Keeps Your Stove

"Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny—unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or crack off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas stove. Get a can from your hardware or stove dealer. If you do not find it better than any other stove polish you have ever used, either, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. But we feel sure you will agree with the thousands of other up-to-date women who are now using Black Silk Stove Polish and who say it is the "best stove polish ever made."

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH

LIQUID OR PASTE

ONE QUALITY

Be sure to get the genuine. Black Silk Stove Polish costs you no more than the ordinary kind.

Keep your grates, registers, fenders and stove pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK AIR-DRYING ENAMEL. Brush free with each can of enamel only.

Use BLACK SILK METAL POLISH for silverware, nickel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

Concerning Woman.

When God thought of mother, he must have laughed with satisfaction and framed it quickly—so rich, so deep, so divine, so full of soul, power and beauty was the conception.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Garrick Theatre.

Matinees Every Day This Week.

Eva Tanguay, the world's greatest comedienne, and vaudeville's most popular entertainer, will be the next attraction at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, coming next week at the head of her own company in "Volcanic Vaudeville." Miss Tanguay's engagement will open Monday afternoon with a matinee, and there will be a matinee performance every day throughout her engagement.

Miss Tanguay is now on her second second annual tour at the head of her own vaudeville company, and brings to the Garrick an aggregation or all-star acts, providing entertainment of the very highest type. This cyclonic comedienne will wear a $10,000 wardrobe for her famous songs, and will also give for the first time in Detroit, her own version of "Salome" a pretentious and elaborately staged offering.

Miss Tanguay will give her version of "Salome" here the same as presented by her for tweuty consective weeks in New York and other eastern cities. Included among her songs, which she will sing by popular request, is her famous "I Don't Care" number.

This will be Miss Tanguay's only appearance in Detroit for possibly two years or more, as her American bookings will keep her engaged, after which she plans a year's tour of Europe with her all-star vaudeville combination.

Washington Theatre.

At the Washington theatre there is nothing but laughter this week, for two hours and a half one is carried thru a series of scenes and situations which a mighy clever brain conceived and wove into a play, "An American Widow." Kellett Chambers is the author of this play and Virginia Harned is the visiting star at the head of the Wm. Morris players and the combination is a happy one.

Everyone who wants a full measure of enjoyment should see "An American Widow." It contains everything that the average theatre goer wants to see and hear, the dialogue scintilates with wit and humor; all of the characters are well cast and cleverly portrayed; the scenes and situations are admirably to the climaxes of every act; all combined to give what might be termed a perfect evening's enjoyment.

The next star announced, who will follow Miss Harned commencing on Monday evening next, is Julie Herne, daughter of that celebrated actor, the late James A. Herne, who plays Hearts of Oak, Shore Acres and many others are so well known to our theatre goers.

The Gamblers was written by Chas. Klein, author of "The Lion and the Mouse" and is one of the few plays said never to have received an adverse criticism, appealing as it does to all classes of theatre goers.

The William Morris players which is a permanent organization at the Washington theatre will as usual be cast to advantage in support of the visiting star.

The Avenue.

Old Time Book Plays Revived.

Standard dramas of a very high character at very low low scale of prices is the new policy which prevails at the Avenue Theatre, Detroit. This cosy play-house is now making a strong bid for the patronage of the women theatre-goers and the Holden players, who are appearing there seem to have "caught on". The critics are loud in their praise of the standard of excellence attained in the current offering,—"Wife in Name Only." Some of the future offerings are "The Girl in the Taxi," "Thelma," "Thorns and Orange Blossoms, "Sapho," and many other popular book-plays. The scale of prices for the evening performances are ten, twenty and thirty cents—a few seats commanding fifty cents.

For the matinees, the prices are ten and twenty cents.

Varied Causes of Suicide.

Causes of suicide vary. In the Oriental patriotic and religious reasons present themselves. In the west the causes are of a more personal nature. There are many classes into which cases may be divided. For example, the lonely, the sick and incurable, the unemployed and financially embarrassed, victims of nervous diseases.

For Tired Feet.

Nothing helps tired feet more than regular rubbing with vaseline or some other pure fat. Mutton tallow is very good and agrees with every skin. Soldiers grease their feet every night when on the march. An ounce of flexible collodion and 30 grains of salicylic acid is an effectual corn cure, but must not be alowed to touch the healthy flesh.

Learning by Love Letter.

"Love letters between young men and women are an excellent method of teaching literature," says Dr. Arthur Holmes. But it must be done tactfully. We have known a young lady who broke off an engagement because her fiance returned her love letters with the spelling errors neatly corrected in red ink.

Discriminating Sparrows.

An Atchison man planted lettuce but as fast as it came through the ground the English sparrows ate it off. He finally got a few small flags and stuck them in the lettuce bed and not a sparrow would consent to touch that lettuce as long as Old Glory floated over it.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.

Trying to Be Realgned.

"So you've lost your nice pussy cat," sympathized grandma, hearing sad news. "Too bad! I know how you loved him. You miss him dreadfully, I suppose!" "Oh, yes, I miss him some," six-year-old John replied, with an air of chastened sorrow, "but then, grandma, since I've learnt so much about this germ business I try to think it's just as well."

House Plans Important.

The care in the home and all other forms of household work are greatly facilitated by right planning and the use of suitable materials for the construction and furnishing of the home. An adequate and convenient water supply and other conveniences are essential, not only for comfort and for saving labor, but also from the standpoint of home hygiene.
