least Mr. Arthur Conn of Detroit has purchased the remaining 5 1-3 acre farm. The Oakland Realty Co. of Birmingham have handled and sold the subdivision. The The Inglewood Land Co have purchased 100 acres between Lake Oakland and Woodhull Lake and intend to cut this property into beautiful lake lots. The The same Company have purchased 84 acres directly on Woodward ave. adjoining Pontiac to cut into little farms and factory sites.

Women Who Get Dizzy.

Every woman who is troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney troubles should use Electric Bitters. They give relief when nothing else will, improve the health, add strength and vigor from the first dose. Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, Louisiana, says: "Four doctors had given me up and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good." Just try them. 50c and $1. Recommended by C. J. Shain and Cobb-Stanley-Harris Co.—Adv.

BIRMINGHAM IS DIFFERENT.

BY A WHITEHEAD.

Other towns around the state, all along the line,
Brag about their industries, say that things are fine.
Tell you of the their factories employing many people,
"Real estate is going up higher than a steeple.
Every house is occupied, my! but it is funny,
You can't get a place for either love or money.
Buy a lot and build a house, you will never rue it!"
And, just while the boom is on, you hustle up and do it.
Then, too late, there comes a change, values take a drop,
Prices on your property take a sudden flop,
Factories have all shut down, folks have lost their job,
Men are moving out of town; goodness what a mob!
Empty houses everywhere, now there's lots of room.
Wish you hadn't builded in a city with a boom
Everything is on the bum, values gone to smash,
Wished you'd got from under just before the crash.
Different, here in Birmingham, things have come to stay,
You never hear of factories shut down, or moved away.
Never any danger of strikes, or howling mobs,
Never hear of hungry men, folks that lost their jobs,
Prices on your real estate never take a drop.
Buy a lot and build a house, value will not flop,
Lots of houses here for sale, not a one to rent,

Garrick Theatre.

In this season of numerous Shakerpearean revivals, a distinct novelty is being offered by Robert B. Mantell in his coast to coast tour, a massive scenic production of the historical tragedy. "King John." During his engagement at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, Detroit, next week, Mr. Mantell will be be seen but once in this play on Monday evening. In addition he will present the following plays in his repertoire already well known to local theatre goers:—"Hamlet," Tuesday evening; "Richelieu," Wednesday matinee; "Macbeth," Wednesday evening; "Othello," Thursday evening; "King Lear," Friday evening; "The Merchant of Venice, Saturday matinee, and "Richard III," Saturday evening.

Mr. Mantell a few seasons ago scored artistic triumphs in "King John" in New York and Chicago, but this is the first time he has ventured to take the production on tour owing to its enormous size, which necessitates an expensive addition to an already heavy railway equipment.

Many decades have elapsed since "King John" was presented on the American stage. The most famous of the early American performances was that of Junius Brutus Booth. Charles Kean was the last actor to attempt it before Mr. Mantell.

"Mr. Mantell's production of "King John" is the most magnificent with which he has ever been surrounded and sets a new standarnd in Shakesperean art in America.

B'HAM VS. FENTON

The Opening Game of the Season Was one of Great Interest to all Enthusiastic Fans.

Despite the fact that Birmingham was outweighed 20 pounds to the man by Fenton the team composed of inexperienced players made a good showing. Although defeated by the score of 32-12, in defense Birmingham outplayed Fenton but were not heavy enough to force its way through Fentons heavy line for any substantial gains. On the whole the results were not discouraging for Birmingham, and with proper support from their followers are confident of winning a majority of the remaining games. Birmingham's principal gains were made thru passes from Johnson to Peck and long end runs by Martin.

Hanna played a steady game at quarterback and W. Parrs' defensive work was also a feature of the game.

Washington Theatre.

This week at the beautiful Washington theatre, Detroit, Miss Virginia Harned entered upon a two week's engagement with the permanent organization, the Wm. Morris Players appearing for her first week in Sir Arthur W. Pinero's wonderful drama, "Iris."

Instantaneously, Miss Harned scored a veritable triumph in the title role and throughout the play was accored spontaneous and continued applause.

Certainly the management of the Washington theatre is keeping faith with the public and no promise previously made has been unfilled Each presentation so far has been beautifully put on, no pains or expense being spared and as for the company—it is many a day since so perfect an organization has been seen in Detroit, or elsewhere for that matter.

For the second week of her engagement Miss Harned will be seen in an entirely different role, that of "Betsy" in the clever comedy, "An American Widow" by Kellett Chambers.

Imagine a young widow just emerging from her "year of mourning" making up her mind to enter upon and live in the gayety of court circles thru a royal alliance, confronted with a second will prohibiting her marrying any but an American born citizen under penalty of forfeiting her inheritance.

Of course, the Wm. Morris players will be cast to advantage in support of Miss Harned.

THIS WILL DO FOR TWO B'HAM GIRLS.

Fredericton, New Brunswick,
Oct. 1, 1913.

Dearest Mom and Pop and Bettie and Tim.

Shot a buck deer and a caribou, no moose as yet. They kill the partridges with sticks. Having a beautiful time, and Irwin is enjoying every minute. Am chucked full of happiness. Mr. Bouns is a wonderful provider. This is the wildest country your oldest daughter ever tramped in. Irwin caught a 16 pound salmon. Oh dear! What a boy I would be if I was only a boy, but then you wouldn't have the best man in the world for a son-in-law. "Loving ly, BERTHA BIGELOW NEFF.

Dear Daddy:-

I did as you told me, counted one two, three, and then shot, killed my first two partridges, then forgot and missed shot too soon. Reynolds had six the first afternoon. Oh how we wish you were all up here with us, it is perfectly lovely. The dogs are happy, and Bettie Toliver and myself do heaps of tramping. With love, BETTIE BIGELOW DONOVAN.

Boys and girls, Junior League meetings began this week Wednesday at the Methodist church. There are to be two sets of classes—some at three o'clock and some at three-thirty.
