Washington

The senate at Washington passed the Clapp campaign contribution bill. It prohibits the sending of money from one state to another to aid in the election or defeat of candidates for president, vice-president or members of congress.

Denial was made at Washington that President Wilson or any government official had communicated with General Ferris. It was unofficially acknowledged however that the administration knew "certain fit and proper persons" had been canvassing the situation unofficially.

President Wilson and Secretary Garrison selected four Filipinos to be members of the Philippine commission. They are Victoriano Mapa, Jaime de Yerna, Vicente Ilustre and Vicente Singson. Mapa will be secretary of finance and justice. The fifth Filipino commissioner will be Rafael Palma, who since 1918 has been the only native on the commission.

Vice-President Marshall and Sprague Clark will be asked to tender their full citizenship to George E. Lusk, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for southern China, who discovered recently that although he had exercised the rights of citizenship for 20 years, his father's citizenship papers had not been issued until he was 21 and had passed his 21st birthday.

An increase in the already "high cost of living" was forewarned by experts of the department of agriculture at Washington, who announced that food crops and meats were scarce.

Domestic

Seven persons were injured, several seriously, when a Rock Island passenger train was wrecked near Hiasco, Ariz.

An unusual number of aliens were deported from the Ellis Island immigration station, with 175 persons excluded as undesirable. They were on board ten outgoing steamships bound for Europe. Many of the cases were those of diseased persons and several women with families of young children.

Six persons were killed in Indiana, four at New Orleans and two in Ohio as a result of automobile accidents at railroad grade crossings within twenty-four hours.

The entire railroad terminals of East St. Louis, Ill., were threatened with destruction by a fire which destroyed the Advance Grain company's elevator, the Chicago & Alton's freight house and some cars and freight cars of the Baltimore & Ohio freight house. The loss was $1,000,000.

Twenty soldiers of Companies Thirtieth and One Hundred and Seventy-eighth United States Coast artillery were killed, and about 100 others injured when an aerial troop train on the Mobile & Ohio railroad crashed through a trestle near State Line, Miss.

The sessions of the American Catholic Missionary congress opened in Boston, the gathering of church dignitaries being the greatest seen in this country for 25 years.

Two thousand mining men were present when the convention of the American Mining congress opened in Philadelphia.

William Sulzer was removed as governor of the state of New York by the high court of impeachment at Albany by a vote of 43 to 12. Martin H. Glynn, lieutenant governor, was sworn in as his successor.

It was learned that Henry C. Fryk, just after his son, Childs Fryk, married Miss Pauline Wood of Baltimore, Md., handed the bride an envelope containing a check in her name for $20,000,000. It is understood that young Mr. Fryk received securities valued at $120,000.

Yeggs blew the safe in a branch postoffice at Dunbar, a town of Memphis, Tenn., and in C. W. Rutland's adjoining store, securing about $2,000 in money and several hundred two and one cent stamps. Bloodhounds are trailing the men.

Jules Hawthorne, the novelist, a free man after being held in Atlanta federal penitentiary, told a startling story of his life as a convict which he called his Atlanta prison "living hell," and said Warden Meyer was "unfit."

Timothy L. Woodruff, according to an estimate by his son, John E. Woodruff of New York, left an estate estimated at about $1,000,000. The bulk of the fortune, it is said, had been in the hands of his first wife, John E. Woodruff.

Freeman Elliott was killed and several persons injured at Nelson, Wis., when the Burlington express train 217 was derailed by a south-bound passenger train.

What may be the wreck of the City of Rio de Janeiro, which was sunk in the Bay of Honduras, was found in a lagoon and valued at $2,000,000. It was located by Herman Stegner, a diver.

DOPE SELLING IN MICHIGAN DISCUSSED BY STATE OFFICIALS

EXTRA SESSION MAY BE ADVISABLE

If Contention of Detroit Prosecutor Is Correct Law Will Be Needed to Prevent Indiscriminate Traffic in Drugs.

[By Guid M. Hayes.]

Governor Ferris—Every law abiding citizen should join in campaign to determine legal sale of drugs.

Attorney General Ferris—If special session is called an amendment to the law relative to the sale of morphine should be called to attention of the legislature.

Dairy and Food Commissioner James Hume—The cocaine law should be amended to compel wholesalers to report monthly sales of this drug to the dairy and food department.

State bacteriologist M. L. Holm—"The title has come when it is necessary to enact legislation restricting the rights of the medical profession in the use of narcotics."

Dr. Bret Nottingham of the state's medical board—"Licenses of physicians or pharmacists should be revoked on conviction for selling or prescribing drugs illegally."

Lansing, Mich.—Allegedly by the exposure of the illegal sale of "dope" in Detroit, Michigan, state officials are planning a crusade against the continuance of this practice, and if a special session of the legislature is called, Governor Ferris will recommend a radical change in the present laws governing the sale of drugs.

The recent discussion of every state official who has studied the proposition that the present laws are not stringent enough to curb vice by the enforcement of the law, and that it is pointed out that there are many other defects which are in need of immediate remedy.
